Miss Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women, will lead a round table discussion on rushing at the Nittany Lion Inn at 3:15 p.m. today.

Adrian O. Morse, assistant to the president, will discuss "The Fraternity's Contribution in the Future," at the luncheon of Panhellenic delegates at the Nittany Lion Inn at 1 p.m. today.

Catch-of-Campus Crowning Tonight

In an atmosphere of comic cartoons and backwoods decorations, the Catch-of-the-Campus will be crowned at Mortar Board's Spinster Skip, set for White Hall at 9 p. m. today, to climax Sadie Hawkins Day.

Tonight the ideal man, W. Lewis Corbin '41, Charles M. Peters '41, or Robert Robinson '41, will receive a Mortar Board, and each coed will be draggin' her own particular Li'l Abner, the one she's been chasing all week.

Any late racers may still secure tickets for the dance, for which the Campus Owls will play, at Student Union or at the dance for one dollar per couple.

Sadie Hawkins Day will be complete with coed-escorted bachelor boys, vegetable corsages, and a movie version of "Li'l Abner" at one of the local theaters.

Tribunal has lifted freshman men's customs for the dance, and WSGA has granted free one o'clocks to freshman women for the dance.

Counselor Confab Features Crafts

Making acorn bracelets and lanyards, playing such camp games as geography and charades, and folk dancing will highlight today's session of the Camp Counselor's Conference at White Hall beginning at 2 p. m.

Mrs. M. Donald Esh, mother of H. Jean Esh '43, and supervisor of arts and crafts in the Bear Mountain district, will lead the arts and crafts sessions. Ten cents will be charged for making each of these items.

After playing table and action games useful for the camp group, coed counselors will be taught folk dances by Mildred M. Lucey, instructor in activities and head counselor at Camp Onika.

WRA office has set up an employment bureau for prospective counselors, and any interested coed may file an application at the conference.

An exhibit of leather goods, camp scrapbooks, photographs, and handcraft projects made by the counselors in previous summers is a feature of the convention.

Last night's program was devoted to camp songs and swimming games and stunts.

Today's program:
2-3 p.m.—Arts and crafts.
3-4 p.m.—Games and refreshments.
4-5 p.m.—Folk dancing.

With Other Women—

Soph Dance Features Kiss Testing Machine

Sophomores at Northeastern boast of something new for their annual dance—it's a "Kiss-O-Graph," an electro-magnetic mechanical device, guaranteed to test the amount of heat generated when osculation occurs.

Temple, like most schools, recently concluded its sorority rushing. Women debaters at Cornell discussed advantages of deferring their rushing until second semester.

Panhellenic Association at West Virginia University organized an Intersorority Pledge Council, composed of two pledges from each sorority, to familiarize the group with Panhellenic work.

Zeta Entertains Officers

Zeta Tau Alpha will entertain Miss Dorothy Gibbons, national field secretary, and Miss Doris Murray, province president, at a coffee hour in Atherton Hall from 2 to 2:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Profs Classified Spicy, Skimmers, Killers-Egad!

"All professors can be divided into classes," declares the Emory Wheel, student newspaper of Emory University, Atlanta, and lists the following:

"1. The killer type. He wants to kill off the lower third of the class and thinks the best way is by overwork.

"2. The spicy type. He has a lot of cheek and pincty of tongue to put in it. His lectures kick up intellectual sparks out of the academic flint.

"3. The skimmer type. The surfacing in his courses is fine. But the foundation is weak.

"4. The fatherly type. He is the unexpected father, always giving pop examinations.

"5. The hard rock type. You have to be more than a good musician to hit a high C under this poker. If he were a movie critic, he wouldn't even give the United States flag 48 stars.

"6. The uh-mar type. He doesn't know any punctuation except "uhs." For variety he throws in a "but uh" now and then.

"7. The cocktail type. He whets your intellectual appetite. He knows a great deal but doesn't try to make everybody realize it.

"8. The nomad type. Like the nomad of the desert he loves to wander and what he wanders over is dry as the desert."

Could Penn State professors be classified among these aforementioned types? We wonder.

We, The Women—

Today Is THE Day! Start Running, Men

DEAR BOY FRIEND:

Today is THE day! Not only is Penn State going to beat Syracuse, but I am going to beat you. For today is the day to get out your track shoes and start running. It's Sadie Hawkins' Day and I want you for my Li'l Abner.

Today the dating code will suffer a nervous breakdown with all the coeds doing the escorting. Instead of your sending me a corsage, your's will arrive in the conventional cellophane wrapper. Do you think radishes will look all right with your gray suit? And how about a dinner and movie date before the Spinster Skip? I'll be around at six.

Today I am going to prove I really appreciate all the good times we have had together.

Tonight you can give me your shaving kit to carry. And you can keep me waiting—but for long, please. I will try to be as good-natured as you always are about stuffing your pockets with a compact, lipstick, and comb. And I'll endeavor to wait without tapping my foot.

You may not be tall, dark, and handsome, or even a medium, light, and able-to-get-by-in-a-crowd type. You may not be voted the "Catch-of-the-Campus" but you are still my ideal man.

SADIE HAWKINS

Phi Mu To Initiate Six
