

Sorority Bridge Begins Tonight

Twelve sorority teams representing eight houses will begin eliminations in the White Hall game room at 7:30 o'clock tonight as their part of the Panhel-FC bridge tournament. Tonight's five winners will meet with the nine fraternity section champions next week in final playoffs.

Two-team entries are Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Omicron Pi, Delta Gamma, and Kappa Alpha Theta. Single teams are Alpha Epsilon Phi, Chi Omega, Gamma Phi Beta, and Kappa Kappa Gamma.

In the men's division, Beta Sigma Rho copped its second section victory Tuesday night when its four-man team took honors in Section E competition along with Kappa Delta Rho which placed first in Section F.

Second-place teams were Alpha Chi Sigma in Section E and Phi Gamma Delta in Section F. An error in scoring Monday's results makes Alpha Chi Rho second in Section D instead of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

We, The Women Atherton Hall Walls Shake With Mirth As Senior Coeds Elect 6 Honor Women

Atherton Hall walls shook with mirth last night when the senior class women held their annual meeting there to elect the "six women who have contributed most to the College."

What should have been a meeting to select the six most deserving senior coeds turned into a sorority free-for-all.

When senior women should have been seriously evaluating the contributions their classmates have made to the College during the past three and one half years, instead they were openly declaring, "You vote for me; I'll vote for you."

When all senior women should have turned out, instead only a few sororities appeared in full force to dictate whose names will appear in the Class Day program.

And when the meeting adjourned, Atherton Hall foundations doubled up with laughter and between laughs screamed, "What a farce!"

About 50 to 75 out of approximately 300 senior women attended the meeting. Several who voted did not have second semester senior rating and should have been disqualified. Most of those attending did not act as if they realized the import their decision would have to the entire senior class and the College. Unfavorable comments have already been voiced.

In view of the above facts we ask that senior women meet again to reconsider which six women have contributed most to the College.

Weaver '41 Leads Six Senior Honor Women

Elinor L. Weaver '41 was named Bow Girl, the highest honor conferred on a graduating woman by senior coeds, at the sixth annual meeting of senior women last night and five other coeds were selected for their outstanding contributions to the College.

Harriet Singer '41 was chosen Slipper Girl; Mary Jane Dalton '41, Fan Girl; Bertha M. Douthett '41, Class Donor; Norma P. Stillwell '41, Mirror Girl; and Ellen N. Ritts '41, Class Poet.

Panhel Rush Committee Asks OK On Between Semester Rushing

Incorporating between-semester rushing as its major change, a new rushing code was presented to Panhellenic Council last night by the Rushing Committee for further consideration by individual houses.

Under the proposed plan, invitations to four formal parties will be issued on January 14, one week before final examinations with replies due in three days followed by strict silent period through finals. Formal rushing will open Thursday, January 29, the day after finals end and continue until Saturday, February 7, with the usual weekend silent periods in effect.

By this plan the committee maintains that intensive rushing will take place during registration and the first day and a half of classes and thereby alleviate class cutting and neglect of work—much-criticized points of this year's system.

Two get-togethers between Thanksgiving and Christmas to which sororities invite guests were established as new sections of the first semester code replacing two open houses. Three open houses will be held by each house earlier in the semester and blanket invitations will be extended to all freshmen and transfers.

Permission for transfers to visit dormitory rooms at any time during first semester was granted except during strict silent periods, and sorority women were also given the right to visit in transfer rooms until Christmas vacation. Visiting in freshman rooms was forbidden after the first four-week period of free association at the opening of the semester.

Expenditures for formal rushing were raised to $25 and those for formal dinners to $40.

Chi Phis entertained Delta Gammas at dinner last night.
