

Panhel To Revise Intensive Rushing

With approval of 11 houses on the first semester portion of the new Rushing Code, Panhellenic's Rushing Committee last night received official instruction to rewrite the second semester code omitting the objectionable between-semester rushing.

Half-day rushing during intensive period from 1 to 9 p.m. with the number of formal parties reduced to four was approved and budget increases of $5 for the four parties and $10 for formal dinners were sanctioned.

Judges for the Panhellenic inter-sorority sing scheduled for Wednesday, April 30 as announced by Marjorie A. Geer '42 are Hummel Fishburn, associate professor of music education, George W. Henninger, instructor in music, and Mrs. John T. Taylor, assistant professor of music.

Gamma Phi Beta announced a Blitz Party in the Sandwich Shop from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight Saturday, April 19 as part of a nation-wide British War Relief campaign. Tickets will be 10 cents per dance.

Women In Sports

Chi Os won five more points toward the Intramural Cup with a 2-1 victory over Ath East in the badminton finals last night to give them 21 points against the 23 held by Thetas.

Outcome of double elimination finals in basketball between DGs and Chi Os this week will determine the cup winner. Competition promises to be a thrill-packed game since DGs handed Chi Os their first set back last night, 30-23, in the second round of the contest. Tied, 8-8, at the quarter and, 14-14, at the half, DGs came through with a flourish in the final minutes.

Winner of the sorority basketball group will fight against the Independent League winner for championship.

Two Musical Groups Will Provide May Day Music

Processional and recessional marches for May Day ceremonies on front campus at 4:30 p.m. May 10 will be provided by the Phi Mu Alpha orchestra with vocal selections throughout the exercises by the Louise Homer Club, Margaret R. Roberts '42 and Patricia MacKinney, co-chairmen, have announced.

Simple folk and May Pole dances with piano accompaniment will be coached by Miss Jessie Cameron, assistant professor of physical education.

Phi Kappa Tau entertained Alpha Chi Omega at dinner last night. Jay Ellenberger '41 was chairman.

Weaver '41 Leads Honor Coed List

Elinor L. Weaver was elected Bow Girl to lead the list of senior honor women chosen for Class Day exercises June 9 at a meeting of all second semester senior women last night.

Marjory A. Harwick was named Slipper Girl; Harriet Singer, Fan Girl; L. Eleanor Benfer, Class Donor; Jean C. Craighead, Mirror Girl; and Janet N. Holtzinger, Class Poet. More than 150 women met to reconsider voting for the six honor women following a petition circulated after last week's elections. A motion was made to rescind former action and was followed by a motion for re-elections.

Nominations were made for each office and qualifications of each nominee stated. Separate elections were held for each honor.
