

CA To Hold Play Tryouts

Tryouts for the first PSCA play, "Bread" by Fred Eastman, will be held in 304 Old Main at 6:45 p.m. Thursday, Eleanor T. Dill '41, chairman of PSCA dramatics, has announced. The play will be coached by John Miller, former Penn State dramatics student.

Alpha Chi Omega will be dinner guests of the ATO's this evening.

New Scholarship Created By WSGA, Beverage Co.

In conjunction with the Coca Cola Company, WSGA has created a new $50 scholarship to be awarded to a needy student. For each case of beverage consumed last year in Atherton Hall, the company paid WSGA five cents. The total amounted to $49.75.

Petitions for a similar arrangement in other women's dormitories are in circulation. Student aid is also given by the company to students who collect bottles from hallways.

December 9 Tentative Date For Matrix Table

Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, has set December 9 as the tentative date for its annual Matrix table at the Nittany Lion Inn. The honorary is working with Dr. Franklin C. Banner, head of the journalism department, to secure a speaker for this dinner to which outstanding women on campus are invited. Possible candidates for membership were discussed and will be acted upon soon, while a tea for new members is slated for October 20.

The program committee appointed for the year is Ruth J. Goldstein '41, Vera L. Kemp '41, and Dorothy B. Reeves '41.

Moody Elected President Of Sigma Delta Epsilon

Dr. Ethel I. Moody, mathematics instructor, was elected president of Sigma Delta Epsilon, a graduate women's scientific honorary, at a dinner for graduate science majors in the Home Economics cafeteria Monday.

Other officers are Dr. Aline H. Frink, mathematics instructor, vice-president; and Mrs. Julia Haber, secretary-treasurer.

Puerto Rican Third In Family To Enroll

"I didn't plan to come to Penn State until two weeks before College opened," declared Angeline Tristani '44, who travelled from Ponce, Puerto Rico to enroll in the College.

She is the third member of her family to attend Penn State, hearing of it first from an uncle Jorge Juan Serralles Jr. '34, and later from her brother, George '41.

Although Miss Tristani feels it is a little cold here, she likes State College, Mac Hall food, the Corner Room, freshman coeds, and feels Grange Dormitory is like home.

After completing high school in Puerto Rico, she attended commercial school and worked in a bank for a year. She has always spoken Spanish, adding French which she studied two years and English which she studied four years to her accomplishments.

Miss Tristani is enrolled in the School of Liberal Arts and plans to take Commerce and Finance. As far as sports are concerned she likes tennis, ping-pong, and bowling, and smilingly admits, "I play poker better."

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,

Enclosed in Eleanor's editorial as of Tuesday, October 8 which I greatly preferred to yours of the same date. When it comes to disposing of hired help I suggest they begin with the Butler.

H. E. Dickson

My dear Editor:—

I am enclosing a clipping of the new organization of "I Want To Be A Captain Troops."

Wanta lay a bet that I won't get a commission before any of these youths?

Go easy for here are my qualifications:

I'm an old lady past three score and ten,

An' I'm looking for a job as an army captain.

In which Division? Well, now let me see,

I'll take the captaincy of the gay calvary.

I ain't rid a hoss since I don't know when,

Anyways, the hosses will be rid by the men.

My duty's in the shade of an old walnut tree,

Issuing curt orders to my young company.

Don't know army orders, but I'll shout with a flare,

"Yon comes the enemy from I don't know where!"

"It comes out the ocean," cry Washington bosses,

"Be gone, ye men! Mount! Ride those hosses!"

Like the wind they ride, scattered all directions,

Huntin' an enemy, as 'twas our intentions.

Oh, I'm an old lady past three score and ten,

An' I'm hankerin' for a job as an army captain.

Yours truly,

Elliotte Roseabuddin.

Editor's Note:—The "I Want to Be A Captain Troops" is a national organization dedicated to securing captain's commissions for young men of draft age who have had no previous experience.

Kenneth Baird, a senior student at the Northwestern University law school and national commander of the new organization says: "the purpose of this organization is to build a better officers' corps, to safeguard the lives of young men by awarding commissions in procurement divisions where the dangers of the battlefield can be averted. The principles of the organization are not democratic. To be eligible to membership, one must be faithful to the precedent set for us by the illustrious son of the Third Term Candidate."

