

'Grades Important' Reminds Pan-Hel In Warning To Freshman Women

Bang-Up Open House Planned For Tuesday

"The great majority of sororities will not pledge women with an average below 'I,'" reminded Harriet Singer '41, Panhellenic president, in a statement to the Daily Collegian last night.

"Since most freshmen do not realize the importance of their grades in conjunction with sorority rushing and pledging until too late," she said, "it has been brought to their attention."

The last Open House scheduled from 4 to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday is set to be a bang-up affair, she added, and all freshmen and transfers should make the most of their last opportunity to get acquainted with sorority women.

Free association will continue until Christmas vacation with room visiting, basketball games, and "dutch treat" dating permitted. However, after vacation until noon of the first day of second semester, there will be a silent period with no contacts permitted. Upperclasswomen will be permitted to speak to freshmen, but no visiting or dating will be allowed.

Christmas Drive Goal Set By WSGA

Twenty-five cents from every woman student is the goal set by WSGA in its annual Christmas Fund Drive in an effort to surpass last year's $196.25 mark. Proceeds from the drive will be distributed among the Mifflin County Children's Aid Society, American Women's Hospitals, and Mrs. Hetzel's Fund.

Located at Lewistown, the Children's Aid Society assists children adopted into families unable to provide more than bare necessities of life. Contributions from the College coeds provide toys, clothing, and a little spending money.

The American Women's Hospitals aids in relief of suffering among civilian population during war. Disease prevention, child health, and maternity work are phases of home work conducted in Southern Highlands. This society lacks endowment and depends upon contributions.

Helping students meet emergencies is the work of Mrs. Hetzel's committee. This group depends entirely upon gifts to render aid.

We, The Women— It's Almost Christmas Somewhere In England

The Pope issued a plea for a 48-hour armistice over Christmas. The plea awoke many thoughts as to what Christmas must be like over there. Can men go on believing in something fine and decent while they go on killing and dropping bombs on others who are men too?

Can they see blood on the ground and long for plum pudding and roast turkey? Can they forget the hate and blood and killing for two days and remember the days over a year ago when there were prospects of a peaceful yuletide?

Can they light Christmas trees and then black them out after 48 hours?

Can they manufacture toy guns and soldiers and present them to their sons without tearing their souls out? Can they give dolls to their little daughters and forget the little girls whose dads will never come back?

Can the sound of carols drown out the screams of agony and roar of bombs and tanks?

Can a man forget those things for 48 hours and then go back to killing and hating? If he did go home, would he be happier and more willing to return to "somewhere in England?"

Some think they could forget and be happy for two days.

Some think if it could end for two days it could end forever.

Omicron Nu Will Initiate Five Pledges Saturday

Omicron Nu, home economics honorary, will initiate Eleanor M. Boyer '41, Bertha M. Douthett '41, Rhea J. Hower '41, Jane R. Keith '42 and Regina M. Wingaris '41 in the home economics dining room, Home Economics Building, at 3 p. m. tomorrow.

Committees for the tea which will follow initiation are Janet N. Holtzinger '41, arrangements; Darline A. Neuhauser '41, food; and Betty A. Willits '41, flowers.

Dr. Helen Judy Bond, past president of the American Home Economics Association and a member of Omicron Nu, has been invited to the affair as a special guest.

Junior Service Board To Give Doll To Winning Coed

Complete to hand knit undies! That's the doll WSGA Junior Service Board will award to the winning coed Wednesday, December 19.

Dressed in a pastel cotton dress, white angora sweater and mittens, blue knitted coat and hat, this blond 15-inch doll was presented to the board by Mrs. Edward Steidle and dressed by Mrs. Charles R. Austin.

If you want the doll for yourself or a friend and wish to aid the British War Relief Society too, contact any board member.

FRANKLIN had the RIGHT IDEA

When Benjamin Franklin became Postmaster General, he made a study of horseshoeing to prevent delays in delivering the mail.

Today, Bell engineers are just as careful in checking every tiny detail of telephone operation.

Result: America enjoys the world's finest telephone service.

You can use it with confidence... with pleasure... with profit!

Why students squirm in classrooms:

1. Because the lecture is dull.
2. Because they're going to be called on.
3. Because they're wearing uncomfortable underwear.

We can only cure the third case! We suggest that you stock up on the world's most comfortable shorts: Arrow Shorts. They have the patented seamless crotch, they have roomy seats, they never shrink out of perfect fit because they're Sanforized-Shrunk (fabric shrinkage less than 1%). What's more, they have grippers instead of buttons—nothing to sew back on! See your Arrow dealer today!
