

Sorority Women Open '41 Season With Pan-Hellenic Ball Tonight

Coeds will officially open the 1941 formal season tonight as 300 sorority women trot out their best beaux for Panhellenic's Annual Ball at the Nittany Lion Inn from 8 to 12 p. m.

With pleasant weather in sight and an attendance to top last year's record of 250 couples, Panhellenic Council is confident that this year's dance will hit a new high.

Music by Jimmy Leyden and his band will entertain all sorority women from this campus, stray Greeks, sorority advisors, and guests of Panhellenic. Chaperones announced by Carolyn Moorehead '42, invitations chairman, are Miss Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women, Miss Elizabeth C. Bell, Miss Matilda A. Bentley, Miss Mary V. Brown, Miss M. Carmian, Miss Ruth E. Graham, Miss Agnes Highsmith, Miss Pauline A. Lookin, Miss Gertrude I. Lobus, Mrs. Hermance Reese, Miss Mary J. Stevenson, Miss H. Jean Swenson, Miss Mary L. Wolfe, and Miss Ruth H. Zang.

No sorority booths will be provided due to lack of space, and there will be no receiving line but all women have been requested to greet the chaperones.

All persons planning to attend must be represented on the door to insure admission. Further conditions may be made by contacting Leslie A. Lewis '41, dance chairman.

Junior Majors Win 60-28 Over '41 Six

Junior majors went to town on White Hall's basketball floor last night when they snowed under a plucky senior squad, 60-28, in the highest scoring battle yet in the books. Dotty Radcliffe and Betty Widger, sharpshooting forwards, tied for top honors with 28 points, to equal the '41 team's total score. Pat Patton accounted for the other two goals.

This smooth-working trio was backed by the strong defensive guarding of Bea Baumunk, Bernie Maurer, and Dottie Wagner, who time and again bottled up the senior's scoring threats. Sally Faber and Gertie Hellmers set the pace for the senior six, converting five goals each.

A clean contest, marked by only three fouls featured the scoring spree. Half-time score was 32-8, favoring the third-year coeds, who came back in the second half and nearly doubled their efforts.

The lineup:
Juniors: Forwards Sally Faber, Joyce Goodale, Gertie Hellmers, Guards Eleanor Benfer, Vera Neal, Jo Werner
Seniors: Forwards Pat Patton, Dotty Radcliffe, Betty Widger, Guards Bea Baumunk, Bernie Maurer, Dottie Wagner

Charitides Pledges Three

Charitides will pledge Jeanne B. Gates '43, Betty Jane Haupt '43, and H. Elizabeth Wilde '43 in the third floor west lounge of Atherton Hall at 5 p. m. tonight.

We, The Women If Ain't What It Oughtta Be

OF MICE AND GALS
Of Mice and Men
We learned to ken
With Steinbeck's help of course
But John forgot
To plug us gals
In his renowned discourse

He didn't tell
About the yell
That shook Ath Hall's foundation
When a coed nice
In her room found mice
When she returned from her vacation.

ODE TO 1941
Let's weep a tear
In our root beer
For 1941
We had our chance
But just like France
The battle was not won.

He ran too fast
And we were last
In 1941.
Leap year escaped
While we just gaped
And thought it all was fun.

But now we've found
That we are bound
In 1941
To be a dreamer and a bore
And wait for leap year '44.

Women In Sports

By HEP GORDON

Sophomore college basketballers outplayed a plucky junior-senior contingent, 28-25, in the last minutes of a closely-fought match in White Hall last night. Ruth Moore paved the way to victory with 16 points, and Skip Scrivanich also rang up 10 points for the sophs, while Rhoda Samuels and Lenore Fullington chalked up 10 and 9 points for the junior-seniors respectively.

Thetas ruled the intramural front with a 465-370 triumph over Chi O on the bowling alleys, and a 3-0 whitewash over Chi O in ping pong. Frazier Street Dorm registered the only other win with the paddles by virtue of a 2-0 default from the Gamma Phis.

On the bill for 4 p. m. today is a court match between the hardy sophomore-junior team (who last night played with only five members) and the freshman college six, Betty L. Zeigler '42 announced last night. She also announced that basketball intramurals will begin after firais.

