Weather-Cold. And Possible Snow.

OF THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE

VOL. 37-No. 77

WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 5, 1941, STATE COLLEGE, PA.

PRICE THREE CENTS

Student Board Will Supervise Campus Traffic

A new system of punishing student violators of campus traffic rules-a system intended to strictly enforce all regulationshas been proposed and will probably go into effect next week if All-College Cabinet gives its approval Wednesday night.

Under the plan a seven-man student Traffic Board has been set up to hear all complaints. Violators will be turned over to the board by the Campus Patrol. The board will probably have power to assess small fines and to revoke campus licenses.

Jack W. Brand '41 has been appointed chairman of the Traffic Board. Other members are Gerald F. Doherty '42, Margaret L. Embury '42, Raymond F. Leffler '42, John E. Long '42, Marshall D. Miller '41 and John M. Phillips '42. Dean A. R. Warnock and Capt. William V. Dennis, Jr., will be ex-officio members.

Brand intends to call a preliminary meeting of the group sometime this week. The board will draw up its own constitution and by-laws which must be approved by Cabinet.

New CAA Course To Start Today

The second-semester course in CAA training will get underway today when ground school trainees begin a preliminary course in aircraft regulation, Harold A. Everett, director of the College CAA program, announced last night.

From a total of 36 students whose applications have been accepted, the course quota of 30 will be filled, pending the outcome of physical examinations which are expected to be completed within a week.

$25, the course includes 72 hours of ground school study and from 35 to 50 hours of actual flight Puffy, originally played by Leon training at the State College airport near Boalsburg. Ground College and Rabinowitz is unschool work includes a study of able to rehearse until the new civil air regulations, navigation, date. meterology, and aircraft regula-

Although hampered by snow and bad weather, flight training is expected to start soon. If necessary, ski landing gear may be attached to the planes in order to provide flight training regardless of conditions.

Names of students who have been accepted to fill the quota will be released, Professor Everett said, as soon as physical examinations have been com-

President And Morse At Draft Conference

President Ralph D. Hetzel and Adrian O .Morse, assistant in charge of resident instruction, will leave today for Washington, D. C., where they will attend a conference tomorrow on "The Relation of Higher Education and National Defense."

All presidents of four-year colleges and universities have tee on Education and Defense of, ing will be held at 4 p. m. next, to hold extra-curricular activities. Baccalaureate Day, June 8; Comutes yesterday. He also paid a mencement and Class Day, June visit to President de Valera of cation

Basketball Game, Boxing Matches Will Highlight Tonight's Tripleheader

Faces EIBA Champ

Captain Frank Stanko, 145pound Nittany mitman, who will battle Loren Schoff, year's EIBA champ, in one of the feature bouts of the State-Syracuse varsity boxing match in Rec Hall at 7 p. m. today.

Date Changed For Coming Play

Dates for the next Penn State Players' show, "The Streets of New York," have been changed from February 21 and 22 to March 7 and 8, Lawrence E. Tucker, director, announced last

He also said that two parts in Offered to students at a cost of the play are being re-cast. The parts are Paul, formerly held by Carroll D. Hippensteel '43, and Rabinowitz '43. Hippensteel left

> Only two bridesmaids, instead of six as first announced, will be used. They will be Doris M. Disney '43 and Lois A. Reisinger

> Other parts are as follows: Edward, Thomas M. Rial '41; Bloodgood (villain), Malcolm Weinstein '41; Badger, John G. Bambrick '42; Captain Fairweather, Edwin I. Carson '41; Mark Livinston (hero), Donald R. Taylor '42; Mrs. Fairweather, Thelma R. Kluger '41...

> A reporter, Frank W. Schneider '42; Alida, Catharine E. Coleman '42; Lucy (heroine), Elinor F. Herrman '42; Mrs. Puffy, Aimee L. Sobbott '42; Dan, James J. Ambandos '44; two gentlemen, Lawrence T. Chervenak '44 and O. William Vanderlin '42;-a reporter, John W. Fritz '41; firemen, Frank W. Schneider '42. John W. Fritz '41, and Jerome V. Sherman '44.

No Cabinet Tonight

All-College Cabinet will not Tuesday.

Mitmen Test Syracuse, Cagers Face W. Virginia

Penn State's student body treks back to Rec Hall tonight, not to register this time, but to witness the first big athletic night of the winter season-a tripleheader, including varsity and freshman boxing and a varsity tussle in basketball.

Danny DeMarino's yearling mit-tossers will open the evening's program with a little number against the Syracuse Little Oranges at 6 p. m. It will be the first attempt of the Nittany frosh under the tutelage of DeMarino, and the Lion Cubs will be tackling an Orange outfit of unknown strength.

Following their little ring cousins, Leo Houck's varsity sluggers will tangle with their ageold rivals, the Syracuse Hillmen. Probably because they will not be at full strength, the Lion leather-pushers will enter the arena slightly the underdogs at 7 p. m. Jimmy Lewis, 165 pound Eastern titleholder, is not a definite starter for the champion lo-

After the smoke of the ring warfare has cleared, Long Jawn Lawther's Nittany cagers will bump up against the reckless Mountaineers from down West Virginia way. The cage entanglement is slated to begin at 8 p. m. Both the Lions and Hillbillies have impressive records and will be out seeking added hardwood accomplishments.

3 Couples Take Cheese As 800 Rats Race

Approximately 400 couples danced to the music of the Campus Owls at the Thespian Rat Race last night in Rec Hall president of the Authors' Club of where three pairs of kings and New York City. queens were crowned.

