

Scally, Stanko Draw Byes In Intercollegiates

Penn State will defend its Eastern Intercollegiate Boxing Association team championship against Syracuse, Army, Cornell, Western Maryland, Virginia, and the U. S. Coast Guard Academy at Syracuse, Friday and Saturday.

In the preliminary pairings, Sunday, only Captain Red Stanko and Paul Scally drew byes for Penn State. Already favored to win the championship, Syracuse scooped the cream of the drawings, with five Orange entries getting byes.

Syracuse will have three defending champions and one former titlist when it makes its bid. The defenders are Milford Fahey who won last year at 120 pounds and will compete this year at 127; Americo Woyciesjes, 175-pounder who lost his first dual meef'bout to Scally this year; and Loren Schoff, 145-pounder. Charles Healy will try to regain the 165-pound title he won in 1939 and lost to Jim Lewis of State last year.

Penn State's entries are: 120-pound, Vic Fiore; 127-pound, Bill Stanley or Jesse Fardella; 135-pound, Frank Stanko; 145-pound, Bob Baird; 155-pound, Jim Lewis, defending 165-pound champion; 165-pound, Les Cohen; 175-pound, Paul Mall; Unlimited, Paul Scally.

Fifteen first-round bouts will open the tournament Friday night.

Board Restricts Campus Parking

Parking on either side of Shortlidge Road or in the Atherton Hall service drive will be prohibited beginning Friday night, according to a new law passed by the Student Traffic Board last Friday.

The law was passed to provide safety measures for student drivers and to relieve traffic congestion in the Atherton Hall area. Parking space is provided opposite White Hall and student drivers found parking their cars in either of the restricted areas will be liable to fine in keeping with the traffic code, the law states.

Ten violators of the Student Traffic Code for last week, were reported by Capt. William V. Dennis, ex-officio member of the board. Seven of the violators were fined for parking in restricted areas, while three were fined for driving without student licenses.

Appeals by violators may be made to the board which will meet in Room 318 Old Main at 4:10 p. m. every Tuesday.

Debaters in 5 Meets On Pennsylvania Tour

Two members of the varsity debating squad met Muhlenberg yesterday as part of an Eastern Pennsylvania tour in which they meet teams from five different colleges.

The schedule for the rest of the week is: Lehigh and Lafayette, today; Moravian, tomorrow; and Ursinus, Thursday.

To Show Movies

Colored movies will be shown at an open meeting of Delta Sigma Pi, honorary business fraternity, in Room 121 Sparks Building at 7 p. m. tomorrow.

Leitzell Vetoes Attempt To Re-establish Bus Stop

Burgess Wilbur F. Leitzell vetoed and returned to borough council the ordinance re-establishing the College Avenue bus stop, last night. An attempt to pass the ordinance over Leitzell's veto failed by one vote.

Earlier in the day, Judge Ivan Walker postponed a preliminary hearing on the temporary injunction prohibiting enforcement of the ordinance abolishing the Cop Corner bus stop. The hearing was postponed until the completion of the civil court list, which will probably come the end of this week, or early next week. The injunction remains in effect.

Expert Will Talk On Camouflage

Captain Peter Rodyenko, U. S. Army camouflage expert, will be sponsored by the Landscape Architecture Society in collaboration with the Society of American Military Engineers in an open meeting in Room 121 Sparks Building at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, March 18.

Commanding officer of the 40th Engineering Battalion of the Reserves, he was camouflage head of the First Army during maneuvers last summer at Plattsburgh, N. Y. He was born abroad and came to America in 1920 to become a naturalized citizen.

In a four-page article in Life magazine and in numerous Army service publications he has explained the modern meaning of camouflage.

"In the last war, camouflage was only in the experimental stage," Rodyenko says. "Since then it has been put on a scientific basis. You might call it an art which is strictly governed by certain specific rules."

Neuman Initiates 102

One hundred two members were formally initiated into the newly established Penn State chapter of the Neuman Club, national Catholic student organization, at Theta Kappa Phi Sunday night. Presiding at the ceremony were Dr. Francis J. Tschan, professor of European history, Mark A. McCarty, Associate professor of animal husbandry, and Herbert D. Rix, assistant professor of English composition, members of the board of governors.

Devil Issues Personal Invitations To Gridiron Dinner's BMOC Roast

His Satanic Majesty, the Devil, announced late last night that he would be present to witness evidence damning certain BMOC's to everlasting fire at Sigma Delta Chi's annual Gridiron Banquet in the Nittany Lion Inn, Monday night.

Satan's personal invitations to the doomed have already been received by the objects of his scorn—Penn State's upper crust. Those favored by his summons can obtain tickets at Student Union.

Guest of honor of the Prince of Evil will be Tommy Richardson, whose barbed jibes and castigating wit will be sharply displayed at the banquet. Richardson is widely known for his scintillating humor and ready tongue.

Athletes, politicians, and all variety of campus big-wigs are among the few who will be pre-

PWA Head Talks Here Tomorrow

"Public Works Administration in Pennsylvania Cities" will be the topic of a talk by Ray E. Phillips, city engineer of Meadville and president of the American Public Works Association, in the second of the 1941 series of lectures on Pennsylvania Local Government and Administration, in Room 124 Sparks Building at 4 p. m. tomorrow.

The lectures are sponsored by the Public Service Major Committee and the Institute of Local Government.

A list of coming lectures follows:

March 12 — Ellis Tumpson: "Public Housing in Pennsylvania."

