

Gridders To Wage Inter-Squad Baffle Tomorrow Afternoon

With another week of tough workouts under their belts, Penn State's varsity gridgers will take the field tomorrow afternoon in another practice tilt at 2:30. The inter-squad battle will be held on the practice field on New Beaver Field.

Refuting the oft quoted theory that the Lion football team was weak in reserve material in several spots, the Green eleven slapped down the varsity Blues to the tune of 9 to 0 yesterday afternoon.

Instead of being cheered by this reversal of form, however, Coach Bob Higgins and his assistants felt rather despondent. The regulars failed to pull together and were completely off key.

The outstanding player of the day was Hank Day whose ball carrying set the Blues back on their heels time and time again. It was his stirring 65 yard dash in the third quarter that set up the only touchdown. Hank took the ball off right tackle and when apparently stopped, cut back through the secondary. He was finally brought down on the Blue 13-yard marker. Ralph Ventresco, who is rounding into shape after a recurrence of a knee injury, scored on a short buck.

Ventresco also tallied the remaining three points on a field goal in the second quarter when he place-kicked the ball between the uprights from the 15-yard marker.

Walt Kniaz was back in the Green lineup at tackle after being on the shelf with a minor back injury. The senior veteran and Jack Kerns, sophomore guard, stood out in stopping the varsity's attack.

Chuck Peters' separated shoulder has failed to come around and the number one tail-back merely jogged around to keep in shape. He helped the coaches with the refereeing.

Pick A Strong Limb

Squirrels are athletic little animals. They can climb out on the thinnest of tree limbs, shake like Madame La Zonga, and they never fall off.

Though I am not a squirrel, I have often been described in such terms. At any rate, today I go out on a little limb of my own and make my first football predictions of the year.

Today I will pick, or try to pick, ten games which are being played either tonight or tomorrow. Hereafter, I will only pick five each Saturday. In other words, I start off giving myself two left hooks instead of the one which I will absorb in the future.

I might add that anyone who bets on my predictions cannot hold me responsible in any way, shape, or form. Here they are:

Albright vs. Kutztown (tonight) —Lone Star Dietz's boys should take a close one from the teacher fellows.

Akron vs. Detroit Tech — May be a tight squeeze for the Rubber City boys.

Kentucky vs. Baldwin-Wallace —can't say why, but ride along with Baldwin-Wallace.

Boston College vs. Centre—it'll take more than the Prayin' Colonels to stop the lads from up Massachusetts way.

Centenary vs. Hardins-Simmons —the Cowboys should have an aerial picnic at the expense of the southerners.

Iowa State vs. Luther—I don't even know where Luther is, so guess it must be Iowa State's victory.

Mississippi vs. Union—Ole Miss is set for a big year and will give Union an idea what it would be like to get hit with Niagara Falls.

South Dakota State vs. South Dakota Mines—SDS to make a slight excavation on the Miners.

Oklahoma A. & M. vs. Central State—the Aggies are big, rough, tough, etc. No report in on Central State.

V. M. I. vs. Roanoke—the soldierly-inclined boys from down Virginia way to win in six easy lessons.

Swimming Smoker Slated Next Week

Harriers Prepare For Time Trials

Eating up mileage like a well-fed Packard, the Nittany Lion cross-country squad covered their course yesterday afternoon in preparations for stiff time trials which may be held the latter part of next week.

Potentially a question mark, the harriers have had good fortune in staving off "Ole Man Injury" as far as receiving charley horses and pulled leg muscles in their daily workouts. Captain Bill Smith is leading his men around the hilled circle in easy fashion.

Within a few days, the cross-countrymen will begin putting on pressure in order to place on Coach Chick Werner's first squad to compete against Michigan State on October 12.

A meeting for freshmen and varsity prospects will be held in the basement of Irvin Hall at 2:30 p.m. today in order that Werner may have a complete list of candidates.

Fall Lacrosse Starts

Fall lacrosse practice will get under way next week, Coach Nick Thiel announced yesterday. He asked all varsity and freshman candidates to report to Rec Hall at 4 p.m. today.

'Lack Of Time Hampers Frosh,' Says McAndrews

"They have possibilities," was Coach Marty McAndrews only comment on his 81 yearling gridgers at the end of the second day of freshman football practice yesterday.

"We're going to have to rush things," he said, "because there is such a short time before the first game on October 12 with Bucknell. We not only have to get the boys in condition but we have to teach them plays and teamwork."

Yesterday's practice saw Marty's "boys" devote their time to punting, passing, calisthenics, and light backfield and line drills.

The first heavy work will come Saturday with practice scheduled to start at 2 p.m.

Here's the answer to that problem of finding a clean, comfortable room at a reasonable rate.