The winners of the Smooth Dance were Barbara E. Whitbred '43 and Joe Fierro '38. James W. Eck '43 and Marjorie R. Chambers '43 were crowned winthe Elimination Dance

Poet Auden Will Visit Campus Week Of Feb. 17

Announcement was made today that W. H. Auden distinguished English-born poet and dramatist, will serve at the College as "poet in residence" during the week of February 17.

The unusual visit will enable students interested in poetry, drama, and the dance to meet personally with the author of "On This Island," "Another "On This Island," "Another Time," and other well-known volumes. He will lecture before a student-faculty audience on Tuesday, February 18.

Auden, now living in New York, has just written a new poem about America which is to be published shortly. Because of his wide field of writing. which includes lyrics and even movie continuity, he is expected to be of great help in advising students on their own creative

70 Colleges Asked To Convention

Seventy colleges have been asked to the second annual Pennsylvania Student Government Association convention here from February 21 to 23, the association president, Thomas C. Backenstose '41, reported yester-

With the deadline set February 10, acceptances have already been received from five: Lafayette College, the Philadelphia College of Osteopathy, Wilson College, the Pittsburgh College for Women, and the Allegheny Undergraduate Center.

The principal speaker at the convention, Dr. William Mather Lewis, president of Lafayette and state director of the selective service, has chosen as his topic, "The Part of the Student in the Selective Service Program."

Another possible speaker is Lyman Beecher Stowe, grandson of Harriet Beecher Stowe, and

Funeral Tomorrow

The funeral of George E. Hurst Jr., the sophomore dairy manufacturing student who was killed noon. ners of the Jitterbug kingdom, in an automobile accident on his munimum munimum munimum munimum manusum mentangan me way back to the College Sunday William C. Stephens '42 and Jo- night, will be held in Mechanicssephine Parzia '42 took the hon- burg, his home town, at 2 p.m.

Second Semester Begins 1:10 P.M. Today; No Recess Until Easter

College year when they attend work, Watkins indicated. classes for a two month's stretch until Easter vacation, which begins April 9.

olished the following year.

was taken by Ray V. Watkins, College scheduling officer, after

No major changes have been 9.

Second semester classes, start- made in classroom arrangements, ing at 1:10 p.m. today, will launch except that Carnegie Hall base-Penn State students into the ment and ground floors will be longest activity period of the used for ROTC drilling and class

Highlights of the second semester are included in the following dates: payment of fees. Dropping the usual custom of February 13-14; winter courses opening the second semester at 8 in Agriculture end, March 1: a.m., the College has decided to mid-semester below grades, April give the faculty an extra half- 2; Easter recess begins 11:50 a. day to prepare for classes. This m., April 9, and ends 1:10 p.m. policy was tried in 1934 but ab- April 16; final examinations begin 8 a.m., May 27; Memorial The abolishment of practically . Day recess, May 30; second seall 4 o'clock classes will be ini- mester ends 5 p.m., June 5; electiated this semester. This action tion of Trustees by delegates, June 6; Alumni Day, election of Trustees by graduates close 11 been invited to the conference meet tonight. Because of the All-College Cabinet suggested a.m., and annual meeting of called by the National Commit- (Artists' Course the next meet- that it would encourage students Board of Trustees, 2 p.m., June 7; 123

Committee Plans Alumni Drive For Late April

undergraduate - alumni committee decided last night that the Alumni Association's first undergraduate membership drive should be conducted in late April, tentatively April 21 to 26.

William B. Bartholomew, senior class president, and Elinor L. Weaver '41, WSGA president, will serve as co-chairmen for the campaign which will be conducted along the lines of the PSCA's fall finance canvass.

An intensive person-to-person solicitation will be carried among members of the three upper classes to have the students pay eight dollars for Alumni Association membership which will extend for five years after their graduation.

Sophomores and juniors will be asked to pledge the money to be paid with their fees, two dollars a semester for the sophomores, and four dollars a semester for the juniors. Seniors will be asked to pay the full amount outright.

Representatives who met to discuss the plan last night were Edward K. Hibshman, executive secretary of the Alumni Association; Alice I. Thompson, assistant executive secretary; William K. Ulerich, members of the executive board of the Alumni Association; Arnold C. Laich '41. William B. Bartholomew '41. Elinor L. Weaver '41, H. Edward Wagner '41, Adam A. Smyser-'41, and H. Leonard Krouse '42,

Quiz, Floor Show Carded For Drydock Saturday

In addition to the regular entertainment card, the Drydock will feature a short quiz program on things around campus Saturday night, Leon Rabinowitz '42, the soft drink night club's program chairman, announced last night.

Headlining the floor show will be Jimmy Smith and Jane Parsons, jitterbug dance team, Marce Stringer, Jackie Reese, Rabinowitz, and Ned Startzel, who will serve as master of ceremonies.

Table reservations, at 50 cents per couple, may be obtained at Student Union until Saturday

Late News

WASHINGTON - Senator Wheeler of Montana declared that the United States Air Force does not have one single modern airplane, although some have good features. President Roosevelt said that Wheeler's statement would be enjoyed by Hitler.

LONDON-The British reported the capture of Cayrenve, a power of the ancient Grecian Empire. Meanwhile, the British continued to advance in Eritrea and Ethiopia. The London government declares that it will give full support to Haile Selassie for a free Ethiopia.

HAVANA-Batista, head of the Cuban government, declared a martial law of 15 days duration, following an insurrection there.

LONDON-Wendell L. Willkie visited King George for 35 min-Eire.