

Gallu, Szekely Are Featured In Glee Concert

The Penn State Glee Club, under the direction of Prof. Richard W. Grant, will present its first complimentary student concert in Schwab Auditorium at 8:30 p. m. tomorrow.

In addition to the Varsity Male Quartette and the Hy-Los, the club will be assisted by Samuel Gallu '40, tenor soloist, and Andrew Szekely '43, pianist. Gallu, now a student in the Westminster Choir School at Princeton, N. J., has been invited back especially to sing on tomorrow's program and to travel with the club on their concert tour next week.

Tomorrow's concert will consist of a nine-part program. The Glee Club will sing Bach's "Alleluia"; Cain's "Come to Me in My Dreams"; "Carnival," a Russian mazurka by Ganne; and the spiritual "Gospel Train" as the first part of the concert.

Gallu will sing the Flower Song from Bizet's "Carmen." The Varsity Male Quartette of James McAdam '42, first tenor; Boyd Bell '42, second tenor; Albert Zimmer '42, baritone; Richard Vollmer '42, bass; and James Leyden, Jr. '42, pianist, will sing a group of selected numbers.

Szekely will play Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2." William Minshall '43, baritone, will sing Vincent Youmans' "Without a Song." The Hy-Los will present "The Arkansas Traveller," "Johnny Schmoker," and "Graceful and Easy."

Gallu will again be heard in a series of solo numbers, singing "Blue Are Her Eyes" by Watts, Bohms' "Still As The Night," and "Mattinata" by Leoncavallo.

As their second group of numbers the Glee Club will sing "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," Jacobs' "This Is My Country,"

Men Are Always Right; They Want To Be 'Babied'

And 8 More Reasons We Don't Like Men

Senior Secretary

After spending many, long, weary years reading columns on "How To Win Your Man—and Hold Him Too!" or "Fifty Reasons Why I Don't Like Women," we feel it's high time women list a few qualities we don't like in men.

Here are a few listed by Penn State women, many of whom smugly wore fraternity pins.

1. They are always right; you never are.
2. They always have to be "babied" and "built up."
3. They attack us for things which they themselves do—swearing and smoking, for example.
4. They persist in telling dirty jokes—then get angry if you catch on and laugh.
5. They never give you credit for anything you accomplish.
6. They insist upon showing affection (in a very positive manner) on the first date, then talk about you afterwards if you returned the affection.
7. They flirt unrestrainedly with your sorority sisters, but pout for hours if you smile at their fraternity brothers.
8. Their "lines" are trite and hackneyed. We demand originality since sincerity is asking too much.
9. Imports (no matter how unattractive) are always preferred to coeds.
10. After three dates, they take you for granted.

and two old sea chanteys. "What Shall We Do With A Drunken Sailor," and "The High Barbaree".

The Varsity Quartette will again present a group of selections and the program will be concluded with the singing of several college songs. Dartmouth will be represented by its "Winter Song," New York University by "The Palisades," Amherst by "Lord Jeffrey Amherst" and Penn State by "Fight On State," "Blue and White," "The Nittany Lion," and our "Alma Mater."

Home Ec Nursery School Plosted To Capacity

Re-opening of the Nursery School Annex in the Home Economics Building has raised the daily attendance of the entire Nursery School group to its capacity of 25 children. The annex accommodates the 6 youngest children within the age range of 21 to 33 months.

The younger children learn routine procedure and play in a less stimulating environment than in the larger nursery school where they later will be enrolled. Participation in outdoor play activities and mid-morning lunch with the older children, however is practiced.

Advanced students in Child Development courses assist in supervision of these children.

PSCA Will Present Play 'Joseph Of Arimathea'

For its annual Easter worship service, the PSCA dramatic group will present "Joseph of Arimathea," an Easter play with musical accompaniments, at 7 p. m., Monday, April 7. Announcement of the place will be made later.

The cast includes Joseph, Philip B. Pennington '44; Nicodemus, Paul M. Heberling '44; Joash, Warren W. Currier '44; Page, L. Eugene Scott '44; Esther, Marion A. Whitcomb '44; Anna, Lois J. Yost '44; Mary, Ruth E. Conrad '44; and Martha, M. Virginia Krauss '44.

A. Patricia Behney '42, (C), who was the winning candidate for secretaryship of the senior class in this week's All-College elections.

Women In Sports

Delta Gams outplayed Kappas, 55-29, on the White Hall floor last night, with Sally Faber, DG, earning 26 points to cop individual scoring honors, and Jan Hartz earning 15 points for the Anchor team.

Kappa Jane Windle tallied 17 points, while Jo Taggart and Joyce Goodale each sank three baskets.

Ath West shut out Ath East, 3-0, and Mac Hall beat Town East, 3-0. Mac Hall I lost to Thetas in ping pong, necessitating another match on Wednesday to decide the tournament winner.

Ath Hall Junior Party Has St. Patrick Theme

There'll be a wearin' of the green at the Junior Party given by junior women of the northwest unit of Atherton in their lounge Tuesday evening to celebrate St. Patrick's Day.

