

16 Fighters Advance In Second Day Of Intramural Boxing Tourney

Between The Lions

WITH DICK PETERS

Gage Comment

Don't be too sure of a Nittany victory on the hardwood tonight when Lawther's Lanky Lions make their debut against the W&J cagers. . . If the State tossers come through this evening it'll go down as an upset, for several reasons. . . Seven of the reasons are Messrs. Tidrick, Reynolds, Giesler, Reece, Kettewell, Wilson, and Skokos, all lettermen returning to duty for the Presidents. . . Another reason is that it is the Lions' first game, while the Washington, Pa., lads have already treid their hand at the old toss-em-through racket this winter, soundly trouncing the Youngstown College fellers Wednesday night. . . Add to that the fact that Long John Lawther will be starting two sophomores, and things don't look too enterprising; but then, Lawther fives have a habit of pulling surprises.

Intramural boxing wars take a 48-hour armistice, but they'll be back Monday throwing more leather. . . A lot of interesting as well as fast fights yesterday, highlighter by the Bayard Bloom-Jack Heck tussle, which reminded one just a little of a Maxie Baer setto, what with all the antics the lads went through. . . Speaking of Heck, reminds this writer that he is the third varsity boxing manager in succession who has donned the leather mittens during the IM's. . . Galusha Anderson last year, and Pat Costello in 1938 were the two succeeding manager-boxers. . . Other campus sports names who step into the squared circle for intramural mit-tossing include Charlie Ridenour, Clair Hess, varsity wrestlers, Barney Ewell, the track speedster, who is a good bet for the 165 pound title, and Max Peters, varsity skier and trackster, all of whom won yesterday. . . This Max Hanna who is seeking the 135 pound Independent crown is the nephew of Roy Hanna, Lion ring captain two years ago. . . Mr. Florian Houck discovered Roy in the intramurals and saw him go on to win the Intercollegiate 135 pound championship in his senior year. . . History has been known to repeat.

Genial Gene Wettstone is looking for a big year with his varsity and freshmen gymnasts. . . With last year's terrific frosh squad now available for varsity work, Wettstone has his eye on the best season ever for the air-crobbats. . . Roman Pico, the flit-boy, is doing work-horse duty, performing on all apparatus except tumbling. . . This'll probably keep the Lion ace from cracking any rope-climbing records, but strengthens the Nittany team no little, for the senior star is adept on all pieces of apparatus.

Schoff, Houck, Fleming To Attend EIBA Meeting

Dean Carl P. Schoff of the School of Physical Education and Athletics, Leo Houck, boxing coach, and Neil M. Fleming, graduate manager of athletics, will attend a conference of the Eastern Intercollegiate Boxing Association at the Hotel Biltmore, New York City, Monday morning.

The distribution of officials for EIBA matches will be the principal point of discussion.

State Hockey Team Opens Season With 3-1 Win Over Carnegie Tech

Special To The Daily Collegian

The Lion ice hockey team got off to a perfect start in their second season of play as they swept to a 3-1 victory over Carnegie Tech at Johnstown last night.

The Tartans got off to an early lead as Block sent the puck past Larry Lightbody, State goalie, less than five minutes after the opening whistle.

After battling on even terms with Tech for the rest of the first period State came back in the second to score three times and completely dominate the play.

John Dufford tallied early in the period, assisted by Gates and Kaiser. He scored again 10 minutes later, and again on a pass from Gates.

Gates got credit for the third Nittany goal just before the end of the period. He was assisted by Johnson.

For Carnegie Tech, Goalie Feiler was outstanding as he played brilliant hockey in chalking up 20 saves.

The lineups:

Pos.	State	Tech
G.	Lightbody	Feiler
C.	Dufford	Sivachek
W.	Gates	Block
W.	Johnson	Evans
D.	Wolbert	Barker
D.	DeLong	Church

Score by periods:

Penn State	0	3	0-3
Carnegie Tech	1	0	0-1

Goals: Penn State—Dufford 2, Gates; Carnegie Tech—Block.

Varsity Tankmen Meet Frosh Today

The varsity swimming team will warm up for their forthcoming season today, at 2 p. m. in the Glennland pool when they will battle against the freshmen splashers.

Varsity team captain, Bill Kirkpatrick, who is the free-style sprint star, will lead four other last year's lettermen in to the melee. The lettermen are Don Delmanzo, free style and distance man, Al Price, diving, George Webb, backstroke, and Tom Reissman, who swam in the distance events last year but has shown great promise as a backstroke swimmer so far this season.

Varsity Coach Robert Galbraith will probably have several sophomores in the starting lineup. Outstanding sophomores from last year's freshman team are Albert Bertram, Morrie Stern, and Ted Clauss in the free styles; Ted Taylor, in the backstroke; and Sam Chase in diving.

