

400 High School Sportswomen To Attend Play Day May 17

Lakonides To Sponsor First Large Affair

Approximately 400 women from 300 Central Pennsylvania high schools are expected to participate in non-competitive sports on Play Day, May 17, in the first large affair of its kind to be held here.

Sponsored by Lakonides, women's physical education honorary, the program will include volleyball, softball, badminton, and swimming events, a campus tour, and luncheon in the Sandwich Shop.

Three years ago a similar event was held on a smaller scale under the old Women's Athletic Association. The larger and more varied Play Day will continue annually, according to this year's sponsors.

The following committees are working on the event:

Program—Katherine A. Loresch '42, chairman, Beatrice J. Baumunk '42, Dorothy C. Ellis '43, Bernice M. Maurer '42, M. A. Elizabeth Succop '41, and Betty J. Zeigler '42.

Campus tour—Ann M. Borton '42, chairman, Pauline Crossman '43, Sarah H. Faber '41, Betty E. Widger '42, and Lila A. Whoolery '43.

Registration—Mary V. Devling '41, chairman, Jane E. Burke '43, Muriel E. Engelke '41, Lenore M. Heinz '41, Vera M. Neal '41, and Elizabeth A. Rank '42.

Anne V. Nasoni '41 has been named fire-chief of Grange Dormitory to succeed Else G. Brunsen '42 who left College.

Philotes Initiates 11 To Climax Fourth Year

With the initiation of 11 women last night, Philotes, organization of non-fraternity women, moves into its fourth year of active work.

Claire Bernstein '42, Sara R. Lipser '42, Evelyn F. Polansky '42, Kathryn J. Sproat '42, Shirley M. Tietz '42, Mary P. Wise '42, Dorothy Barton '43, Pearl Levy '43, Jane E. Neal '43, Julia Shellecock '43, and Helen S. Zable '43 were initiated.

Guests at initiation were advisors Miss Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women; Miss Matilda A. Bentley, assistant to the dean of women; Mrs. Carroll D. Champ- lin, Miss Marie Haidt, associate professor of physical education, and Mrs. Henry L. Yeagley.

Coed Golf Champ Sends 'Sorry Buf'

The Duke of Windsor has met not one of our coeds yet, but he missed by the narrowest of margins when Johnnie Fleming '42, women's golf champ who is semestering in Florida, unknowingly refused an invitation to Nassau in the Bahamas. She didn't know he was to be her host and stayed in Lakeworth, Fla. while the rest of the group of women golfers went along.

Johnnie's golf has shown remarkable improvement since she left college in February to visit relatives for the winter, with a majority of her scores in the low 80's. She placed in the first flight—best 16—in the Florida East Coast Championship at St. Augustine, Fla. In competition with some of the best women golfers in the country, she won her first match but met defeat in the second series against the medalist or lowest scorer in the flight.

In another tournament at Lake Worth, she reached the semi-finals after winning the first two games.

Much of her competitive work is done now in conjunction with a pro who has been coaching her. Each pro teams up with a young feminine golfer and together they play matches against other such combinations.

At the end of the Florida season, Johnnie intends to continue her golfing in North Carolina, probably at Pinehurst, and to return to her home in State College for the summer.

12 Sorority Teams Begin Bridge Tourney On Thursday Night

Twelve sorority bridge teams will meet in White Hall's game room at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night in the first eliminations of the Panhel-IFC tournament. Representing eight houses, the four-man combinations will play until five winners are picked.

The five semi-finalists will then meet five fraternity teams next week, but will not compete with them. A sorority and a fraternity champion will then be selected to vie with each other for All-College honors.

Houses with two teams are Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Omicron Pi, Delta Gamma, and Kappa Alpha Theta. Other entries are Alpha Epsilon Phi, Chi Omega, Gamma Phi Beta, and Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Coeds Active In Debates

Lois J. Hunter '42 and Sara R. Lipser '42 will debate two colleges this week on the policy, "Resolved, that the nations of the Western Hemisphere should enter into a permanent union." They will uphold the negative side of the resolution at Indiana University today, and against American University here on Thursday.

Seniors To Elect '41 Honor Women

Senior women will have a class meeting in the northwest lounge of Atherton Hall at 7 o'clock tomorrow night to choose the six senior honor women for Class Day exercises June 9.

Bow Girl, recipient of the highest honor conferred on a graduating woman by her classmates, is the first of the six women chosen for their outstanding contributions to the College. Other honor titles are Slipper Girl, Fan Girl, Class Donor, Mirror Girl, and Class Poet.

Class Donor will present the other honor women at the Class Day program; Mirror Girl will give the graduating women's prophecy and present the symbolic mirror to Jean Babcock '42, WSGA president; and the Class Poet will read the class poem.

This is the sixth year that honor women have been chosen by vote of senior women to correspond with Spoon Man, Pipe Orator, Cane Man, Barrel Man, and Class Donor, chosen by the graduating men.

A nutrition exhibit to show the sources of iron in food will be held in Room 209 Home Economics from 8 a.m. to noon today.

Women In Sports

Ath East snatched the championship of the Independent League in yesterday's intramural basketball as Town Team defaulted. Ath Hall also defaulted to Mac Hall. Delta Gamma will compete with AOPi in this week's sorority games, and the winner will take on Chi Omega. Sorority champ of this game will match Ath East in the finals on April 1.

All persons interested in All-College bowling and table tennis, to begin after Easter, should sign in the WRA office before 5 p. m. Friday.

Kahn Speaks To Forum

Rabbi Benjamin Kahn, head of the Penn State Hillel Foundation will speak on "Hebrew and Christian Religions" at the Freshman Forum in the Hugh Beaver Room at 7 o'clock tonight.