Kenneth Baird, a senior student at the Northwestern University law school and national commander of the new organization says: "the purpose of this organization is to build a better officers' corps, to safeguard the lives of young men by awarding commissions in procurement divisions where the dangers of the battlefield can be averted. The principles of the organization are not democratic. To be eligible to membership, one must be faithful to the precedent set for us by the illustrious son of the Third Term Candidate."

Kenneth Baird, a senior student at the Northwestern University law school and national commander of the new organization says: "the purpose of this organization is to build a better officers' corps, to safeguard the lives of young men by awarding commissions in procurement divisions where the dangers of the battlefield can be averted. The principles of the organization are not democratic. To be eligible to membership, one must be faithful to the precedent set for us by the illustrious son of the Third Term Candidate."

Kenneth Baird, a senior student at the Northwestern University law school and national commander of the new organization says: "the purpose of this organization is to build a better officers' corps, to safeguard the lives of young men by awarding commissions in procurement divisions where the dangers of the battlefield can be averted. The principles of the organization are not democratic. To be eligible to membership, one must be faithful to the precedent set for us by the illustrious son of the Third Term Candidate."

Kenneth Baird, a senior student at the Northwestern University law school and national commander of the new organization says: "the purpose of this organization is to build a better officers' corps, to safeguard the lives of young men by awarding commissions in procurement divisions where the dangers of the battlefield can be averted. The principles of the organization are not democratic. To be eligible to membership, one must be faithful to the precedent set for us by the illustrious son of the Third Term Candidate."

Kenneth Baird, a senior student at the Northwestern University law school and national commander of the new organization says: "the purpose of this organization is to build a better officers' corps, to safeguard the lives of young men by awarding commissions in procurement divisions where the dangers of the battlefield can be averted. The principles of the organization are not democratic. To be eligible to membership, one must be faithful to the precedent set for us by the illustrious son of the Third Term Candidate."

Kenneth Baird, a senior student at the Northwestern University law school and national commander of the new organization says: "the purpose of this organization is to build a better officers' corps, to safeguard the lives of young men by awarding commissions in procurement divisions where the dangers of the battlefield can be averted. The principles of the organization are not democratic. To be eligible to membership, one must be faithful to the precedent set for us by the illustrious son of the Third Term Candidate."

Kenneth Baird, a senior student at the Northwestern University law school and national commander of the new organization says: "the purpose of this organization is to build a better officers' corps, to safeguard the lives of young men by awarding commissions in procurement divisions where the dangers of the battlefield can be averted. The principles of the organization are not democratic. To be eligible to membership, one must be faithful to the precedent set for us by the illustrious son of the Third Term Candidate."

Kenneth Baird, a senior student at the Northwestern University law school and national commander of the new organization says: "the purpose of this organization is to build a better officers' corps, to safeguard the lives of young men by awarding commissions in procurement divisions where the dangers of the battlefield can be averted. The principles of the organization are not democratic. To be eligible to membership, one must be faithful to the precedent set for us by the illustrious son of the Third Term Candidate."

Kenneth Baird, a senior student at the Northwestern University law school and national commander of the new organization says: "the purpose of this organization is to build a better officers' corps, to safeguard the lives of young men by awarding commissions in procurement divisions where the dangers of the battlefield can be averted. The principles of the organization are not democratic. To be eligible to membership, one must be faithful to the precedent set for us by the illustrious son of the Third Term Candidate."

Kenneth Baird, a senior student at the Northwestern University law school and national commander of the new organization says: "the purpose of this organization is to build a better officers' corps, to safeguard the lives of young men by awarding commissions in procurement divisions where the dangers of the battlefield can be averted. The principles of the organization are not democratic. To be eligible to membership, one must be faithful to the precedent set for us by the illustrious son of the Third Term Candidate."

Kenneth Baird, a senior student at the Northwestern University law school and national commander of the new organization says: "the purpose of this organization is to build a better officers' corps, to safeguard the lives of young men by awarding commissions in procurement divisions where the dangers of the battlefield can be averted. The principles of the organization are not democratic. To be eligible to membership, one must be faithful to the precedent set for us by the illustrious son of the Third Term Candidate."

