

Frosh To Choose Dorm Officers

All freshman women living in dormitories will meet in hall groups at 9 p. m. Monday to nominate hall and dormitory officers. Elections will be Monday, October 6.

Freshman Council will be composed of newly elected hall presidents. Former hall presidents will return to units to supervise nominations and elections of president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer.

Dorothy L. Jones, sophomore senator in charge of freshman elections, said, "Nominees must be good leaders, of pleasing personality, and able to maintain a 1.5 scholastic average."

Transfers To Learn WSGA, WRA Functions

To acquaint transfers with WSGA and WRA organizations, a compulsory mass meeting will be sponsored by WSGA House of Representatives in Schwab Auditorium at 11 a. m. tomorrow, reported Margaret K. Sherman '43, WSGA vice-president in charge of transfer orientation.

Jean Babcock '42, WSGA president; Betty L. Zeigler '42, WRA president; and Jeanne C. Stiles '42, Judicial chairman, will be introduced by Anna Lee Carey '42.

Two Freshman Mixers Planned For Weekend

Two groups of 100 freshman women will attend mixers this weekend, with future parties scheduled for those not yet invited.

Special 10:30 permissions will be granted to coeds attending the Penn State Club mixer in the Armory this evening, if they present written invitations to their checker.

Another group will be entertained in the Armory from 7 to 9 p. m. tomorrow night by Philotes, independent women's organization; Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary; and Druids, sophomore men's honorary.

Men may walk women home.

150 Expected To Attend PSCA-WRA Cabin Party

One hundred and fifty freshman women are expected to attend the joint PSCA-WRA Cabin Party, leaving the Home Economics Building at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow. Freshman may still sign up on McAllister Hall bulletin board or at the PSCA office.

With the exception of 15 freshmen are already planning to stay overnight, the group will hike out and return by car at 5:15 p. m. Those staying out will have bicycles.

Included on the program are folk-dancing, introduction of women board members, brief speeches by Miss Ione Spykes, Secretary of Student Religious Workers Council, Sarah P. Searle '42, PSCA co-chairman and Harriet G. Van Ripper '44, former freshman forum president.

For the coeds remaining there will be skits, songs and refreshments Saturday night.

Coeds Arrange Tables

WSGA Senate has named three women to aid hostesses in arranging dining room seating charts. The committee members are Sara M. Bailey '43, Atherton east; Nancy J. Zartman '43, Atherton west; and Hazel E. Gassman '43, for McAllister Hall. Upperclass women will be permitted to plan their tables.

We, The Women Hints About Pop-In Night

When upperclasswomen pop-in on freshmen Sunday night, it will be to carry on a tradition as ivy-clad as Mac Hall's walls. It is a tradition Penn State women welcome every year because it helps them become acquainted with each other.

To help make it more successful, we suggest that upperclass women as well as freshmen wear name cards.

Because only 190 of the entire freshman class is living on campus, we urge that equal attention be given town dorms which house both freshmen and transfers. Remember they want to become acquainted with upperclassmen too.

And a last request. Pop-in night is for both sorority and non-Greeks. So we hope to see all upperclassmen visiting as many freshman rooms and dorms as possible between 8:30 and 9:30 p. m. Sunday.

Ed Honorary Names Committee Chairmen

At the first meeting of Pi Lambda Theta, women's national educational honorary, in the Hugh Beaver Room at 7 p. m. last night President R. Helen Gordon '42 named committee chairmen for the year.

Appointed were Marge King '42, program and projects; E. Louise Ashburn '42, constitutional committee; Ruth J. Plessett '42, membership; and executive committee composed of the officers.

NO SLIDE RULES FOR SALE!

The slide rule you would ordinarily buy this term has been drafted for National Defense. Sorry, it can't be helped. Although we have increased our production tremendously the Defense Program still absorbs more rules than we can make right now. But we are still increasing production. Within four months, your slide rule will be ready for you...

but we'll lend you one!

Meanwhile, we have found a way out. To meet this temporary emergency we have made a quantity of mass production slide rules that will tide you over until your standard rules are ready. These rules are not for sale. We will lend you one upon the deposit of One Dollar... and give you a full trade-in allowance when your standard rule is ready. No charge for wear and tear. Use this special rule with our compliments as long as the emergency lasts! Your campus bookstore has K&E "loaned-on-deposit" slide rules in stock for immediate delivery.
