

X-Country Coach 'Surprised' By Manhattan Win

"The boys certainly surprised me," was just about all Cross-Country Coach Chick Werner could say in regard to his harriers' victory over a powerful Manhattan contingent on Saturday.

The upset was the second victory over the Kelly Greens in six meetings. It was also the first win posted by a Penn State cross-country team in two years.

The 23-32 victory, one of the most unexpected in the annals of Penn State cross-country history, came when no less than four Nittany runners finished behind Ed O'Toole, Manhattan's sophomore flash.

The quartet of Penn Staters, Norm Gordon, Curt Stone, Herm Goffberg, and Captain Alex Bourgerie, all finished in under 28 minutes. The fifth Blue and White Harrier to reach the finish line, Mac Smith, placed ninth in the meet.

The summaries:
O'Toole, (M) first, 27:35; Gordon, (S) second, 27:39; Stone, (S) third, 27:51; Goffberg, (S) fourth 27:54; Bourgerie, (S) fifth, 27:58; Casey, (M) sixth, 28:02; Barnett, (M) seventh, 28:07; Walsh, (M) eighth, 28:09; Smith, (S) ninth, 28:43; Tierhan (M) tenth, 28:54.

Alston Brothers Star For Lions

Behind the brilliant passing and running of Dave and Harry Alston, Negro brothers, the Lion yearling eleven romped to a 19-0 triumph over the first-year men from Bucknell on New Beaver Field Saturday.

Midway in the second quarter Dave Alston broke away from several tacklers to carry the ball 18 yards for a score. He added the extra point a moment later with a drop kick. Near the opening of the third quarter Dave Alston snakehipped his way inside right tackle for 20 yards and the second Lion club score. His drop kick narrowly missed adding an extra point.

The Alston-to-Alston combination took charge a few minutes later. Dave faded to his 40-yard line and tossed a pass to his brother Harry on Bucknell's 10-yard line. Harry faked two men out of position and crossed the goal untouched. The extra point was missed.

Aerial Defense Bothers Lions For Temple Game

Jaffurs On Sidelines With Shoulder Injury

Aerial defense will occupy the serious attention of the Nittany Lions as they prepare to face a powerful, undefeated Temple Owl eleven at Temple Stadium on Saturday.

Though the Lions fought back and subdued Bucknell, 27-13, last Saturday, Coach Bob Higgins found that the Nittany eleven was woefully weak on aerial defense.

"Bucknell would never have put those two touchdowns over, if our defense had been functioning properly. Our team was caught off guard completely. More alert football will have to be played against Temple if we expect to get anywhere," Coach Higgins said.

Temple's big gun in the backfield is Andy Tomasic who has been acclaimed a sure-fire All-American. In Temple's 17-7 defeat of Georgetown, the talented Tomasic played 59 minutes of the game and ran wild as usual. Tomasic's passes will require an air-tight defense for the Lions.

It was Penn State's line which turned in a surprising performance on Saturday. Some of its inexperience has worn off as shown by the tight goal defense when the Bisons had four downs to score from the two-yard line.

John Jaffurs, guard, sustained the only lasting injury in the Bucknell game. An examination revealed a shoulder separation. He will probably be out of the Temple tilt. Bob Davis, end, again injured his bruised shoulder, but it is not known whether he will enter the Temple fray. Jim Bonham, guard who entered the Bucknell game with a disjuncted finger, must wear bandages for a few days. However, he will be ready for Saturday's game.

Bernie Brosky, tackle, returned to practice session yesterday with his injured knee greatly improved. His service will relieve the serious tackle shortage.

Those players who stood out for their play against Bucknell were Mike Kerns, tackle; John Poskian, end; Bill Smaltz, fullback Paul Weaver, quarterback; Bob Wear, center; and Will Van Lenten, end.

Seeded Golfers Lose In All-College Tourney

Jim Kramer, first seeded player in the All-College Golf Tournament, was defeated by Bob Wallace 4 and 3 in the quarter-final round on Sunday, and Don Hart, seeded number four, was upset by Allen Hack 5 and 3 in first round play.

In the second flight Bob Swingie pulled another upset when he downed first seeded Bob Watson 4 and 3. Quarter final pairings in the second flight are Playford Boyle vs. Ralph D'Iorio; H. Snowden vs. Roy Allen; and Jack Dorrance vs. Dave Robertson.

The Dick Hastings-Jim Noble is the only remaining match to be played in the first round of the first flight.

Soccermen Whip Red Raiders 1-0

Although they failed to capitalize on numerous scoring opportunities, the Nittany Lion booters played an impressive brand of soccer to defeat Colgate, 1-0, at Hamilton Saturday and extend their winning streak to 63 games.

Sophomore Smiley Williams came in from his outside right position to score the only goal midway in the first period after Captain Woody King's kick had been deflected to him by a Red Raider fullback.

The smoothly-passing Lions, continually in scoring territory, were kept from rolling up a lopsided victory by a strong wind and too-deliberate goal-kicking by their forwards.

The aggressive play and beautiful passing of Sammy Schnure, playing his first varsity game at left halfback, drew warm praise from Coach Bill Jeffrey. "Schnure was easily the most outstanding player on the field," the Lion mentor said.

Tough luck dogged the scoring attempts of Ned Corman, inside left. Two of his goal-bound kicks struck the crossbar and one bounded off an upright.

Riding Club Meets Tonight At 7 O'clock

Definite hours for riding instruction will be decided on tonight when the Riding Club meets at the Stock Judging Pavilion at 7 p. m.

Students and faculty members interested in the club should pay the riding fee sometime this week at Student Union.

Wrestlers Begin Today

Candidates for the varsity and freshman wrestling squads will begin practice on the Rec Hall mats at 4 p. m. today, Glen Alexander, varsity wrestling captain, announced yesterday.

Galbraith Picks Swim Candidates For Workouts

After an extensive tryout program planned and given by Coach Bob Galbraith with the help of Captain Elmer Webb and the remainder of last year's team, at the Glennland Swimming Pool last week, picked candidates reported yesterday for the first of a series of workouts at Rec Hall.

The new candidates with "Gal" and the team went through muscle conditioning exercises, consisting of running, stretching, and calesthenics designed to tone up the body and muscles in preparation for the season's launching in about a month.

When the squad first enters the water this year further tryouts will be held and a period of training will follow in which the final cutting and shaping will take place.

Although no definite word about the schedule has been let out, confidence has been expressed by the coach and from all appearances of the new candidates he is more confident that the team may come out on the long end this year.
