

Frosh Customs Up For Debate Thursday Night

Pros and cons of freshman customs will be discussed at a PSCA round table in Room 121, Liberal Arts at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Three faculty members and nine students will make up the round table and after panel discussions, the floor will be open for audience members to ask questions.

Questions will consider criticisms of freshman customs as they are now, social implications of freshman customs, the College customs as compared with those at other colleges, and benefits to freshmen and upperclassmen.

Harold P. Zelko, instructor in public speaking, will be chairman of the forum. Panel members will be William J. Gaskill, instructor in English composition, George E. Simpson, associate professor of sociology, W. Lewis Corbin '41, Tribunal chairman, Robert D. Baird '42, William E. Harkins '42, Jeanne C. Stiles '42, WSGA representative, Bernard A. Setlow '43, Walter Gerson '44, Morton A. Rosenfeld '44, Dudley A. Snyder '44, and Phyllis R. Watkins '44.

Aquatics Course Offered

Women students who have passed or reviewed senior life saving within the last year are eligible for an aquatics course beginning at White Hall pool at 7 p.m. Wednesday. Women planning to take this one credit course should register for Phys Ed 181.

Here's the answer to that problem of finding a clean, comfortable room at a reasonable rate.

Two Weekend 1 O'Clocks Given Freshman Coeds

Two one o'clock permissions a weekend have been granted freshman coeds for second semester. WSGA Senate has announced. Special hours for the Thespian dance and Military Ball were also announced.

All coeds have been granted one o'clock permission tomorrow night for the Thespian dance. Women attending Military Ball Friday have been granted two o'clock permissions.

Women students will have 11 o'clock permissions tonight.

$2,500 Goal Set For Relief Drive

With $2,500 set as a goal for the All-College Cabinet relief drive February 18-21, the executive committee headed by Paul M. Doty Jr. '41 and Elinor L. Weaver '41, co-chairmen, has drawn up plans for contacting all students.

W. Rae Herrman '41 will organize the drive among independent men; H. Edward Wagner '41, IFC; Roberta J. Kelly '42, downtown women; Betty M. Martin '42, upperclass women's dormitories; and Margaret K. Sherman '43, freshman women's dormitories.

Other executive committee members are Arnold C. Laich '41 and Adam A. Smyser '41.

Contributions to the drive will be given to the World Student Service Fund and British War Relief Society.

Coeds Knit 57 Articles For British War Relief; 130 Pieces Still Out

Coeds who answered the call to knit for the British War Relief Society have turned in 36 pairs of socks, seven double scarves, 10 single scarves, three pairs of thumbless mittens, and one sleeveless sweater, Mrs. Nelson W. Taylor has announced.

Because of the urgent demand for articles, Mrs. Taylor has asked that the 130 still out be returned as soon as possible.

Working under Mrs. Taylor, advisor, are Janet L. Eyer '42, Margaret K. Sherman '43, and WSGA Junior Service Board members. Finished articles may be given to any of the above.

First Student Drafted

The first student to decline deferment from the draft and enter Selective Service, Norman E. Blankman '41, is now in the induction center at Fort Meade, Md. He was called into training at Lancaster last Wednesday.

Sororities Set To Open Rushing Wednesday Noon For Week Of Informal Parties And Free Contacts

Each House Will Hold Five Scheduled Affairs

With rushing preliminaries nearing completion, sorority women are busy with plans for the final intensive period beginning noon Wednesday and lasting until 9 p.m. Thursday, February 13.

Each house has already scheduled five informal parties for various times during rush week, according to Panhellenic Council President Harriet Singer '41, and invitations for them will be submitted by each house to the Panhellenic post office at Student Union before Wednesday noon. Members of Panhellenic Council will distribute invitations to freshmen and transfers in dormitories, but town women will be asked to call for theirs at the post office.

More casual get-togethers will continue throughout this week, but expenditures for the entire free contact period including the five parties must not exceed $20. An itemized expense account must be handed to Jean H. Krauser '42, Panhellenic rushing chairman, daily by each house.

A strict weekend silent period from 5 p.m. Saturday, February 8, to noon Monday, February 10,

Panhel President

Harriet Singer '41 announced last night that with dates for informal parties scheduled and advance preparations underway, sororities are ready for the opening of intensive rushing Wednesday noon.

will break up the week by outlawing all communications between rushees and sorority women.

The two days between the end of open rushing at 9 p.m. Thursday, February 13, and the formal dinner parties, at 5 p.m. Saturday, February 15 will also be a strict silent period.

To climax the entire rushing season, each sorority will hold two formal dinner parties Saturday, February 15. The first will run from 5:30 until 7 p.m. and the second from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

Invitations for these parties will be distributed after the beginning of the last silent period at 9 p.m. Thursday and written replies must be in the Panhellenic post office between 1 and 5 p.m. the next day.

Rushees may attend two parties but must designate which ones on their acceptances, and may stay at each house only one and one half hours.

Expenditures for these dinners including expenses of actives, rushees, and all participants must not exceed $30 and a report must be submitted to the Panhellenic rushing chairman.

Lists of bids will be submitted to the office of the dean of women not later than 11 p.m. that night.

Home Economics Vacancies Filled

Two vacancies in the home economics department resulting from a leave of absence and a resignation have been filled for second semester.

Miss Hatty R. Dahlberg, assistant professor of home economics, will serve as acting chairman of foods and nutrition in the absence of Mrs. E. W. W. Dye, associate professor of home economics, who was granted a semester leave of absence to visit other home economics departments and to do graduate work at Ames, Ia.

Miss Pearle Haas, instructor in home economics, has resigned and will marry Hunter Davis of Kansas City, Mo., February 15. Mrs. Eldon Tait, the former Marion Barbey, a graduate of the College, has been named assistant professor of clothing for second semester.

Mrs. Tim H. Welch, the former Emma W. Gardner, will continue as instructor in home economics.

Furnishings Completed At New Practice House

With the addition of living room furniture and draperies, furnishing the new home management house has been completed, except for dining room draperies, Miss Ruth L. Bonde, assistant professor of home economics, has announced.

Formerly the English Composition Building, the new practice house was partly furnished in December with an electric stove, refrigerator, electric ironer, drying room, and towel dryer.

Contemporary furniture in blond mahogany wood, new china, and glassware completed the furnishings. Delays in shipping equipment resulted from the war emergency.

Miss Bell On Leave

Miss Elizabeth C. Bell, assistant to the dean of women, is on a leave of absence to study at the University of Chicago this semester.

Staff Candidates Report

All freshman candidates for the editorial and business staffs of The Daily Collegian must report to Room 312 Old Main at 7 p.m. tonight.

PSCA Plans Bentley Talk On Social Relationships

Plans for a talk by Miss Matilda A. Bentley, assistant to the dean of women, dealing with the social relationships between men and women, at the first joint PSCA meeting, February 11, have been announced by Margaret K. Ramaley '44, forum chairman.

A Valentine party is scheduled to follow the talk.

Grade Averages Due

All freshman and transfer women have been requested to report their semester averages to Dean Charlotte E. Ray as soon as possible.
