

Krauser '42, ZTA, To Head Panhel; Rushing Revised

Jean A. Krauser '42, Zeta Tau Alpha, will automatically succeed Harriet Singer '41 as president of Panhellenic Council and Frances E. Haley '43, Theta Phi Alpha, will assume the vice presidency, council announced at its meeting last night. Anita M. Knecht '42 was elected secretary, Marjorie K. Chambers '43, treasurer, and Mrs. A. K. Anderson, national chairman of college Panhellenic associations, new advisor.

New officers will be installed at a Panhellenic banquet of old and new delegates and one advisor from each house tentatively scheduled for next week.

Returning to this year's plan for intensive rushing with only minor changes, the Rushing Committee presented a new draft for approval by each house after rejection of the between-semester provision. Under the new code, formal rushing will begin at noon, Wednesday, February 4, and extend to 9 p. m. Thursday, February 13 followed by formal dinners on Saturday and bidding on Sunday. Usual weekend silent period will be in effect.

Most important changes include restriction of free association during formal rushing to period from 1 to 9 p. m. daily, abolition of any big-little sister contacts outside the code limitations during formal rushing but sanctioning of unlimited association for such contacts during the first semester. Functions at which the sorority sisters of the big sister will be present in

Collegian Honor Roll Out Tomorrow

An eagerly awaited feature every year, because it presents its viewpoint impartially and honestly, the 1940-41 edition of the Collegian Honor Roll will appear with tomorrow's paper.

Included on tomorrow's honor roll are students, faculty, alumni and organizations which have made outstanding contributions "For a Better Penn State" in the past 12 months.

Don't miss it.

College Adopts Daylight Saving

"In accordance with the action of the Borough of State College, the College will operate on Daylight Saving Time beginning midnight Saturday, April 26."

This announcement from the Council on Administration yesterday officially places classes and campus offices on the same schedule as downtown establishments.

Coeds attending weekend socials will not be inconvenienced by the new time which will go into effect at midnight Saturday, Jean Babcock, WSGA president revealed last night. Daylight Saving Time will not rob them of a dating hour.

Recreation and sports programs will benefit from the new system and afternoon classes will find relief from late sultry hours.

Borough Council instituted Daylight Saving Time at a meeting Monday night and the College followed their lead. It is believed that this is the first regular session to go off the standard system although the saving schedule had previously been utilized for summer sessions.

Students Finish Defense Courses

Fifty-three students and Naval Reserve officers who will complete the College-sponsored defense courses in Diesel engineering and production engineering this week are to be awarded their certificates today and tomorrow, Harry P. Hammond, dean of the Engineering School, disclosed yesterday.

Beginning May 1, 25 additional Naval reserve officers will come to the College to take the repeat course in Diesel engineering. Upon completion of the course, the Reserves will be qualified to accept positions as officers on Diesel-operated naval vessels.

Seven of the thirty original enrollees in production engineering did not complete the course but dropped out to accept positions with industrial concerns. Definite word has not been received from Washington as to whether the production course will be repeated, Hammond said.

Saturday Noon Deadline For Senior Invitations

Council To Hold Election Of Officers On May 1

Approval of the Interfraternity Ball financial report and a revision of the rushing code to allow out of town chaperoned parties was proposed at last night's meeting of the Interfraternity Council held at the Sigma Pi fraternity.

Final action on the code will be taken up at the next meeting but the group approved the proposal to permit out of town rushing parties if proper application is made to the judiciary committee for permission and a capable chaperone is approved. The chaperones will be required to submit a written report to the committee after each party.

Receipts for the Interfraternity Ball were: 1,048 paid admissions, $2.60; checking, $340.50; and booth rental, $225 for a total of $3,185.50.

Expenditures for the ball were: Will Bradley's orchestra, $1,200; decorations, $400; programs, $211.94; advertising, $91.25; College, $106.90; catering, $43.50; college labor, $72.50; George Donovan, $20; telephone and telegram bills, $19.82; invitations, $12.63; flowers, $10; women's attendant, $5; miscellaneous, $13.98; and compensation, $150. The total expenditures were $2,307.52. The total profit realized from the dance was $727.98.

The Council also decided to hold nominations and elections of officers for the coming year on Thursday, May 1, and President H. Edward Wagner appointed Robert B. Gamin '43, (chairman), Lloyd A. Dixon '42, Robert W. Hildenbrand '42, Arthur H. Shapiro '42, and Charles F. Bowman '42 to the nominating committee.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to clarify provisions of the mixed drinking code reported that penalties will be inflicted in accordance to the seriousness of their offense. Fraternities breaking the code may punish the offenders in their own houses and report the action taken to the IFC president before the charge is brought before the judiciary committee. Affairs chaperoned through registration at Dean Charlotte E. Ray's office were decided not to be considered under the jurisdiction of the IFC code.

Music, Dancing Will Supplement Circus Acts Saturday Night

When the expected 5,000 spectators crowd Recreation Hall at 8 o'clock Saturday night to see "Penn State on Parade" they will witness not only the usual circus acts but also a finer type of entertainment.

A soft background of music supplied by the string ensemble, singing and dancing will supplement the usual circus brand of entertainment such as the brass band, clowns and exhibition of athletic prowess and comedy. In the latter department, many of the displays parallel the skill and ability of the professional circus performances.

Of particular interest to the spectators will be the equipment, which is almost as varied as that of a large circus. Included is a huge, specially constructed "cradle" hanging from the 50-foot rafters of Rec Hall used to support the aerial apparatus.

As in previous years, one of the features of the circus will be a visiting act. This year, Bob Hoffman and his world champion weight lifters from York will entertain the crowd with a 15 minute display of some of the best weight lifting ever witnessed. In this group are such renowned performers as Tony Terlazzo, Olympic champion in 1936, Steve Stanko, national heavy-weight title holder, and John Grimak, acclaimed the world's best-built man in the 1940 contest. Grimak will be seen in his specialty, "muscle control."

Late News Flashes

NEW YORK — The CIO and the United Mine Workers have agreed to President Roosevelt's request that they end their 23-day mine strike. The 250,000 Northern miners have already agreed to return to work and the Southern miners were expected to answer later last night.

WASHINGTON—Frank Knox, secretary of the Navy, has announced that 20 of the Navy's small torpedo boats are ready to be sent to the British government under the terms of the Lease-Lend Bill. A building campaign in cooperation with the Canadian government is being planned to provide more of these fast boats.

STOCKHOLM — Nazi counter espionage agents uncovered a plot by Norwegians to blow up German naval supply bases here.

LONDON — United Press sources state that the people and the newspapers here are disgruntled over the British setbacks in Greece. They are demanding an explanation from the government.

"Is Your Faculty Worth Knowing" was the subject of Dr. Roy D. Anthony, professor of pomology, at a coffee hour in northwest lounge of Atherton Hall last night.

Waring Singers In Thespian Show

Junior Prom weekend repeat performances of the Thespians' spring show, "The Joint's Jumpin'", will be featured by the personal appearance of ex-Penn Stater Fred Waring's "Swingerettes," Donna Dae and Patsy Garrett, who broadcast nightly on Waring's Pleasuretime program.

The girls have been written into the show and will appear in song and dance numbers in both the Friday and Saturday evening performances.

As guests of the Thespians, the Swingerettes will attend Junior Prom and other college weekend activities. They will stay in Atherton Hall with Thespians' own "Singerettes."

Donna Dae visited the campus with Waring last spring and sang in Thespians' "Danger, Men At Work!" She and Patsy Garrett sing together on many of Waring's featured vocal numbers over the airways.
