These Penn State and Syracuse Mitmen Figure Heavily In Tonight's Meet Yearlings Open Season At 6 P.M.

Pictured above are four Penn State and Syracuse boxers who will win or lose tonight's meet. At the left is Bob Baird who returns to the Nittany lineup after being retarded by a pre-season illness. He will box in the 155-pound class. Upper center is Salvatore Mirabito a varsity football fullback who boxes for Syracuse in the unlimited division. Loren Schoff, lower center, won the eastern 145-pound title last year, and meets State Captain Frank Stanko. Paul Scally, left, will seek revenge for a defeat last year at the hands of Americo Woyciesjes, Syracuse co-captain.

It will be 108-pound Bill Knauff, Danny DeMarino's "tiniest demon," who will open the freshman boxing meet with the Syracuse frosh in the first attraction of Rec Hall's triple-header at 6 p. m. tonight.

"I'm planning on meeting a typical Syracuse boxing squad tomorrow night which means that they will be hard to stop," Coach DeMarino predicted last night. "As for our own boys," he continued, "it's hard to tell how they will show up, untried as they are."

Beside Knauff, who is probably one of the lightest lads ever to fight in the 120-pound class, the following sluggers will be in the frosh boxing line-up:

- 127-pounds—Tom Walsh, intramural champ.
- 135-pounds—Bill Schabacker.
- 145 and 155-pounds—Either Pat Conlon or Arnold Feldman.
- 165-pounds—Jes Martella.
- 175-pounds—Nick Ranieri.
- Heavyweight—Bob Halpin.

Stiff Fistic Competition Predicted When Varsity Battles Orangemen

Flushed by an 8-1 victory over Western Maryland, Penn State's varsity boxers will run into stiff competition when they meet their perennial rivals, the Syracuse mitmen, in Rec Hall at 7 p. m. today.

The Orangemen will enter the ring tonight backed by an unmarred record of two victories, one over Cornell, 5-2, the other over Temple, 5-3. Four veterans, including Americo Woyciesjes, twice eastern intercollegiate 175-pound champion, and Loren Schoff, 145-pound EIBA champion, make the Syracusians an impressive aggregation.

Two changes can be expected in the Nittany lineup, both in the heavier divisions. Bob Baird, slow in getting into shape because of a pre-season illness, will box in the 155-pound class. Stan Glabick, a senior, will probably replace Les Cohn at 165.

Vic Fiore at 120, Bill Mazzocco at 127, Homer Hoffman at 135, and Captain Frank Stanko at 145 completes the tentative Penn State lineup.

"Rico" Woyciesjes, an aggressive fighter with an unorthodox style which has carried him through three seasons without a defeat in a dual meet and only one tournament defeat, will handle the 175-pound assignment for Syracuse.

Charles Healy, co-captain with Woyciesjes, will fight at 165. Healy won the EIBA championship as a sophomore, finished third last year.

Jack Roland, a junior who won four out of seven bouts last year, will box at 120.

Newcomers to the Syracuse lineup include Salvatore "Toots" Mirabito, varsity football fullback, boxing in the unlimited

Billy Soose To Battle Ernie Vigh, Friday Night

Billy Soose, former Penn State boxing star who won all his college bouts via the knockout route, is scheduled to battle Ernie Vigh, sensational Hungarian middleweight, in a 10-round fight in Madison Square Garden, New York City, Friday night.

Soose, fresh from a 10-round decision over Tammy Mauriello, is considered one of the chief contenders for the New York Boxing Commission middleweight crown, which is now held by Ken Overlin, whom Soose defeated in a non-title scrap.

Pittsburgh Press Plans Photo Series Of College

Beginning next Sunday, the Pittsburgh Press will run a consecutive series of rotogravure pages telling the story of Penn State in pictures.

The Press will give the College a "double spread" in the first of the series of articles and continue with a page a week until "the subject has lost its interest."

The department of public information has laid plans for the production of between 30 and 50 series of picture stories.

Boxers fight opponents, not smoke—light up outside of Rec Hall.
