

Frosh Gridders Work On Pass Defense After Deadlocking Colgate, 7-7

Free from injuries after gaining a well-earned 7-7 tie with the Colgate yearlings Saturday, the frosh gridders spent yesterday's practice working on pass defense and drilling on offensive tactics.

Scrimmage, probably against the varsity, is on the slate for this afternoon.

Although the Lion cubs came from behind late in the fourth quarter to deadlock the Red Raider freshmen, State had the edge statistically. The Lions had a net gain of 97 yards from rushing while the visitors had only 58.

The Colgate score in the first quarter was set up by a bad kick by Aldo Cenci, State quarterback. Cenci kicked from his own 15 but the ball sailed high and to the right, going out of bounds on the 25. Running plays carried the Maroon frosh to the 12 where Ed Witkowski passed to Mike Micha for the touchdown. Cusick's placement was good.

State tallied in the final period after a 76-yard march. With Chappy Peters and Jack Banbury carrying the ball, the freshmen advanced to the one-yard stripe and Peters plunged over right tackle to score. Bucky Walters took the ball on an end around for the point after touchdown.

Lion Gridders Prepare For Tough Battle With Temple

Varsity Unimpressive In 34-0 Lehigh Rout

The undefeated Nittany Lion gridders, fresh from a lackadaisical 34-0 romp over a fighting but weak Lehigh eleven, began preparations yesterday for their latest and toughest threat to a clean slate, the up and coming Temple Owls.

The Philadelphia team's stunning 21-19 upset over strong Michigan State Friday night and the Lions' half-hearted performance against the Engineers put an entirely new aspect on Saturday's battle in Quaker City.

Coach Bob Higgins sent his first two teams through intensive drills on pass defense yesterday afternoon as the three injured players on the squad, Craig White, Ralph Ventresco and Bob Wear, returned to the squad with the team physician's okay after being on the sidelines for the past two games. Since there was no contact work they will have to wait till this afternoon before they are tested in actual scrimmage.

The varsity team was forced to take a back seat last Saturday and watch the second and third stringers steal the thunder. Only the brilliant ball carrying of veteran Chuck Peters stood out in the regulars' run of the mill offensive.

After taking the opening kickoff and marching down the field for 64 yards and a touchdown on a 20-yard pass from Earl Brown to Len Krouse, the regulars slowed up the tempo of their play and allowed Lehigh to hold them at bay for the remainder of the half.

Chuck Peters' spectacular 96-yard run after taking the Engineers' second-half kickoff was the only other bright mark set by the first stringers. Taking the ball on the 4-yard line, Chuck came up the center of the field, shook off his first tackler on the 30 and headed for the right sidelines. Only the safety man could have stopped him on the Lehigh 25.

Nittany Booters Blank Weak Bucknell Squad, 8-0; Drill For First Away Tilt At Syracuse Saturday

After blanking an inferior Bucknell squad, 8-0, amid a miniature blizzard Saturday afternoon, Bill Jeffrey's eighth undefeated soccer eleven began drills last night for their tilt at Syracuse this weekend.

Saturday's game was Penn State's all the way from the first quarter when Woody King tallied for the Lions, to the last period when Van Hartman scored and King chalked up two more for the Nittanymen.

Early in the second period Anibal Galindo received a corner kick from Don Duran and booted into the net. This started the fireworks and in rapid succession the Lions scored two more. Ned Corman passed to King who drove past the goalie, and a few minutes later Don Megrail took a corner kick from Hartman, dribbled around his opponent and booted the Lions' fifth goal.

It was in the third period that the Jeffrey men displayed the quality that makes them the country's top notch team as they took the ball from one end of the field to the other in ten seconds where Bobby Ernst scored.

Mainstay of the Lions was Captain Walt Hosterman who time after time successfully tackled his opponent and set up scoring plays for the Nittanymen.

Lion Cub Booters Down Syracuse Freshmen, 1-0

The Nittany freshman soccer team left much to be desired in their first game with the Syracuse cubs here Saturday in spite of its 1-0 victory.

The Lion cubs displayed fine technique, but an evident lack of team coordination kept the game a touch-and-go affair until Bill Pritchard, State center forward, scored in first minutes of the last quarter.

Hampered by icy winds and a slippery ball, neither team was able to effectively threaten until Pritchard's last period score.

Score by periods:
Penn State 0 0 0 1—1

Nittany Lion Harriers Hold Time Trials Today With Three Men Disabled

Like an ill wind that blows nobody good, a strong injury jinx will buffet the Nittany Lion cross-country runners when they race in their second time trials on the College course at 4 p. m. today with at least three top-notch varsity men not competing for the Syracuse seven-man team.

With the Syracuse meet switched to Friday, Alex Bourgerie Herm Goffberg, and Howie Wheeler are nursing leg injuries with little possibility of their recovering in time to chase the orangemen over the Lion course.

Goffberg and Wheeler return to harrier duty today, although Goffberg's three-week layoff and Wheeler's bad ankle injury will prevent them from participating in the Syracuse harrier duel. Bourgerie is expected to report for workouts on Thursday.

Between The Lions

WITH DICK PETERS

Aftermath

Whether you thought the Lions' win over Lehigh Saturday was impressive enough is not the question . . . they did win and by a sizeable margin, which still leaves them undefeated and in good condition for the Temple fust . . . To be sure, the State team didn't do much the first half, but then the Lehigh bunch didn't do anything at all between 2 and 4:30 p.m. that afternoon . . . Less excitement at the game than in a maternity ward, not even when Chuck Peters turned in his 96-yard tally run . . . The tow-headed senior played his best game since last year's Penn fracas and his run-back of the second half kick-off was almost a single-handed job, with very little blocking aid by Lion team-mates . . . In my opinion, the most forgotten man on the Nittany squad is big Frank Platt, front line tackle . . . I had been suspecting that Platt was doing something in there besides filling the gap between Vargo and Mori . . . In watching him on defense, on the seven consecutive plays, he was not taken out of the play once, and personally accounted for three of the seven tackles . . . Speaking of defensive work, giving credit where it is due, you can't overlook the yeoman service of Lehigh's Bernie Deehan, a sophomore fullback who was over the field like a whirling dervish all afternoon, breaking up Nittany plays almost before the Lions came out of their huddle . . . An interesting sidelight on Deehan is that he has taken over the position of his fraternity roommate, Steve Smoke, a senior who held the spot for the past two years . . . Guessing wrong on only one game over the weekend, the Pitt-Fordham clash, this column's average to date jumped to .787, with a total so far of 37 games picked right, ten incorrect, and three tied.
