

Varsity Booters Crush Scrub Team In Inter-Squad Competition Saturday

Penn State's varsity soccer team completely outclassed a combination freshman-scrub team in an inter-squad game on the practice field Saturday by a score of 8 to 1.

Walt Hosterman, Charley Taylor, and Woody King scored twice, while Bob Ernst and Don Dorain netted one each for the regulars.

Ed Prichard, an up and coming Frosh booter, scored the only goal for the scrubs in the closing moments of the contest.

With the opening game against Gettysburg College only four days away, the starting team for the Lion booters is still to be named by Coach Bill Jeffrey.

Vieing for the goal position are last year's Goalie Laskaris, and Lou Gantley.

In keen competition for the right fullback post are Bob Hecht, Emmett Fletcher, and Warren Wimmer. Harold Freeman will probably fill the shoes of last year's all-American Bob Schuler at the left fullback.

A newcomer to the ranks is "Gringo" Golinda who apparently is destined to take Gus Bigott's place. Golinda came from a Junior College in Panama and already shows signs of more than filling the boots of Bigott.

Sophomore End Out With Injury

Coach Bob Higgins' plans to strengthen the end department received a serious blow yesterday when Bob Davis, the most promising of the sophomore candidates, suffered a possible broken collar bone in a scrimmage pileup.

The extent of the injury will not be determined until the ex-ray pictures are developed. Davis will be out of action for at least several weeks. To counteract this latest misfortune the coaching staff contemplates two changes in positions of players. Ken Schoonover, and Lou Palazzi, sophomore tackle and center respectively, may be switched to the terminal posts.

Another newcomer to the varsity squad received a temporary setback yesterday when Galen Bayley, fullback, received a separated shoulder in blocking practice.

The varsity Blue team regained its winning stride on Saturday afternoon when they downed the Greens 12 to 0, in a practice intra-squad tilt marred by a drenching downpour.

Wade Mori, veteran guard, distinguished himself in an unusual fashion when he intercepted a poor pass by Hank Day and surprised the Green secondary by racing 75 yards for a touchdown in the first period.

The Blues' second six-pointer came in the final period when Pepper Petrella scored from the seven yard line following a pass play from Smaltz to Pepper, good for 40 yards.

Frosh Booters Play Boalsburg Tomorrow

Members of the freshman soccer squad will receive their first test tomorrow afternoon when they play Boalsburg High School on the practice field.

With about 25 freshmen out, Clyde Underwood, freshman soccer coach, is finding plenty of good material to work with.

Underwood expects to be able to line up a team within the next week. The frosh will open their regular season with Syracuse here on October 19.

Swimmers Meet Tonight

Both varsity and freshman swimming candidates will meet at Phi Epsilon Pi fraternity at 7:30 p.m. today.

Hither And Thither

Adding up the sports scene here, there, and everywhere:

Six of Penn State's football opponents open their season this coming weekend, Bucknell and South Carolina holding off until October 5, when the Bisons come here to help the Lions inaugurate the pigskin parade and the Gamecocks do battle with Georgia.

Pitt, of all the Nittany foes, takes on the largest dose for opening day when they run up against Ohio State at Columbus. Football writers and other curbstone quarterbacks already have a deep grave dug for the Panthers, who face the toughest schedule in the country. But don't let it all fool you, because the Gilded Cats are going to surprise a lot of people! And by the way, they've never lost an opening game.

Not too much surprise registered here over Lloyd Ickes signing with the New York Yanks (football). Leapin' Lloyd showed up well in the All-Star games at New York and Boston and he likes football. Put the two together and it might spell success in the money ranks for Penn State's leading scorer of 1939.

An over-due pat on the back for Ridge Riley, public informations' sports publicity director, for the swell job on the football press information he put out this year. It's so complete that it even tells you how Penn State scored every point made during the 1939 season.

Something reminiscent in Wade Mori's touchdown sprint after catching Jack Day's forward toss in Saturday's "mud-battle"—Walt Kniaz' touchdown spurt against the Army last fall. You can't forget

Frosh Scrimmage Slated This Week

"We'll probably scrimmage the latter part of this week," Marty McAndrews, frosh grid mentor, said yesterday. "With training table starting tomorrow, we'll be able to practice longer and I hope to have the boys in good condition by that time."

On today's menu for the '44 grid-ders will be the first contact work, "two on one" blocking. They started to learn plays Saturday in preparation for the opening tilt less than three weeks hence.

"The team is beginning to shape up pretty well," McAndrews said. "In the backfield Jack Banbury, Aldo Cenci, Jim Thompson, and Quentin Peters look like potentially good ball players. And in the line, I expect a lot from John Potskian, Bernard Brosky, Bob Walters, and Bucky Wallace, ends; John Jaffrus, and Gene Hummel, guards; and Joe Kraynack, center."

McAndrews revealed that negotiations to have Stu Smith join the coaching staff have fallen through. Smith was a member of the professional Pittsburgh Steelers for two years.

it when you see a lineman trucking on down goalward with the agility of a Nazi tank.

Interesting sidelight prior to the football scrimmage Saturday was the annual photographing of the Lion squad for the New Beaver Field Pictorial. Shorty Miller, Nittany luminary back in pre-World War No. 1 days was on hand and posed with Pepper Petrella, who at present is going on from where Shorty left off.

Football predictions made in this column Friday brought home a nice fat average of .800 with eight games picked correctly out of nine and one tie.

MEN Against THE SKY
with RICHARD DIX

He could have been "The Man Most Likely to Succeed"

but indifference, like using a faulty pen, kept him
behind the 8-Ball

Harry had everything, except a sense of discrimination. Perhaps he leaned too heavily on his natural gifts. Anyway he never added to them in college, but laughed things off—like the times his old-fashioned pen ran dry in classes and exams. Our bright alumnus is out in the world today—a man who could have given orders, he is taking them.

Sure, it seems far-fetched, but you'll be surprised what a great big difference it makes in your grades to carry a sure-fire pen like the Parker Sacless Vacumatic.

It's this revolutionary streamlined Beauty that never runs dry unless you let it. For its sacless Television barrel holds nearly twice as much ink as our old type, and it lets you SEE days ahead if it's running low.

It's the only Style that looks like circlets of shimmering velvet—ring upon ring of luminous Pearl and Jet. The One-Hand sacless filler with the "lubricated" Point of extra fine-grained 14K Gold, extra resilient—tipped with Osmiridium that writes "as smooth as oil."

It's the college favorite by nearly 3 to 1—so it rates one "in the Know" to carry the genuine.

Be sure to look for Parker's Blue Diamond—it means Guaranteed for Life. Avoid all substitutes—then you'll have no regrets.
