

Waring Broadcast, Radio Pep Rally, Collegian Dance This Evening

Football Pep Rally Set For 7 Tonight

Tonight is THE night! The night of the mammoth football pep rally which will go out over the air through KDKA. The night that Fred Waring will introduce to listeners all over the country the song he wrote for Penn State.

An expected crowd of 6,000 students and alumni will gather to root for the Lion gridders before their clash with West Virginia tomorrow.

Things start popping at 7 o'clock when Fred Waring will dedicate Penn State's song on his regular 15-minute broadcast. The program will be relayed through amplifiers.

At 7:30 a rehearsal for the pep rally broadcast is scheduled during which time students and alumni can see a broadcast in the making. By 8 p.m. the actual broadcast will be in full swing. Coaches Bill Kern of West Virginia and Bob Higgins of State will offer comments on tomorrow's football clash between their teams. School songs of both colleges will be played and sung with the entire Lion squad present.

Included among the numbers selected for the broadcast by the Blue Band and Glee Club are the "Victory" and "Nittany Lion" songs and "Hail West Virginia."

An interesting feature of the broadcast will be the "Miss-information Please" quiz starring the three candidates for the "Collegian Queen" title, Jean Craighead '41, Gloria Knepper '43, and Phyllis Watkins '44.

Don Dixon '37 Will Handle Rally Broadcast Tonight

A Penn State alumnus, Donald Dixon '37 will have charge of the broadcasting of the Pep Rally tonight in Rec Hall. Don, a Sigma Nu, played the piano for the Varsity Quartet while here at State.

Following their graduation the members of the quartet sang as an entertainment unit in the Pittsburgh area. When they broke up after six months, Dixon got a job with station KDKA in Pittsburgh.

Jones, Speidel To Address Cambria Teachers' Meet

Dr. Lloyd Jones and Mr. Charles Speidel, of the School of Physical Education and Athletics, will leave today for Ebensburg to attend the Cambria County Teachers' Institute, today and tomorrow.

Mr. Speidel will speak on trends in the development of physical education and possibilities of the future, while Dr. Jones will discuss the role of health, physical education, and recreation in the program of national defense.

Will Play

Fred Waring has written a new Penn State song which he will broadcast on his radio program tonight. He indicated recently that he hopes to be here for the football game tomorrow.

Waring Dedicates New Song Tonight

The new Penn State song, written by Fred Waring, a former College student, will be heard for the first time at 7 p.m. today when it will be dedicated on Waring's regular NBC Red Network program sponsored by Chesterfield Cigarettes. Amplifiers will relay the broadcast to an expected 6,000 students and alumni in Recreation Hall for the football pep rally.

Waring's pep and alma-mater songs for colleges have undergraduate groups all over the country jockeying for a spot on his Friday smoker edition of Pleasure Time devoted to college listeners. It was with a great deal of sentiment, therefore, that Waring accepted an invitation to dedicate a song to his own alma mater.

Waring explained his interest in the project this way: "There's nothing more heartwarming than a good college tune. They are sung and sentimentally remembered when other songs are forgotten. But, though hundreds of popular tunes are brought out each year, little effort has been made to add to the list of traditional college pep and alma mater songs. I am happy to make some contribution to this grand type of music, particularly when my own college is involved."

Fred, the first popular orchestra leader to make commercial use of glee club singing, failed to make the Glee Club at Penn State. This snub resulted in his taking his interest in group singing to his own band.

Collegian Dance Will Follow Rally

The first big all-college swing session of the year—the Collegian Dance—will officially get underway tonight at 9 o'clock in Rec Hall, following the mammoth pep rally.

The Campus Owls will furnish the music, Collegian subscribers will furnish the dancing. During the intermission, all-college president, Arnie Laich will present a cup to the winner of the "Collegian Queen" title.

The candidates are Jean Craighead '41, Dormitory Queen; Gloria Knepper '43, Sorority Queen, and Phyllis Watkins, Freshman Queen. The name of the lucky co-ed, selected yesterday by a committee of judges, will remain a deep dark secret until intermission when the winner is presented with the cup.

At 11 p. m. Fred Waring's song, which he dedicated to Penn State, will be rebroadcast over a nationwide hookup. The song will be relayed through amplifiers for the benefit of dancers.

Following this, the Campus Owls will continue playing until 12 midnight.

Lazy men are scorned by women, Dr. Simpson's study of the island customs revealed. When a man proposes to a girl, she asks two questions: "Where is your field?" and "Are you a good worker?"

'Unfortunate,' Says Laich

In a statement issued last night on the rejection of responsibility for damages resulting from last week's pajama parade, All-College President Arnold C. Laich '41 said: "It is unfortunate that this matter could not be settled as was previously planned. However, the matter will be taken up by the All-College Cabinet and, in accord with our promise, an agreement will be reached."

May Sing

Samuel Gallu '40, in answer to a student petition, may introduce Fred Waring's new State song on the Chesterfield football smoker to be broadcast at 7 and 11 p.m. today.

Frosh Don't Know Way Around Yet

Results of a survey conducted by members of Dr. William M. Lepley's class in experimental psychology indicated that freshmen and newcomers to the campus are rather slow in learning the locations of various well-known local institutions.

Among the questions asked in the survey, were: Where is the Rathskeller? the Theta house? President Hetzel's office? Metzgers store? and the PSCA office?

The results obtained proved that 46 percent of the men and 13 percent of the women know where the Rathskeller is.

Only two percent of the men were sure of the location of the Theta house while 25 percent of the females know the sorority location.

Forty-two percent of the boys were familiar with President Hetzel's house in comparison to six percent of the women.

Metzger's impressed 83 percent of the men and 81 percent of the new girls were acquainted with the store.

The PSCA struck a familiar note in the minds of the newcomers as 78 percent of the men and 66 percent of the women knew that it was in Old Main.
