

'Santa' Will Give Gifts To 76 Underprivileged Kiddies Friday

WRA Sports Clubs Will Sponsor Annual Party

With squeals of delight and merry giggles, 76 happy youngsters from the first and second grades of the Pine Grove Mills School will receive Christmas gifts from Dr. Charles C. "Santa Claus" Wagner, of the mathematics department, in the lobby of White Hall next Friday following an afternoon of fun.

To most of these youngsters Christmas will be Friday the thirteenth, but that won't ruin their fun. No siree, they're going to have ice cream, cake, movies, and a story—and best of all, gifts through the sponsorship of WRA and the sports clubs.

Their party will begin with movies in Room 103 White Hall at 2 p.m. followed by games in the gymnasium. After this the kiddies will gather round the decorated Christmas tree and listen wide-eyed to the stories of Mrs. J. Ewing Kennedy. Then to top off the whole party, all the guests will be treated to cake and candy, march up to Santa when his name is called and receive the "best dollie" or the "swellest football in the world."

Wielen L. Mazer '42, activities board chairman, is in charge of the party, and Miss Mary T. Nitzky, of State College, is in charge of transportation of the guests.

Club presidents and the part their groups will play in the party include: Jeanne M. Chew '41, tennis—entertainment and program; Louise B. Clark '41, swimming—entertainment and program; Janet L. Fleming '42, golf and refreshments; Mary L. Lenker '43, archery—checking; Vera J. Palmer '41, dance—decorations; Dorothy B. Reeves '41—gifts; Betty C. Rose '42, fencing—decorations; and Josephine H. Taggart '41, tennis—entertainment and program.

Members of these clubs have all donated 10 cents toward the party, and will serve on committees.

Dinner Features Medieval Court

Dressed in medieval costumes, WSGA Senate members will form the court for the formal annual Old English Christmas Dinner in MacAllister Hall at 6 p. m. Thursday, December 19.

Leading the procession will be Elinor L. Weaver '41, WSGA president, as Lord MacAllister, accompanied by Betty M. Martin '42, WSGA vice-president, as Lady MacAllister. Senior Lords and Ladies will be Eleanor L. Fagans and Janet N. Holtzinger and M. Elizabeth Baker and Vera L. Kemp; junior lord and lady, Anne M. Borton and Mildred M. Taylor.

Margaret K. Sherman will be Sophomore Lord and Pauline Crossman, Sophomore Lady. H. Ann Carruthers will dress as freshman lord and be accompanied by Jane H. Murphy, freshman lady.

Jesters who will visit coed tables during dinner and inject a lighter vein into the affair are Martha I. Stringer '42 and Jeanne E. Witherow (special). Eleanor P. Heckman '42 will act as page for the dignitaries, L. Eleanor Renfer '41 will be poet, and Jean Babcock '42, cardinal. Heralding the court will be Marjorie D. Cousely '42 and Harriet H. Stubbs '42.

CINEMANIA

The screen's first musical mystery is the claim for Kay Kyser's new film, "You'll Find Out," which combines sweet trills with shrill shrieks and shivery melody. The picture starts today and continues Monday and Tuesday at the Cathaum.

Featured with the Professor of Musical Knowledge are Peter Lorre, Boris Karloff, Bela Lugosi, and Kyser's famous band.

WSGA Christmas Fund Drive To Begin Monday

Starting Monday, all coeds will be contacted by members of WSGA House of Representatives, Junior Service Board, and Freshman Council for the annual WSGA Christmas Fund drive.

WSGA has set 25 cents from each coed as a goal this year. Contributions will go to American Women's Hospitals, Mifflin County Children's Aid Society, and Mrs. Hetzel's Emergency Fund. The drive will continue until Monday, December 16.

We, The Women—Thoughts Of Others Fitting At Christmas

It isn't too early to begin thinking about how we may help others less fortunate than we at Christmas. One of the best ways Penn State coeds can do this is to contribute to WSGA's annual Christmas drive which begins Monday.

When you budget for gifts, why not include 25 cents for the fund? That's what WSGA has set as a goal from each woman student and that small amount will go a long way toward making someone happier at Christmas.

Starting Monday and continuing until December 16, members of the House of Representatives, Junior Service Board, and Freshman Council will contact all coeds for the drive.