Kenneth Baird, a senior student at the Northwestern University law school and national commander of the new organization says: "the purpose of this organization is to build a better officers' corps, to safeguard the lives of young men by awarding commissions in procurement divisions where the dangers of the battlefield can be averted. The principles of the organization are not democratic. To be eligible to membership, one must be faithful to the precedent set for us by the illustrious son of the Third Term Candidate."

We, The Women— Foolish Prattle Gives Food For Coed Thoughts

THE OH HELL It's Monday and Thank God for Friday Club in Ath Hall deserves a pat on its collective back. It's what all of us have wanted to join for years. We suggest that an Oh Good It's Wednesday The Middle of The Week Club be incorporated.

EVERY DAY UNTIL Saturday is a Pennsylvania Day during which residents blush with pride for dear ole Pennsy and incidentally wear clothes, eat food, and utilize other products which will boost state trade.

IT ISN'T too late to pick up the phone and call your favorite man for the Cwen dance. Show him you appreciate all the places he takes you to all year by inviting him to the first reversed dance of the year. Or you might show that new man on your list that you liked that first date.

ALL THE CHUMMY free association stuff between sorority women and freshmen stopped yesterday. Three hundred or so freshman women started to study as four hundred and forty-five Greek women heaved convulsive sighs of relief and gritted their teeth to await the next rushing onslaught saying, "Maw, why can't we have first semester rushing? Ovrver schools has it, why can't we? Please, Maw. We's sooo tired!"

Atherton Hall Elects Four Groups Of Officers

Atherton Hall officers elected this week are—Southeast: president, Betty L. Ziegler '42; vice-president, Mildred B. Schmidt '43; secretary, Patricia MacKinney '43; treasurer, Margaret M. Lams '43; fire chief, Ruth L. Kiesling '43; social chairman, Elsie L. Rooth '43.

Southwest: president, Katherine A. Loresch '42; vice-president, Lois E. Notovitz '42; secretary-treasurer, Eleanor A. McLaughlin '42; fire chief, Elizabeth K. Heath '43; social chairman, Elsie J. Lund '42.

Northeast: president, Alvira L. Konopka '41; vice-president, Dorothy L. Shaw '42; secretary-treasurer, Janet L. Eyer '42; fire chief, Catherine Bidelspacher '42; social chairman, Judith L. Cutshall '41.

Northwest: president, Anita M. Knecht '42; vice-president, Ruth W. Barbey '42; secretary-treasurer, Martha N. Albert '43; fire chief, Jane A. Stanton '42; social chairman, Janet M. Hartz '42.

'Forty Forum' Chooses Its Committee Officers

PSCA "Forty Forum" committee officers composing the group cabinet this year are: music—chairman, Dorothy J. Jennings; secretary, Patricia Middleton. Project—chairman, Dora Colber; secretary, Katherine Clark.

Worship—chairman, Dorothy Brunner; secretary, Mildred Feeser. Publicity—chairman, Harriet Van Riper; secretary, Joan Somers. Women's banquet program—chairman, Margaret Ramaley. Decorations—chairman, Lorene Hughes.

Collegiate Digest Will Pay For Campus Snapshots

Collegiate Digest, national collegiate photo feature, issued weekly with Collegian is offering $3 for each acceptable picture submitted of events on this campus. Pictures should be action or candid, and must have timeliness and human interest. All photos sent in must be on glossy paper, 4"x6", and have sharp detail and good tone quality. They must be properly captioned with full details.

Mail your pictures to Editor, Collegiate Digest, 323 Fawkes Bldg., Minneapolis, Minn. Unused pictures will be returned to the owner.

Varsity Debaters Party Freshmen

The women's varsity debate squad will sponsor a party for all freshman women interested in debating in White Hall at 7:15 p.m. today.

Freshman debaters last season were hostesses to a convention of nearly a dozen colleges who discussed such issues as isolation, blame for the war, third term, and un-American activities. Intercollegiate debates were scheduled with Bucknell, Gettysburg, and West Virginia teams, both here and away.

Most of their debates are Oregon style, consisting of two 20-minute constructive speeches, two 14-minute cross-examinations, and two 6-minute summaries.

