

We, The Women—Valentine's Day Gets
New Wrinkle Via WRA

St. Valentine, a bishop and a martyr stated this rush on the post office when he was put to death during the persecution period in Rome on February 14, 270 A.D. It later became a custom on the eve of St. Valentine's Day for guys and gals to meet and draw lots, and each fellow got a lady friend for his valentine.

Shakespeare took up the theme by alluding to February 14 as the day for love birds to mate. And comic valentines, verses and lace, telegrams and flowers have brought the celebration up to date.

WRA sets the pace for local lovebirds with its annual Sweetheart's Dance planned for White Hall from 9 p. m. to midnight tonight. Women began this dance as a part of the recreation program in 1939, when proceeds were used to purchase equipment for the newly-opened White Hall. Last year 275 couples attended the dance and the $125 profit was contributed to the student loan fund.

Tonight's affair promises to carry out the tone of the day with special lighting effects, valentines and hearts, and Mr. Cupid himself on hand. Couples are reminded that all doors to White Hall will be open, and that Rooms 2 and 103 will both be used as checking rooms.

WRA asks that couples refrain from smoking at the Sweetheart's Dance.

320 Bids Extended For Formal Dinners New Restaurant To Open Monday

Sororities End Intense Rushing

Approximately 320 invitations to tomorrow night's formal dinners were delivered by the 13 sororities last night as intensive period in the 1940-41 rushing season closed at 9 p. m. A strict silent period will be in effect until 5 p. m. tomorrow.

All invitations are to be accepted or refused according to Panhellenic President Harriet Singer '41. Written replies are due at Student Union between 1 and 5 p. m. today when sorority rushing chairmen may call for them.

A rushee may attend two formal dinners if she is still undecided, but must indicate which time on her acceptance. She may not stay at one house longer than one and one half hours.

Deadline for submitting lists of bids to the office of the dean of women has been set for 10 p. m. tomorrow. Rushees will receive their ballots before 10 a. m. Sunday and must indicate their preferences by marking "1" "2" or "3" beside the name of the sorority. Rushees have been especially advised by Miss Singer not to mark a second or third choice for the sake of going sorority. They should be positive that they would be willing to join that house.

Preferential ballots are to be returned to the dean of women's office as soon as possible to expedite the bidding. As soon as all lists are completed, sorority rushing chairmen will be notified, lists will be distributed, and houses will notify their new pledges.

Cautions Rushees

Harriet Singer '41 last night warned rushees to exercise caution in marking second or third preferences on their ballots Sunday and to return them as soon as possible.

Dr. Harry Addresses Fireside Session on Sex

Dr. Harriet M. Harry, physician in the College Health Service, will speak to the men students of the Colonial Hotel at the Colonial Clubroom at 8 p. m. today.

Opening the Colonial's series of "fireside talks," Dr. Harry will speak on problems of sex and will lead an open discussion on student questions. Edgar B. Herwig '42, entertainment chairman, is in charge of the program.

No smoking in White Hall.