Diving instructor Bill Gaskill stated yesterday that the freshman team would be quite weak in the diving department but that the team as a whole was in top shape and he expects them to give the varsity Lions quite a battle.

Outstanding among the frosh so far this season are: Ben Raiken, breaststroke; John Miller, 220 yard free style; Marvin Nathan, free style dashes; Lydon Beam, backstroke; and Warren Newberry, free style.

State Ski Championships Are Set For Nittany Trail

Pennsylvania's second annual "ski championships" will be held at Penn State on February 1 and 2, 1941—if sufficient snow falls at that time, the commerce department said yesterday.

The ski trail is situated at Bald Top Knob on Tussey Mountain near Bealsburg. The "championships" were held over the Bald Top course last year.

Moffatt.

Dick Grimes, a junior, will start at center. Another junior letter-winner, Elmer Gross, is slated for a guard position and the other will go to Herk Baltimore or John Linde with Linde having the edge. Another sophomore, Bob Ramin, who has been coming along fast in recent practices, is certain to see action and stands a slight chance of starting in case Lawther decides to make a last-minute change.

The biggest problem for the State defense will be how to stop a pair of high-scoring W&J seniors, How Tidrick and Chuck Reynolds. These two proved the nemesis of Nittany hopes in last year's encounter by tallying a combined total of 27 points as their team won 35-26. Tidrick will start at forward and Reynolds at center.

Another senior President is Hal Geisler who will team with Wally Kettlewell, a junior veteran, on the back line. The other forward post is earmarked for junior Al Reece.

In addition to these five Coach Adam Sanders will have two hold-over lettermen on the reserve list. They are Ted Skokos and Jack Wilson.

The game will bring to a close the fourth annual basketball clinic sponsored by the College. More than 1,000 coaches, officials, players and fans are expected to attend the all-day session.

All games during the day will be analyzed by a group of coaches over a public address system. They will comment on plays, rule interpretations and other cage intricacies.

There is no admission charge for any of the demonstration contests, including the varsity game.

Probable starting varsity lineups:

Pos.	State	W & J
F.	Barr	Tidrick
F.	Silan or Moffatt	Reece
C.	Grimes	Reynolds
G.	Linde or Baltimore	Geisler
G.	Gross	Kettlewell

Manager Continues Tradition, Beats Scribe

Enlivened by the appearances of managers, writers, skiers, runners, wrestlers, and a TKO, the second series of intramural boxing bouts advanced 16 into the next round at Rec Hall yesterday.

Jack Heck, boxing manager and Bayard Bloom, Collegian scribe, went three rounds with Heck taking the decision. Barney Ewell, Lion flash sprinter, Max Peters, ski captain and Leo McShane and Charles Ridenour, wrestlers, also took part in the bouts.

In the first bout, Bob Taylor's fast lefts and rights accounted for the afternoon's only TKO over Bob Weiser.

One of Walter Camp's all-time All-American gridders, Pete 'Fats' Henry, now Director of Athletics at Washington and Jefferson, acted as judge with Bob Grieves taking the other corner. Paul Mall, Joe Miller and Red Stanko refereed the bouts.

The next bouts will be in Rec Hall at 4 p. m. Monday.

The summaries:

Independent

172-pound class: Bob Taylor TKOed Bob Weiser in the second round; Claire Hess decisioned Jess Fardella.

135-pound: John Brittain decisioned Ralph Schmidt.

145-pound: Ernie George decisioned George Espy.

155-pound: Jack Heck, Phi Kappa, decisioned Bayard Bloom, Kappa Sig; Max Peters, Alpha Chi Sig, decisioned Ray Bedner, Phi Kappa.

Town alumni and town mothers of Kappa Alpha Theta will be entertained at a tea on Sunday afternoon at the Theta house from 3 to 5 p.m.

Gajecski Accepts Bid; Lions Rank 6th In East

Captain Leon Gajecski accepted the invitation yesterday to play in the East-West game in San Francisco on January 1 and will depart for Chicago on December 18 to join his eastern teammates for practice.

Gajecski is the second Penn State player ever to be so honored. The only other Blue and White entry in this classic was "Skip" Staley, an end, in 1931.

Penn State's football team was ranked sixth in the East Wednesday as the great Boston College eleven was awarded the August V. Lambert Memorial Trophy, symbolic of Eastern gridiron supremacy. The Eagles were the unanimous choice of the committee of 65 experts. Fordham was runner-up, with Georgetown in the third spot, followed by Pennsylvania, Lafayette, Penn State, and Cornell.

Intramural Weightlifting Will Begin Next Saturday

Qualifying competition for intramural weightlifting sponsored by the Strength and Health Club will begin next Saturday in Rec Hall, Gene Whetstone, gym coach, announced yesterday.

All those who wish to enter sign up on the weightlifting bulletin board in Rec Hall before Thursday.

Candidates should give their name, address, telephone number and body weight.