With The Women— A Decade Ago Coeds Were—

Deciding whether to extend women's social privileges to permit juniors to appear in public with men until 8 p. m. and whether to permit freshman coeds to attend all five of the big dances. At that time sophomores and juniors could date during the week only from 4 to 8 p. m.

Planning the annual WSGA He-She Dance. The chairman announced that the decorations would be in keeping with the color scheme. "A band shell blocked in pink and black squares will represent a patchwork baby blanket," she said.

Discussing "Man's Place In the Universe" at the AAUW entertainment for senior women in Women's Building.

Barring personal rushing and expenditure of money prior to second semester bidding.

Only 279 University of Texas beauties are candidates for places on the 13 yearbook beauty pages!

Musical Program For Atherton Tea

Tea for two, in an atmosphere of music will be the keynote of Atherton Hall's tea dance in the south east lounge from 3 to 5 p. m. tomorrow. It's open house for all coeds who may come with or without dates.

Piano selections will be played by Anita M. Knecht '42, Lois E. Notovitz '42, Ruth H. Sinberg '43 and B. Adaire Stegmaier '42. Alvira L. Konopka '41, Janet M. Hartz '42, Barbara L. Gnau '43, and Miriam L. Rhein '43 will furnish vocal entertainment, and Ilse M. Springer '42, violin solos.

Ruth L. Kiesling '43 will chair-man the program and the following officers of the south east unit will pour: Betty L. Zeigler '42, president; Mildred B. Schmidt '43, vice-president; Patricia MacKinney '43, secretary; and Margaret M. Lams '43, treasurer.

In charge of table setting are Betty L. Campbell '41 and Adel S. Miller '41; foods, M. Jane Berkebile '43, Helen J. Chiappy '43, and Margaret R. Comley '43.

35 Journalists Attend LA Council Mixer

About 35 students and faculty members attended the journalism mixer sponsored by the Liberal Arts Council at the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity last night.

Newspaper jobs now held by journalism graduates were discussed by Adam A. Smyser '41 who predicted a more optimistic future for job-hunting graduates because of the defense program.

Portable Lighting Unit Illuminates Skating Pond

Students can now ice skate at night on the College pond due to the efforts of Harold E. Byers, chief technician of the powerhouse.

Mr. Byers mounted a gasoline generated lighting unit on his car trailer and gave his device its first trial Wednesday night. The lighting unit was successful and over 300 skaters enjoyed the evening skate on a well illuminated pond.

TALK OF THE TOWN SALE

Our Stock Is Still Plentiful To Choose From

SUITS—$19.95

Formerly $25 to $35

FLORSHEIM SHOES

Groups from $6.95 to $9.95

$1.65 To $2.00

Shirts now $1.39

$1.00 To $1.50

Ties now 79c

fromm's
Opposite Old Main - State College

FRESH HAM 2c/lb.
COUNTRY STYLE SAUSAGE—1c/lb.
State Meat Market
2184 E. College Dial 2945

Are You Another Sonja Henie?

Even if you aren't, you should still look your best on the ice. A complete selection of skating skirts, jumpers and jackets may be found at extremely reasonable prices at the

SMART SHOP

YOU SAVE MORE When You Buy Here

To Start The New Year Right Buy Your Meats, Groceries and Produce

Full Course Dinners 40c
$3.35 Meal Ticket For $3.00

WINNER MARKET

202 WEST COLLEGE DIAL 861

Dance To . . .

CHARLES SMITH

—and His Band—
From State College

Saturday Night, January 11

—at—
Penn Belle Hotel Corner Room
Bellefonte's Newest Bar and Lounge

• No Cover Charge •

Dancing—8:30 to 12:00 P.M.

YOU ARE WELCOME AT

THE MUSIC ROOM

To Listen To Our Recordings. We Have The Latest In All Make

RECORDS

Decca • • •
• • • Victor • • •
• • • Bluebird • • •
• • • Columbia

The MUSIC ROOM

203 EAST BEAVER AVE. GLENNLAND BLDG.

The Only Authorized RCA Victor Dealer In State College