

Sorority Splurge Seen For Home-Coming Alums

Guests To Be Honored At Teas, Breakfasts

The weekend splurge is on; sororities have hauled out the fatted calf and prepared a multitude of diversions for alumnae.

The annual breakfast for Theta Phi Alpha alumnae will be held at the house from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m. tomorrow.

Delta Gamma will honor alumnae at a reunion breakfast at the house at 9 a. m. tomorrow, while Kappa Alpha Theta will give a buffet breakfast from 9:15 to 10:15 a. m.

At the Allencrest Tea Room, Alpha Chi Omega will breakfast alumnae at 9 a. m. tomorrow.

Alpha Omicron Pi will hold an alumnae breakfast at the house at 9 o'clock tomorrow.

Southeast lounge of Atherton Hall will be the scene of a coffee hour given by Charitides from 6:45 to 7:45 o'clock today.

Home coming alumnae will be entertained at the Gamma Phi Beta suite, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phi Mu, and the Chi Omega houses after the Bucknell-State game today. Erranon will also entertain following the game.

Nittany Co-op alumnae will be feted at a banquet at the house tonight. A dance will follow.

Alpha Lambda Delta Issues 127 Invitations

Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholastic honorary, invited 115 freshman women and 12 honorary members to a Coffee Hour in Atherton northwest lounge at 7 p. m. Monday.

Robert E. Galbraith, associate professor of English composition, will speak. The purpose of the meeting is to acquaint freshmen with membership requirements and stress scholarship importance. Mores will act as hostesses. Committees announced by Florence I. Jaffy, president, include Kathryn M. Youroski, speaker; Dorothy B. Foehr and Marion J. Reynolds, invitations; Dorothy K. Brunner and Ann Sheffield, refreshments; Edith D. Dengler, Esthermae Harts and E. Elizabeth Pielemeier, service; Betty W. Story and Phyllis R. Watkins, membership.

PSCA To Sponsor International Tea And Hobby Show

The International Tea and Hobby Show, sponsored by the Christian Association, will be held in 304 Old Main at 3 p. m. Sunday.

In charge of arrangements are Christine R. Grant '43, general chairman; M. Elizabeth Howe '42, and Kathryn T. Clark '44, refreshments; M. Edythe Moore '43, decorations and exhibits; Frances G. Reist '42, hostess committee and Jean E. Hershberger '43, music.

Entertainment will be provided by students from foreign nations. Under the direction of Alberto V. Roque '43, seven South American students will sing South American folks songs. A. Enrique Sanz '44 will accompany the group on the guitar.

Hobbies will be exhibited by Martha Gostonyi '45, Hungary; and Peter Denos '44, Hungary and England. Cora C. Bierbrauer '43 will show pictures of Switzerland and Andrew P. Szekely '43, Hungary, will play piano selections. Shuk Yee Chan, graduate student, will pour.

Music Club To Meet

A program of American contemporary music will be given by the Louise Homer Club at its first meeting in the southeast lounge of Atherton Hall at 7 p. m. Wednesday, Ann M. Civitts '42, president, announced.

TPA Wins Award

At the national Theta Phi Alpha convention held here last summer, the local chapter received the national cooperative award.

Mrs. Joseph O'Brien, advisor, was elected first national vice-president.

WOMEN IN SPORTS

Mud Doesn't Count

Ignoring wind and rain, 17 sophomores and juniors chased an elusive hockey ball through mud on Holmes Field yesterday. Despite their determination, it was necessary to call the game and players took refuge on the Theta porch. Juniors are chagrined because their one goal will not count when the game is replayed on Monday.

To show new members proper shooting positions and skills, three Rifle Club members shot a demonstration match Thursday night. Participating were seniors Martha Powers, president, Betty Bertollette and Barbara Torrence. Practice periods for beginners will soon be scheduled with Miss Haidt and veterans instructing.

All coeds are eligible to participate in the All-College archery tournament beginning at 4 p. m., Thursday, announced Jo Belgan '42, president. Those interested may sign in White Hall locker room or in the archery equipment room until Wednesday night.

Thirty-eight women are scheduled to complete first round in the single eliminations of the All-College tennis tournament by Monday. Ruth Moore '43, Tennis Club president, is director.

Bowling, swimming, ping pong, badminton, bridge and refreshments are features of White Hall's second Saturday open house from 7 to 9:30 p. m. tonight, with Golf Club members as hostesses. Marge King '42, club president, is general chairman assisted by Grace Judge '44, WRA Board representative, and Miss Haidt, faculty representative.