In charge of games and decorations are Ruth W. Barbey, Mary R. Craft, Jeanne M. Lindaman, Elizabeth C. Rose, and Margery J. Rosenberg. Refreshment committee members are Anna M. Evans, Anna J. Halberstadt, Alice M. Murray and Margaret L. Woolridge.

Engineer Open House

(Continued from Page One) tions, electric-ray metal inspection, and factory planning exhibits are several of the displays that will be shown by industrial engineers. ROTC will include exhibits of army bridge constructions, rigging, defense fortification layouts, and army equipment.

Several novelty displays, a jitterbug egg and a small-scale radio sending and receiving set-up, will highlight the electrical engineering open house. The radio hookup will include a studio with microphone and phonograph, a broadcasting station, and a typical commercial receiving set. An oscilloscope will show the different types of wave changes throughout the entire radio process.

Coeds Debate Ursinus

Edythe B. Rickel '41 and Hilma R. Eisen '42 upheld the affirmative side of "Resolved, that the nations of the western hemisphere should enter into a permanent union," against Ursinus College in Philipsburg Thursday night.

Theta Phi Alpha has pledged Mary E. Kane '44

We, The Women Regulations Deserve Coed Support—Or

One of the most prevalent problems before WSGA Judicial Committee is that of making each woman student realize she is an integral part in the successful operation of its program.

Mass disregard on the part of the women students to represent regulations and penalties for their infractions has revealed the problem to the committee in a new light.

The program of Judicial Committee is not only to mete punishment for offenders of WSGA regulations but to help women students adjust themselves to the regulations and realize their responsibilities to live up to the code.

Heretofore, methods to accomplish these criteria called upon each coed to be on her honor. Responsibility of this system apparently, was felt by only a few.

To remedy the situation, several steps may be taken:

1. Alarm systems could be installed in all dormitories at every door, and reliable students could room near the entrances, ready to act when alarms rang. This would eliminate the possibility of doors being opened from the inside for women taking unfair advantages of friends.
 2. Women punished with campuses could be made to report to their hostesses or committee members at certain intervals during each night of their penalty.
 3. Information on whereabouts of coeds at all times could be required by those in authority to enable them to reach the student at all times within very few minutes.
 4. Coeds could be required to be in their rooms within a short time after closing hours at which time the hostesses, night matron, or reliable students could check up on them.
 5. The same system could be enforced to determine if all women have signed out when they are out of the dormitory after 10 p. m. Fridays and Saturdays.
- Unless women understand the responsibilities they incur with college life, and agree to cooperate more fully with the lenient regulations issued through WSGA, Senate will be asked to act upon the above suggestions.

Curie Speaker Lectures Here

"The Chemist at Large" will be the subject of Dr. Louise Kelley, professor of chemistry at Goucher College and second Marie Curie lecturer on this campus, when she speaks in Room 119, New Physics, at 8 p. m., Wednesday.

Dr. Kelley is assistant editor of Chemical Reviews and the Journal of Physical Chemistry, co-author of a text book on organic chemistry, and honorary member of Iota Sigma Pi.

Marie Curie lectures are sponsored annually by Iota Sigma Pi, women's national chemistry honorary, and women chemists are invited to speak on semi-popular subjects.

Dr. Kelly will be entertained at dinner at the Nittany Lion Inn preceding the talk, by Iota Sigma Pi and Sigma Delta Epsilon, graduate women's chemistry honorary.

Musical Program Offered At Atherton Tea Today

A musical program will be presented at a tea in the northwest lounge of Atherton from 3:30 to 5 p. m. today. Janet M. Hartz '42, social chairman, will sing, and Anita M. Knecht '42 and Martha N. Albert '43 will play several piano selections.

Committee members are Carolyn R. Erb '43, chairman, Ruth E. Kennedy, graduate student, Jeannette Lose '43 and Lila A. Whoolery '43.

Nittany
A WARREN BROS. THEATRE

Evenings at 6:30, 8:30
Matinee Saturday Only at 1:30

TODAY ONLY

KARLOFF
in The DEVIL COMMANDS

Added: "Green Hornet Serial"
Monday: "LAND OF LIBERTY"

Cathaum
A WARREN BROS. THEATRE

LAST TIMES TODAY
Shows At 1:30-3:00-6:30-8:30

Pictured by the men who gave you "GRAPES OF WRATH"

TOBACCO ROAD

Directed by JOHN FORD

JAMES HILTON'S best-seller mystery... now the screen's new thrill sensation!

Robert MONTGOMERY
Ingrid BERGMAN
Rage in Heaven
with GEORGE SANDERS
Lucille Watson, Oscar Homolka

Added: "Mat Men"—A sports reel featuring the Lehigh University wrestling team.

State
WARREN BROS. THEATRE

Shows at 1:30, 3:00, 6:30, 8:30

TODAY ONLY

I Can't Give You Anything but LOVE!

Free and Easy
with Robert Cummings, Ruth Hussey

MONDAY - TUESDAY

IT'S GOBS OF FUN!
a Girl, a Guy and a God!

GEORGE MURPHY
with LUCILLE WATSON, OSCAR HOMOLKA