

Atherton And Mac Have Coffee Hour And Tea

Tea and doughnuts will be served every day between 4 and 5 p.m. during finals at McAllister Hall for residents only.

Atherton Hall's four units will alternate in serving coffee at 10 p.m. every night during final week.

Dorms Continue Cafeteria Style

Cafeteria breakfasts will continue during finals instead of the early family style breakfasts formerly served during examinations, Mrs. Edith M. Johnson, supervisor of dining commons, has announced.

Lunch will be served at 12:30 p.m. from January 20 to 29, while dinner will be served at the usual hour of 5:45 p.m.

During vacation all women will eat in McAllister Hall Thursday and Friday, January 30 and 31, and in the Atherton dining rooms Saturday and Sunday, February 1 and 2.

For the two days that each dining room will be closed, no exchange slips will be required. Meal hours will be the same as usual except for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday breakfasts, which will be served family style at 8:30 a.m.

Regular dining room service will be resumed Monday, February 3, with a family style breakfast at 7:15 a.m.

We, The Women

Knee-Length Socks Help Defend U. S.

The effects of the European war on the standards of living in this country are unpleasantly evidenced when one tries to purchase a pair of nylon stockings. Defense industries are using nylon for parachutes, we are informed, which accounts for the scarcity and high price of nylon on the market.

With most women unable to spend the price asked for nylons, they must revert to silk hose. If silk still comes into this country from Japan, to be absolutely patriotic we should change to lisle or popularize the knee-length wool socks.

We are not advocating a boycott such as practised at Smith College several years ago, but merely arriving at the answer we set out for via the methods used by statisticians.

Only five of the 82 garments being knit by coeds for the local British War Relief Society have been turned in to date. We hope it is warm on the British Isles for the soldiers' sakes. But not too hot.

Perhaps spring 1940 wasn't long enough or maybe the moon wasn't bright enough, but the marriage rate in Centre County went down last year. In spite of the draft and leap year, too.

It is fitting to say something about final week in the last issue of this semester. Final week is a prelude to oblivion or success. Final week is a bore. Finals are the conglomeration of dirty tricks by spiteful people. Foo on them.
