Junior Service Board Doll Winner To Be Revealed At English Feast

The winner of the doll offered by WSGA Junior Service Board will be drawn and announced by Elinor L. Weaver '41, WSGA president at the annual Old English Christmas Dinner in McAllister Hall at 6 p. m. tomorrow evening. The doll may be claimed from Roberta J. Kelly '42, Junior Service Board chairman, anytime until 5 p. m. Friday.

Carrying out the Old English theme, WSGA Senate members will dress in court costume and ceremonies will be conducted. Acting as hostesses to faculty members and town students attending the dinner will be Mary Jane Dalton, H. Jean Fox, Ruth Goldstein, Marjorie A. Harwick, Arita L. Hefferan, and Vera M. Neal, seniors.

Throughout dinner, the Louise Homer Club vocal ensemble will sing Christmas numbers. Lila A. Whoolery '43 will take the place of Martha I. Stringer '42 as one of the jesters; Jeanne I. Witherow (special) is the other.

Following the dinner there will be a coffee hour in Atherton Hall for the court, faculty members, and women students. Atherton unit officers will receive guests.

Pouring in the northeast lounge will be Miss Matilda A. Bentley, Miss Jeanette Oswald, Mrs. Gail B. Pope, Miss Emma F. Richardson, Miss Mary Jane Stevenson, and Mrs. David Ulmer. In the northwest lounge Miss Elizabeth C. Bell, Miss Marie Haidt, Mrs. Grace L. Hall, Mrs. Edith M. Johnston, Mrs. Anna B. Searle and Miss Ruth H. Zang will pour. Student hostesses for the coffee hour will be northeast: Elinor M. Derr '42 and Patricia L. Patton '41; northwest: A. Patricia Behney '42, and Jeanne M. Lindaman '42; southeast: Helen W. Hancher '42, and Emily J. Sperb '42; southwest: Anna M. Civitts '42 and Dorothy J. Johnson '42.