Money collected will be distributed equally among Mifflin County Children's Aid Society, American Women's Hospitals, and Mrs. Hetzel's Emergency Fund. By contributing to the drive, you help all three of these representative groups.

Remember not so long ago when a doll and story-book or a little extra spending money meant so much to you? And how much you enjoyed candy and nuts? Your contributions will mean even more to the children benefiting from the Mifflin County Aid Society who have only life's barest necessities.

American Women's Hospitals help relieve suffering among civilians in war-torn areas, and at home assist in disease prevention and child health. Here on our own campus, Mrs. Hetzel's Emergency Fund aids our classmates who have sudden obligations to meet.

Individually, our parts in aiding these needy ones is small, but collectively, we can do much to help others have merrier Christmases.

So, when a WSGA representative approaches you, don't begrudge deserving people a little of your holiday fun. Let's surpass last year's $196.25 record!

Varsity Debaters Open Season Away Next Week

Representing the women's varsity squad in the first inter-collegiate debates of the season, Mary I. Greenberg '42 and Gertrude H. Hecht '41 will uphold the affirmative side of the question "Resolved: that the nations of the western hemisphere should form a permanent union" against Loyola University, Swarthmore College, and Ursinus College next week.

Miss Greenberg, member of Delta Alpha Delta, women's speech professional, and Miss Hecht, president of Delta Alpha Delta, and member of Delta Sigma Rho, national forensic honorary, will oppose Ursinus women on campus Monday night. Tuesday night they will debate Swarthmore men at the Swarthmore High School, and they will argue against a union with Loyola men at the Knights of Columbus in Baltimore, Maryland, Wednesday.

All debates will be in Oregon or cross-examination style, and members of the audience will have an opportunity to question the speakers in open forums which follow.

Margery J. Rosenberg '42 and Esther M. Hall '43.

Nut and candy replenishers will be: northwest, Jacqueline I. Shaffer '43 and Laila M. Dunkelberger '43; southwest, Ruth Keisling '43, and Ruth M. Saylor '43; northeast, Gerry A. Custer '43 and Ruth J. Moore '43; southeast, Judith L. Cutshall '41 and Martha B. Manifold '41; service, northwest, Jeanne M. Lindeman '42 and Rowena M. Gotshall '43; southwest, Elizabeth Schoch '41 and Fernando Mosterez '42; northeast, Josephine M. Werner '41 and Sally H. Faber '41; southeast, Lois A. Remensnyder '42 and Cheryl Charlson '43.

Rules Harvest Ball

Margaret K. Sherman '43 was chosen queen of the Harvest Ball, annual rural extravaganza held last night before a crowd of 340 couples. The highlight of the evening was a novel air raid salute by the orchestra during a blackout of the Armory as fanfare for the announcement of the queen.

WSGA Groups Will Hold Faculty Dinner Tomorrow

WSGA Senate and WSGA Junior Service Board will entertain guests at Sunday dinner in MacAllister Hall and Atherton Hall, respectively.

Dr. Kistler, Sunday chapel speaker, and Mrs. Kistler will be guests of WSGA Senate and Miss Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women, following chapel service. Immediately after dinner, an informal discussion in MacAllister Hall lobby will be held for all interested coeds.

Continuing their program of student-faculty relations, WSGA Junior Service Board will entertain Hummel Fishburn, associate professor of music education, Mrs. Fishburn, Miss Anna P. Locklin, assistant professor of English literature, and Philip A. Shelley, associate professor of German, in Atherton Hall tomorrow.

WRA's Outing Club will sponsor a mixed skating party in the Armory at 7 p.m.

Freshman Council Helps WSGA Christmas Drive

Seeking complete coverage for contributions from all freshman dormitories and hall groups, Freshman Council is doing its part in aiding the WSGA Christmas Drive which began Monday, December 2 and will continue for two weeks until December 16.

Council has appointed Margo D. Blass '43, general chairman in Mac Hall and Betty R. Broderick '43, general chairman for Women's Building. Women representing downtown dormitories will manage the campaign for their respective houses.

The Christmas Drive was originated by Freshman Council several years ago, but was taken over by the WSGA when it became too large for the Council to handle.
