

Hillel Head Here For Pilgrimage

Dr. Abram L. Sachar, famous writer and lecturer and national director of the Hillel Foundations, will be the guest of the Penn State Hillel Foundation at its annual Pilgrimage this weekend.

Dr. Sachar will open the Pilgrimage program by speaking at the Hillel services at 7:30 o'clock tonight on "The House That Israel Built." He will talk again on "The Present Scene and its Challenges" in 110 Electrical Engineering Building at 2:15 p. m. Saturday.

Formerly associate professor in European history at the University of Illinois, Dr. Sachar is the author of "History of the Jews," "Sufferance is the Badge," and many articles that have appeared in national publications. He is well-known to Penn State groups, having spoken at Schwab Auditorium in April, 1939, and at the Hillel Foundation in September, 1939.

Hillel Guest Speaker

Dr. Abram L. Sachar, above, will be the guest speaker at two of Hillel's functions this weekend in conjunction with its annual Pilgrimage.

Bucknell Coed Wins Contest Conducted For IF Ball Imports

"Wallflowers stay at home with their Phi Beta Kappa, but glamor girls never pass up Penn State's IF's with 'sorry but'".

That statement was good enough to win for Bucknell coed Miriam Mensch, the contest conducted for imports by the Interfraternity Ball committee. Miriam's entry was considered the best explanation by an import of "Why I want to come to Penn State for IF weekend."

In her letter she added that, "Our dances are sissy affairs compared to yours, even though Bucknell is considered a social college."

Many of the 53 entries received by IF Ball Chairman

George Parrish expressed their sentiments in verse. For example, Lucille Hartzel, a Gettysburg coed, penned—
I've strong inclinations
For State's fascinations
Bradley's rhythm hits the spot
A very nice escort means a lot
Love the great big campus there
Looking forward to the grand affair.

Helen Vittorini, a Penn Tri-Delt, wrote—
Interfraternity weekend at State
There's nothing in all the world so great
Each minute a thrill, I can't sit still Gentlemen, three cheers for State.

U.S., Foreign Newspapers Shown In Library Lobby

Newspapers which won recognition for typographical merit, and papers from foreign countries are being exhibited in the lobby of the Library, it was announced yesterday by Mrs. Sally S. Carey, chairman of the exhibits committee.

Exhibited the American Institute of Graphic Arts, the display contains the New York Times, given the F. Wayland Ayer award in 1940 for typographical merit. Honorable mention went to the Philadelphia Inquirer, the Christian Science Monitor, and the New York Herald Tribune.

An historical review from a handwritten Peking Gazette of the tenth century, a Renaissance news letter, news pamphlets, and present daily newspapers are shown.

Papers containing conflicting viewpoints of warring nations and other foreign countries are displayed. Countries included are China, France, Germany, Greece, New Zealand, Scotland, South Africa, Spain, and Sweden.

The Alpha Chi Omega sorority was entertained by the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity at dinner last night.
