Full Lion Team In New York For EIWA Meet

By ROSS LEHMAN

NEW YORK, March 14.—Eight victory-eager Nittany Lion grapplers prepared to clash with ten powerful mat squads in the 37th annual tournament for the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association championship at Columbia University's gym today and tomorrow.

Eighty-eight representatives from Army, Navy, Penn, Cornell, Syracuse, Yale, Lehigh, Princeton, Columbia, Harvard, and Penn State will struggle on tournament mats against formidable competition for individual and team honors.

The grapplers will weigh in this morning and drawing for bout positions will follow. Elimination and semi-final matches will be wrestled this afternoon and tonight with the final and second and third consolation place battles scheduled for tomorrow.

Lehigh, EIWA title-holder for the past three years, and Cornell head the list of former collegiate championships with 11 victories apiece. Penn State follows with eight, Yale five, Princeton 1, and Yale and Lehigh shared the diadem in 1927.

When the bell rings for the opening bout at 2 p. m. today, three of Penn State's grapplers will enter competition as even favorites to steal individual mat crowns from their rivals. Captain Frank Gleason, Joe Scalzo, and Charlie Ridenour will flaunt a composite score of 20 wins and only three losses as their year's dual record.

Ridenour is probably ranked as the Lions outstanding favorite. Bursting into mat prominence in his first varsity year, he gets the nod over Captain Ted Schöenberg of Harvard, Joe Littleton of Cornell, and Bill Changaris of Cornell.

Students Jailed By Local Police

Two students, arrested at 1 o'clock yesterday morning for interfering with firemen during a blaze in Sally's Sandwich Shop at 103½ East Beaver Avenue, have been released so that they could attend classes while awaiting a hearing.

The students — William L. Brown '44 and Clifford L. Huntington '43—were kept in the borough jail during the night. They were jailed after attempting to enter the burning building.

According to police, Fire Marshal G. Edwin Moore refused to admit the students to the building, but they attempted to force their way in.

A hearing will be held at the convenience of Moore and Richard W. May '41, student representative to borough council, who must be present at all student hearings.

Damage from the blaze was estimated at $300. Furniture in the room was destroyed and the walls and ceiling were badly scorched. Firemen were forced to don smoke masks before the fire could be controlled.

Temporary Bus Depots Listed; Commerce Club Takes Critical Poll

Announcements of new downtown bus stops and the results of a selective poll conducted by the State College Commerce Club were made last night.

Since the lifting of the injunction that permitted buses to stop on College Avenue the transportation companies will use the following locations:

Greyhound Lines: Emergency terminal on South Atherton Street.

Johnston Motorbus: Terminal on South Atherton Street for taking on and discharging passengers, discharging also on South Pugh Street.

Boalsburg Auto Bus: Parking meter spaces on South Allen near College.

Johnston and Boalsburg Auto Bus tickets may be purchased at State College Hotel. Greyhound and Johnston tickets are sold at the South Atherton terminal.

The poll revealed that 136 out of 160 merchants and all 24 of the fraternities polled considered the prohibition of a central bus stop unwise from the standpoint of convenience.

That business of local establishments would suffer by the abolition of the stop and the creation of a new terminal was agreed by 125 business men and 20 fraternities.

Late News Flashes

LONDON —The RAF struck a devastating blow at the Axis powers last night as they spread their attack from Norway to Southern France and through Germany to Berlin. The attackers reported that their raids, in clear weather, left Berlin, Hamburg, and various other towns in a maze of fire and destruction. German planes, retaliating with a counter-attack, swept over the Channel at midnight last night, but anti-aircraft and RAF fighter planes stopped the attack before serious damage was done.

ATHENS — Turkish officials notified Greece last night that Turkey would aid if Yugoslavia decided to fight the Axis powers. Russian communiques to Greece last night stated that she would stay neutral whether Yugoslavia decided to fight or not.

Krouse, Blakeslee, Grey Gain Offices; Loan Fund Tops Mural By 5 Votes

By WILLIAM E. FOWLER

Sweeping every post except the All-College offices, the Campus party rolled to its most striking victory at the polls in years as the third All-College elections closed last night.

Sole Independent consolation was the election of Robert D. Baird and Gerald P. Doherty to the offices of All-College president and All-College vice-president, respectively, over Campus nominees Charles F. Mattern and Peter B. Krones. In the closest race of all, the Scholarship Loan Fund was chosen as the gift of the Class of 1941 by a majority of five votes over the Old Main Murals.

Piling up the biggest margin in eight years for the senior class presidency, H. Leonard Krouse was elected to that office with a vote that exactly doubled that of his Independent opponent, R. Glen Alexander. John J. Long swept into the vice-presidential slot by a like majority as A. Patricia Behney and C. Homer Hoffman annexed slightly lesser totals.

In its first triumph at the polls, the 43 Campus party narrowly edged its rivals as Jerome H. Blakeslee and M. Williams Lundelius rang up a 41-vote victory over William T. Richards and George N. Rumsey. Elsie L. Rooth and Robert L. Mahinny were elected secretary and treasurer, respectively, to complete the winning slate.

70 Bridge Teams Enter IF-Panhel Tournament

With 58 teams, representing 34 fraternities, and 12 teams from 9 sororities entered, plans are nearing completion for the first interfraternity-panhellenic bridge tournament, according to Robert L. Elmore '41, in charge of competition.

The fraternity teams will hold eliminations until the number of teams left equals the number of sorority teams. Finals will include teams from both fraternities and sororities. Playing will probably begin Tuesday in Old Main.

Teams will play duplicate contract bridge. A trophy will be awarded to the championship team.

Collegian Poll Out-Gallups

Better than Gallup, the Collegian poll on the All-College Elections missed only the junior class presidency, a check last night showed.

Collegian's second poll, taken immediately before the election, was wrong on the juniors but the one taken two weeks earlier hit even that class exactly right.

The score sheet:

Office	1st Candidate	2nd Candidate	Ac- tual
A.-C. Baird (I)	53%	52%	53%
Mattern (C)	47	48	47
'42 Krouse (C)	66	66	67
Alexander (I)	34	34	33
'43 Blakeslee (C)	52	43	52
Richards (I)	48	57	48
'44 Grey (C)	51	59	59
Chambers (I)	49	41	41
Senior Gift—Loan Fund	57	51
Murals	43	49

Conducted by William J. McKnight '42, the poll was made by calling every 20th student in the College Directory and asking how he planned to vote. Yeoman service was done by Collegian's freshman heelers who did all the phoning under McKnight's direction.
