Kappa Delta Rho

Welcomes Penn State's Guests

THE JEFFERSON DUO

PHI GAMMA DELTA

Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity was founded at Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pa., April 22, 1848. The Gamma Phi chapter at Penn State was established January 7, 1888 and was the first fraternity on the Penn State Campus. There are at present 73 chapters located throughout the United States and Canada.

At present there are 42 active members of Phi Gamma Delta at Penn State with William J. Dorworth '41, at the wheel. Since the installation of the Penn State chapter, over 500 members have been initiated with many 'greats' listed among them. From the Gamma Phi chapter and other chapters have come such men as, C. W. Heppenstal, Alf Lanoon, William Seabrook, Newton D. Baker, and Calvin Coolidge.

PHI KAPPA PSI

Phi Kappa Psi fraternity was founded at Jefferson College, located at Canonsburg, Pennsylvania, February 19, 1852. Growth and expansion produced a leading national social fraternity, and today Phi Kappa Psi has fifty-one chapters located in leading colleges throughout the country.

The Penn State chapter of Phi Kappa Psi was instituted October 12, 1912. Since its installation in 1912, Phi Psi has initiated almost 500 members and today is one of the strongest national fraternities at Penn State.

Noted Phi Psis include the late Woodrow Wilson, the late Justice Pierce Butler, James Thurber, Elliott Nugent, Frank Morgan, Buddy Rogers, Edward Everett Horton, "Wild Bill" Donovan, the late W. C. Sproul.

IF weekend will be cause for the annual celebration between Phi Gamma Delta and Phi Kappa Psi. The two fraternities were united in purpose when they were in the early stages of formation at Jefferson College, now known as Washington and Jefferson. From this college the name of the Jefferson Duo was taken and has held in the long history of both fraternities. The Jefferson Duo is similar to the Miami Triad, Beta Theta Pi, Phi Delta Theta and Sigma Chi. These organizations were formed when the fraternities were in infancy and have become a definite tradition in the histories of the various national fraternities. An informal dance will be held Saturday evening at the Phi Kappa Psi in celebration of the event. It will be open to all invited guests. No formal invitations will be sent out. Music will be furnished by the Campus Owls notably of Penn State and the usual bevy of beautiful imports will be present. Names are not included because of the fear of the well-known Penn State Wolves. Upon special request, perhaps one or two names will be given.