Drydock Opening Delayed Until January

Drydock, student soft drink night club, will not open until sometime in January, George L. Donovan, manager of Student Union, announced yesterday.

He said that an attempt will be made to hire a five-piece orchestra to take the place of the "juke box" which was used last year. The reason given for the delayed opening of the club was that an earlier opening would interfere with other activities.

Mr. Donovan said that the opening date will be either January 10 or 17, depending upon what other activities are scheduled for those dates.

Most '44 Initiated

Florence A. Most '44, was initiated into Emanon, local sorority, Sunday.

Libraries Installed In Women's Dorms

Libraries have been installed in the lounges of all women's dormitories, Katharine M. Stokes, head of Reader's Service at the Central Library, announced yesterday.

Books are chosen by a Dormitory Library Committee headed by M. Olga McCarthy '42. Each of the dormitories is represented. Committee members are Grange, Ann J. Halberstadt '43, Barbara J. Cooper '44; Atherton west, Helen A. Jagnesak '43, Ilse M. Springer '43; Atherton east, Cheryl Charlson '43, Florence P. Campanell '43; McAllister Hall, Patricia Diener '45, Nora E. Thompson '45; Women's Building, D. Jane Cromis '45, Gloria G. Green '45.

Suggestion boxes are being supplied in each lounge to aid in selecting more books. A record is made of all books taken from the library.

HE Council Meets

The Home Economics Council held its first meeting Thursday with Janet L. Eyer '42, presiding. Marjorie R. Chambers '43, Clara E. House '43, and Kathryn R. Brong '44, were appointed to aid in selecting freshman delegates to the council.

Free Association To Last 5 Days

Free association with freshman and transfer women will continue until noon Wednesday, with the first open house scheduled from 4 to 5 p. m. Monday, Jean A. Krauser '42, Panhellenic president, stated last night.

Limited association will begin at noon Wednesday and continue through the open house period. During this time sorority women may not visit freshmen or transfers in their rooms or have them at their houses and suites. Dates on a "dutch treat" basis will continue.

Dates for other open houses are Tuesday, October 28 and Thursday, November 13. Personal invitations will not be extended to open houses, but freshmen and transfers may visit as many as possible for periods not exceeding 30 minutes at each house.

Coop Elects Officers

Nittany Co-op officers elected Tuesday are president, Mabel Satterthwaite '44; vice-president, Martha V. Gregory '44; and fire chief, Melba E. Dixon '44.

Sorority Sages Predict Dismal Fate For Bucknell Bison

"Cagey, aren't we?" snicker the confident Alpha Chi Omegas—confident that the Nittany Lion will smear the Bucknell Bison all over Beaver Field this afternoon.

A bedraggled and hopelessly crippled Bucknell man supporting his broken form against the bars of a cage, while the Nittany Lion sits smugly on the outside is the Alpha Chi Omega alumnae decoration.

A complete Bucknell washout is predicted by the Alpha Omicron Pis. Bucknell jerseys hanging on a clothesline with washtub nearby is the AOP's idea of a snappy alumnae display.

Chi Omega contributes a happy Lion perched on a V for victory as their alumnae exhibit.

Delta Gamma has opened a "Bisonburger Stand" to get rid of Bucknell's remains after tomorrow's fray. Signs such as "Come and get your bisonburger while they're hot" or "Boy, buy your babe a bisonburger" are used to lure the public. A bison roasting a lar barbecue is another drawing device of the Delta Gamma display.

To the tune of "Chattanooga

Cho Cho," playing from a hidden record, a "Statenoga Cho Cho" is doing a finishing job on the Bucknell Bison in front of the Gamma Phi Beta suite. The Nittany Lion engineer merely grins.

A battered jalopy with badly bruised Bucknell players hanging out the windows and having just felt the impact of the Nittany Lion, is the Kappa Alpha Theta display. "A wreck, by heck," laughs the Nittany Lion, cause of the accident.

"Clear track ahead," shouts the Kappa Kappa Gamma display sign. Behind is a coach for each team which Penn State will meet this year keeping in time to "Chattanooga Cho Cho" played from a "juke box."

"This is no bull; it's victory for State," foretell the Phi Mu's exhibit. A cow with a daisy-figured apron and red fingernails stands next to a V for victory sign.

Theta Phi Alpha has Penn State personified as a scarecrow standing in a cornfield. On his shoulder is a crow representing Colgate. The teams yet to meet State are represented as crows flying away.
