

Babcock, Zeigler Assume WSGA, WRA Posts

Stiles Heads Judicial; 4 WRA Officers Named

Thirteen new officers, headed by Jean Babcock '42, WSGA president, and Betty L. Zeigler '42, WRA president, were officially inducted into office last night. Jeanne C. Stiles '42 was named chairman of WSGA Judicial Committee and four WRA appointments were announced. They include Ann T. Drivas '43, Club Activities chairman; Grace L. Judge '44, WRA publicity chairman; and Priscilla C. MacLellan '44 and Ruth M. Storer '44 to the Intramural Council. Twelve coeds were awarded

WSGA bracelets for outstanding service to the organization this year. They are Margaret R. Roberts '42, May Day co-chairman; Gertrude L. Hellmers '41, co-chairman of Junior-Senior Reception; Dorothy L. Shaw '42, Anna M. Civitts '42, and M. Elizabeth Shelly '42, Dining Hall co-chairmen.

Other women receiving bracelets were Nancy E. Gosser '43, Christmas Dinner chairman; Mary W. Houghton '43, co-chairmen WSGA elections committee; Vera L. Kemp '41, Women's Editor of Collegian; M. Elizabeth Baker '41, Co-Edition editor; and E. Miriam Jones '43, for assistance to WSGA Town Senator.

Four-Man Teams To Play In IFC-Panhel Tourney

Four-man teams will play in the IFC-Panhellenic bridge tournament instead of the original two-man teams, with women's entrance fees at 50 cents per team and men's at 60 cents. Entrees must be delivered to chairmen, Margaret M. Diener '42 and Robert C. Elmore '41, by noon Wednesday.

Clyde H. Graves, assistant professor of mathematics, has been named director of the tournament. Men's playoffs are scheduled the third week in March and winners will then compete with sorority teams.

Women In Sports

Congrats to Ann Drivas '43, outgoing publicity chairman and newly-appointed club president chairman. Ann's posters, pep talks, and all-round enthusiasm spelled a lot of WRA's success this year. This column especially wants to add, "Thanks, Ann." Incidentally, she and Betty Widger '41 passed their intramural and local basketball refereeing ratings after a series of written and practical exams.

WRA seems to be growing telegraphic-conscious, with archery, bowling, rifle, and swimming matches already scheduled. Requirements for the bowling match with Williamsport High School set for next month are 5-line scores of over 140.

Coeds who survived the telegraphic swim meet tryouts and selected to participate in the intercollegiate match next Wednesday night are Babs Clark, Barbara Davis, Mary Devling, Lenore Fullington, Olive Kalar, Marilyn Kindl, Ruth Lawson, Ada Lord, Mickey McFarland, Skip Scrivanich, Polly Vannerman, Phyllis Watkins, and Bea Willey.

Ranking first in intramurals at present are AOPi's in basketball; Chi O's and Kappas in badminton for the fraternity league, and Ath East in badminton for the independent league; ZTA in bowling, and Mac Hall I in ping pong.

Coffee Hour Planned

Approximately 150 faculty members have been invited to a coffee hour sponsored by Grange Dormitory in the Grange Lounge from 7 to 8 p.m. next Wednesday. Hummel Fishburn, associate professor of music education, will preview the Cleveland Symphony concert, scheduled for March 17.

Krimcon, Social Society, To Petition Panhel Council

Organized last spring, Krimcon, newest social society, was approved by the Senate committee of Student Welfare this week and will petition Panhellenic Council this weekend for recognition.

According to Mary Gene Proctor '42, president, definite plans for becoming a national group have already been made. However, Panhellenic Council cannot recognize any group until a year after it has been approved by the student welfare committee.

Other Krimcon officers are Martha E. Powers '42, vice-president; Frances G. Reist '42, secretary-treasurer; Dorothy F. Beam '42, social chairman; Doris E. Ives '42 chaplain; and Betsy G. Geltz '43 rushing chairman. Additional charter members include Betty J. Bertolette '42, Jean O. Edwards '42; E. Barbara Newton '41, Marian E. Hora '43, Justine Lougee '41 and Ilse M. Springer '42. Mrs. Harriet D. Nesbitt, instructor in public speaking, is faculty advisor to the group which holds its meetings in third floor lounge of Atherton Hall.

The organization is sponsoring a Brownie Scout troop at Woodycrest fr girls from the ages of 7 to 14 with Miss Edwards and Miss Bertolette in charge. Mrs. Peter Klassen is troop leader from town council.

Also recognized was Tau Phi Sigma formed by the secretaries of the college administration offices as successor to the old secretarial club. Officers are A. Dorothy Golschmid '41, president, and Miriam T. Miller '41, secretary.

We, The Women

In the Fall WSGA Senate questioned the feasibility of continuing Co-Edition on the grounds that it no longer filled its purpose of reporting coed activities since The Penn State Collegian became The Daily Collegian with a page for women's news promised for each issue.

After much discussion and a report from the past editor of Co-Edition, Senate decided to put the paper on a probationary standing for one semester. That semester is past, yet nothing has been decided.

We realize it is awkward for the member of one publication to criticize another without the arguments having a distinct aroma of sour grapes. But without any reflections on the past or present staff of Co-Edition, we sincerely feel that a situation affecting the entire women's student body should be publicised for all to judge.

Arguments for continuing the paper have been that stories on coed activities for which Collegian lacked the space would be printed in Co-Edition. With a daily women's page, that argument no longer holds. Also, the Co-Edition claimed that coeds enjoyed reading names in the Dormouse which The Maniac, Campuseer, and other dirt columnist had overlooked. But can a newspaper be justified on the ground that it runs a gossip column? We think not.

Most plausible reason for continuing the WSGA-WRA sponsored sheet is that it provides an activity for approximately 15 coed journalists. Yet, even this reason fails to justify the publication of the newspaper.

Annually, WSGA allots $300 and WRA gives $150 to make possible the weekly publication of Co-Edition. How possibly could the provision of activities for 15 coeds justify the expenditure of $450 from a very limited fund meant for all women? Certainly a better use can be made of the money. The fund could be turned into scholarships, added in part to the Christmas Drive, or given to worthier projects. Undoubtedly there are enough organizations on the campus to provide activities for those 15 women.

The issue is still unsettled. Co-Edition has gone almost two months over its probational period.

We ask that the staff of Co-Edition re-present its case and that WSGA Senate discuss and settle the problem quickly and to the best interests of the women students.