Freshmen may receive academic credit for this extra-curricular activity, and no previous experience is necessary. Varsity Coach Clayton H. Schug and freshman Coach George W. Dougherty are planning a fresman squad of 25 women.

Torrance To Head Republican Club

Robert Z. Torrance '43 was named last Sunday by Frank C. Hilton, State Chairman of the Young Republicans of Pennsylvania, to head the fraternity division of the College Republicans of America on all Pennsylvania campuses.

James S. McKelvey '41 and William Meyers '42, in charge of organization here, will select today fifteen charter members of the Penn State chapter of College Republicans prior to obtaining a charter from the national organization.

"Our immediate purpose," said Meyers, "is to create in every Penn State student an interest in the coming election."

Torrance, son of Republican State Chairman, James F. Torrance, is by coincidence a fraternity brother of Wendell L. Willkie. Both are members of Beta Theta Pi.

Keller, Frizzell Head State Groups

During last week J. Orvis Keller, assistant to the president in charge of extension, and Prof. John H. Frizzell, head of the speech department, were reelected heads of statewide organizations.

Keller was reelected president of the Pennsylvania State Association for Adult Education at a meeting in Altoona, and Frizzell was named to continue as president of the Pennsylvania Speech Association in a meeting at Harrisburg.

The adult education group also named Marion S. McDowell, associate professor of home economics, as president of its division of education for family living. Hugh G. Pyle, supervisor of informal instruction in extension, becomes secretary of its university extension division.

Lightfoot '13 Appointed New Project Engineer

Harold C. Lightfoot '13 was appointed project engineer on the Harrisburg-Pittsburgh turnpike, it was announced by Regional PWA Administrator M. E. Gilmore yesterday.

Lightfoot was the PWA's engineer assigned to construction of the Delaware River bridge between Philadelphia and Camden.

Sunday Hike Planned

The Penn State Outing Club is sponsoring a hike to Mt. Nittany leaving from the front of Old Main at 2 p.m. Sunday. Refreshments will be served and participants are invited to bring dates. Phys Ed elective credit will be given.

Nittany A WARNER BROS. THEATRE. Evenings Only 6:30, 8:30. LAST TIMES TODAY JEANNETTE MACDONALD NELSON EDDY —in— "NEW MOON" FRIDAY ONLY OLIVIA DE HAVILLAND JEFFREY LYNN —in— "MY LOVE CAME BACK" —PLUS— "CAVALCADE OF ACADEMY AWARDS"

Cathaum A WARNER BROS. THEATRE. Shows at 1:30, 3:00, 6:30, 8:30. LAST TIMES TODAY DRURY starring Ann SOTHERN with IAN HUNTER —Plus— LATEST MARCH OF TIME FRIDAY ONLY ON STAGE !!! IN PERSON IT'S TOMMY TUCKER TIME MCA presents TOMMY TUCKER AND HIS ORCHESTRA with AMY ARNELL Screen Attraction GENE AUTRY —in— "Gauche Serenade" STAGE ATTRACTION AT 1:40, 3:41, 6:45, 8:51

CLASSIFIED SECTION

FOR RENT—Furnished house for the winter. Call State College 2951. 31pd101195E4

TYPEWRITERS—All makes expertly repaired. Portable and office machines for sale or rent. Dial 2342. Harry F. Mann, 127 W. Beaver avenue. chyrt-Th-F-CRE

WANTED—One student for second floor front double-room, single beds. 412 S. Allen. Phone 2392. 1tpd10-1035V7

FOR SALE—Tuxedo single breasted size 36, sell at sacrifice, guaranteed. Inquire at Alpha Chi. RHO. Phone 841 ask for "Gray." 3tpd1012100E

APARTMENT FOR RENT—Furnished two rooms, kitchenette, bath, shower, electric refrigerator. Also garage. Phone 4183 or 629 after 5 p.m. 1tpd101035E6

State Shows at 1:30, 3:00, 6:30, 8:30. TODAY - FRIDAY. TIMELY! Tempestuous! Terrific Drama! JAMES ROOSEVELT PASTOR HALL with WILFRID LAWSON NOVA PILBEAM