March 19 — John G. Good: "Day-by-Day Police Problems in Pennsylvania Cities."

March 26 — Arthur Espy: "Municipal Fire Fighting Organizations and Problems."

April 2—John Bierstein: "Local Administration of Relief and Welfare."

April 9—Henry Butler: "Problems of City Administration in York."

April 23—Lowell W. Monroe: "Day-by-Day Problems in Borough Administration."

April 30—Thomas W. Lantz: "Municipal Recreation Administration."

May 7—John O'Neil: "County Government and Its Problems."

May 14—Dr. R. M. W. Kempner: "Problems of Local Administration in European Countries."

Harold F. Alderfer of the Institute of Local Government was re-elected secretary of the Pennsylvania State Association of boroughs in Harrisburg yesterday.

Stevenson Will Discuss 'Experiences In France'

After spending six months as a relief director for the American Friends Service Committee in France, Donald D. Stevenson, professor of forestry research, will speak on "Some Experiences and Observations in France" in 121 Sparks Building at 7 o'clock tonight.

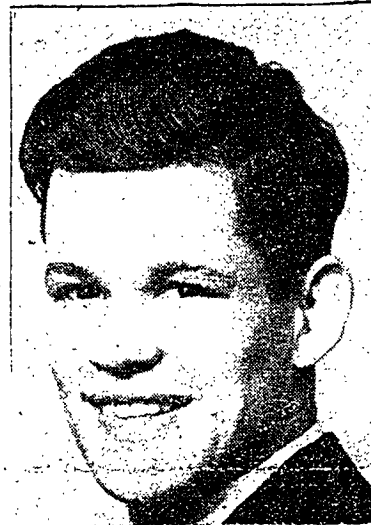

Professor Stevenson spent four years as instructor of forestry and director of religious activities at Lingnan University, Canton, China. He is now chairman of the board of directors of the PSCA.

Mass Meeting Tonight Will Open Campaigning

Open Campaigning

CHARLES F. MATTERN '42

ROBERT D. BAIRD '42

Shown above are rival candidates who start active campaigns for the All-College presidency tonight. Robert D. Baird '42 is the Independent candidate and Charles F. Mattern '42 is running on the Campus ticket.

Dickinson Men Held As Forgers

Two Dickinson College students were held by borough police on a forging charge yesterday following a hearing before Burgess Wilbur F. Leitzell. Both students pleaded guilty.

They are Carl R. Beutner, 21, a senior, and George Kirkpatrick, 19, a freshman.

According to the students they came here Saturday to see the sports events and ran short of money. They said that after several unsuccessful attempts to cash a check they finally succeeded in cashing one for $12.50 at Metzgers. They used the name of Stanley C. Wyglendowski '41 as a reference.

Next, they stated, they tried to cash a $20 check at Keeler's Book Store, Jack Harper's, McLanahan's, the Athletic Store, Fromms' and Hoy's Drug Store. They were apprehended at Hoy's Drug Store by Chief John R. Juba.

The amount of their bail will be set by court.

Tickets On Sale

Tickets are now on sale at Student Union for "The Streets of New York," to be presented in Schwab Auditorium at 8:30 p. m. Friday and Saturday. The tickets are priced at 50 cents each. However, in blocks of 25 or more the cost will be reduced to 40 cents.

Presidential Nominees Will Make Speeches

Political soapboxing by Campus and Independent cliques will become official after the All-College mass meeting in Schwab Auditorium at 8:15 p. m. today as party machines gear for a weeks campaigning prior to the All-College elections next Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

Eight presidential candidates will present pleas for support of their class slates and platforms before an anticipated crowd of politically-minded students. Cheerleaders will enliven the proceedings.

A review of the election code and voting instructions will be given by Richard C. Peters '41, chairman of the All-College Elections Committee, who will conduct the mass meeting.

Jack R. Grey (C) will open the campaign in a bid for sophomore president followed by John J. Chambers (I), William T. Richards (I) and Jerome H. Blakeslee (C) will present their political views for the junior class presidency.

Opponents in the senior class debate will be R. Glen Alexander and H. Leonard Krouse. All six candidates will be limited to three minutes.

Charles F. Mattern and Robert D. Baird, nominees for All-College president, will conclude with five minute speeches.

Plans for campaign and estimated expenses are due at noon today at Student Union and the election committee will meet at 7:15 p. m. prior to the mass meeting, Peters has announced.

42 Attend First Aid Class

The first meeting of the advanced first aid course held last night was attended by 42 students and faculty members. The class will meet again in 316 Sparks Building at 7 p. m. today after which no one will be admitted to the group.

Late News Bulletins

ISTANBUL — A high German official, thought to be von Ribbentrop, was reported to have landed in Turkey last night to confer with high government authorities.

The Turks have taken full defense measures against invasion, including mining of the Dardanelles yesterday afternoon and the massing of 300,000 to 500,000 men on the Greek-Bulgarian border.

MOSCOW — A late Russian communique last night told of the renouncing of the Bulgarian policy that supposedly permitted the Germans to take over the small Balkan country in order to promote peace interests.

Russia contends that the policy makes war threats in the Balkans more inevitable.

LONDON — English officials were surprised at the Russian report last night and stated that it was the first warning Russia has officially made against the Germans.

Nazi bombers, aided by a powerful new type flare, raided all sections of England last night in a scattered attack. One Welsh town was reported to have been greatly damaged.

TOMMY RICHARDSON

sented to the Devil, along with their records, for inspection.