Grapplers Near Final Drills For EIBA Title

Coach Charlie Speidel's grapplers began a half-week of extensive training yesterday as they faced the climax of the wrestling season, the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling tournament which is to be staged at Columbia University this Friday and Saturday.

The Nittany Lions are preparing to meet the cream of the eastern mat crop when they compete against such strong grappling squads as Navy, Army, Cornell, Princeton, Yale, Syracuse, Lehigh, Penn, Columbia, and Harvard.

Captain Frank Gleason will lead an assault of Penn State grappling seniors in search of their ninth intercollegiate title. Joe Scalzo, Joe Valla, and Chuck Rohrer compose the other seniors who will make their final bid for eastern honors.

It is expected that Clair Hess, Charlie Ridenour, Glen Alexander, and Jack Kerns will form the remainder of the squad.

Lion Cagers May Play In Tourney

The Lion basketball team has received a "feeler" to the National Collegiate Athletic Association tournament in Madison, Wis., and will accept a bid if one is offered, it was announced last night by Dr. Carl P. Schott, dean of the School of Physical Education and Athletics.

Dean Schott said that final bids will probably be sent out Wednesday. The tournament is scheduled Friday and Saturday, March 21 and 22.

It is believed that Duquesne University in Pittsburgh is the only other team in this district to receive a feeler. However, Duquesne will probably go to the Madison Square Garden tournament in New York City.

Lion Mermen Drop Final Meet To Cornell, 46-29

Closing their season with their fifth consecutive loss, the Nittany tankmen bowed to Cornell, 49-26, at Ithaca Saturday bringing their 1941 record to three victories and five defeats.

Captain Bill Kirkpatrick and Al Price took the only Lion first places, Kirkpatrick capturing the 50-yard sprint and Price winning the dive with a total of 82.6 points.

In the 200-yard breaststroke, Tom Reissman pushed Cornell's George Critchlow to a new pool record. Critchlow covered the distance in 2:40.6 minutes, breaking his old mark by 1.2 seconds.

The sale of tennis rackets has fallen off 40 per cent in California. No one seems to have a good reason for the sudden slump.

Baird Is Only Lion Finalist

Penn State's boxing team fell to a new low at the 18th annual Eastern Intercollegiate Boxing Association tournament at Syracuse Saturday by failing to take a single championship for the first time since the first tournament in 1924 and dropping to the lowest place a Lion team has taken in the 18 years of the Association's existence.

High mark in Penn State's darkest tourney competition was Bobby Baird's attempt for the 145-pound championship. Baird fought to the finals, only to be defeated by defending champion Loren Schoff of Syracuse.

Besides Baird's second place, the Lions won two third places, to earn five points, two points more than Western Maryland, low team of the meet. Syracuse, with 28 points, five champions, and one second place, took the Edward J. Neil trophy, presented

Army and Cornell tied for second place with 10 points each. Virginia, with 9 points, was third; Coast, 7 points, fourth; Penn State, 5, fifth; and Western Maryland, 3, sixth.

Captain Frank (Red) Stanko won his third place by a forfeit from Syracuse's Ben Sgroi, in the 135-pound division. State's other point was earned by Paul Scally, who won third place in the unlimited class by a forfeit from Hawkins, Virginia.

With four men eliminated in the prelims, Penn State had only four boxers to show in the semifinals. Of these, Fiore was eliminated by TKO resulting from a cut eye suffered in 1:35 of the third round. Hudson, Western Maryland, was the winner.

Paul Mall, another State semifinalist, was knocked out in 1:45 minutes of the second round by Americo Woyciesjes, Syracuse's defending 175-pound champion.

Jimmy Lewis, State's only 1940 champion, was eliminated in the prelims by Co-Captain Johnny Clark, defending 155-pound king. Clark subsequently lost his title to McGarity of United States Coast Guard Academy.

The 1940 Intercollegiate will be held at Charlottesville, Va., at the University of Virginia. A new rule, calling for automatic forfeiting of third place bouts in favor of the boxer who lost to the ultimate champion, was adopted at Syracuse Saturday.

Lion Hockeymen Tied 4-4 In Extra-Period Game

Going into an overtime period, the Nittany Lion ice hockey squad was tied 4-4 by the undefeated Georgetown University team in a fast, evenly-matched game at Washington, D. C., Saturday night.

The Lions held the lead with a 3-2 score until the last few seconds of the third period, when McQueen tallied for Georgetown, tying the score 3-3 and necessitating an overtime period. Dufford, unassisted, scored again for State, bringing the lead to the Lions, but Diegan, assisted by McQueen, tied the 4-3 lead as the game ended.

Larry Lightbody, star goalie for the Lions, was injured in the first eight minutes of play and was withheld from playing again. Dufford was high scorer for State, with three tallies to his credit; Fowler, main defense man, scored once for the Nittanymen.

Skiers Place Fourth As Peters Sets Record

Despite Max Peters' record-breaking time in the cross-country event, the Penn State ski team finished fourth in a five-team meet at Hamilton, N.Y., this weekend. Colgate, the home team, took first place.

Peters' time of a little over 50 minutes topped every one made on the difficult Hamilton run this year.
