

Between The Lions

WITH DICK PETERS

Third Time, Not Out

There is the circus adage concerning the sucker who is born every minute. And tomorrow night the "circus" comes to Penn State, but if we're not a country mile off, there won't be any suckers in the audience at Rec Hall tomorrow eve.

With two performances in as many years under its belt, Penn State's All-College circus, is no longer an experiment or a facsimile thereof. It is a real honest-to-goodness, double-barrelled circus, although minus the elephants and bareback riders.

The Big Show, a brain-baby of Gym Coach Gene Wettstone's way back in 1939, was at first built around the gymnastics squad. Now, though the gym boys all take part in it, the Circus baby has grown to a giant taking in nearly 200 actual participants, plus innumerable backstage helpers.

So here's a suggestion that you stock up on peanuts, a bottle of pink lemonade, and take in the third and biggest of the All-College Circuses tomorrow night.

In 1937, Frank Smith shut out the Juniata baseball nine by allowing only one hit and piling up a total of nine strike-outs.

Glenn And Ewell Favored To Place As 18 Lions Enter Penn Relay Games

Net Team Faces Lehigh Today

When the Engineers from Lehigh take to the varsity courts to face the Nittany netmen at 4 this afternoon it will be with a string of 16 consecutive wins to their credit.

Led by No. 1 man, Joe Kantowitz, Lehigh's latest victory was won, 5-4, at the expense of Muhlenberg, which for the second season had its unblemished record marred by the Engineers.

In an attempt to annex the Lion's first victory Coach Ted Roethke may juggle the State line-up drastically. The following men will handle the singles' assignments but their order is not definite: Captain Mac Weinstein, Del Hughes, Chuck Bowman, John Knode, Don Parker and Bill Lundelius.

The doubles combines will be Weinstein and Hughes, Bowman and Davis, and Parker and Lundelius. Last year the Lion's match with Lehigh was rained out.

Intramurals

BADMINTON

Intramural badminton singles got under way this week with 120 fraternity and 14 independent entries, according to co-managers Pop Thiel and Mike Garbinski. Results of this week's first round play for which scores were not recorded follow:

Alberto Roque, Alpha Zeta, defeated Jim McCaughey, Delta Chi; Don Lamond, Phi Gam, defeated Bill McCord, AGR; Bill Smaltz, Sigma Nu, defeated Aaron Rabin, Gamma Sig; Hen eagley, Phi Delta Theta, defeated Willard Kintz, Phi Sig Kappa; Harry Oyler, SPE, defeated Herm Goffberg, Phi Sig Delta; Jim Jackson, Betas, defeated Bob DeCoudres, Kappa Sig, Tom Zumbro, ATO, defeated Harry Korb, Alpha Zeta; Ralph D'Iorio, Sigma Pi, defeated Bill Christman, DTD; and Harry Keene, Sigma Pi, defeated Ed McKean, Phi Gam.

In 1935, the Penn State baseball nine defeated Navy by a score of 4-2 while only securing two hits.

2-Mile Squad Expected To Rate Among Best

Johnny Glenn, sophomore high jumper, and sprint star Barney Ewell are the two Penn State tracksters most likely to place in the 47th annual Penn Relay Carnival, to be held at Franklin Field, Philadelphia, today and tomorrow, according to Lion mentor Chick Werner.

"Glenn is a hard worker and is improving steadily," Werner remarked yesterday. In high school he cleared 6' 1"; as a college freshman he was marked at 6' 3 1/2".

Ewell NCAA 100 and 220 yard champ, who will run tomorrow in the special invitation 100 yard dash, will be pitted against the cream of the nation's sprinters, and will probably find his biggest obstacle in the form of Welby Williams of North Texas Teachers' College.

Pessimistic about his sprint relay teams, Werner hinted that the Lion two-mile relay squad should show up well, at least against eastern competition. The thinclads making up this foursome are Max Peters, Pat Kjellman, Norm Gordon, and Jim Williams.

Don Dolbin, sophomore sprinter who injured his ankle last weekend, is still a questionable starter in the 440 and 880 yard relays to be held today. If he does not run, the sprint relay quartet will be Captain Van Hartment, Barney Plesser, Al Price, and Ewell.

Herm Goffberg and Alex Bourgerie have little chance of placing in the two-mile run according to Werner, and facing equally tough competition will be the Nittany entries in the field events scheduled for both today and tomorrow.

Throwing the javelin for Penn State will be Quent Dietrick, a field eventer whom Werner expects to approach Nick Vukmanic's skill before he graduates. In the pole vault, Joe Bakura, who has been hitting 13 feet this spring and Scott Moffat will be the Lion entries.

4 Fraternities Qualify For Circus Group Acts

Four fraternities have qualified as finalists for the interfraternity group acts to be held as a part of the All-College Circus tomorrow night. The winning house will be awarded a handsome cup.

The qualifiers are Beta Sigma Rho, Lambda Chi Alpha, Delta Sigma Phi, and Sigma Nu.
