Helme To Judge York Sculpture

J. Burne Helme, in charge of the division of fine arts, has been named chairman of an advisory jury to select a sculpture decoration for the York Post Office.

Professor Helme will head a jury of three which also includes Francis E. Hyslop, Jr., instructor in fine arts, and Wharton Esherick, a sculptor from Paoli. The committee was selected by the section of fine arts, Public Buildings Administration of the Federal Works Agency.

Sculptors residing in Pennsylvania and eight other eastern seaboard states will compete for two awards of $2,100 each. Plaster models must be submitted to Professor Helme on or before August 4. The finished sculptures are to be executed in bronze and will be placed on either side of the postmaster's door in York.

All competing sculptors have been urged to visit the building and to study the locality so that the sculpture may be related to the building in design and to the life of the vicinity, either past or present, in subject matter.

CHORUS OF THE Band and Orchestra School will be in charge of Prof. Richard W. Grant, above, head of the department of music. Dr. George Sallade Howard will direct the band and Prof. Hummel Fishburn will have charge of the orchestra.

Have A Good Time And Get College Credit

Summer session students will be able to pursue their hobbies this summer—and get college credit for doing it.

For the first time, those at the main summer session which begins tomorrow, may enroll for a course in hobby craftwork and spend six weeks learning how to do everything from simple basket weaving and leather work to toy making, modeling and carving in wood or copper. The work will be under the direction of Stanley J. Pawelek, supervisor of industrial education in the Baltimore city public school.
