

Coeds Given Chance To Pick and Choose Men

It's not leap year gals, but here's a chance to date your man-of-the-hour.

An evening of dancing to the Nittany Lions' syncopations amid medieval decorations will be yours at the Cwen dance in White Hall from 9 p. m. to midnight Friday.

It's an annual tradition for coeds to ask dates to the first formal of the year given by the sophomore women's honorary.

Tickets at a $1.10 per couple are now available at Student Union or from any Cwen.

Last year 300 coeds escorted men to the dance. Proceeds went toward three fifty dollar scholarships for sophomore women presented at the annual WSGA Christmas dinner in McAllister Hall.

Party For Newcomers

A party for newcomers in Ather-ton Hall's northwest unit will be given in the lounge from 9 to 9:30 p. m. tomorrow. Jean F. Fisher '43 is general chairman and Helen A. Jagneak '42 in charge refreshments.

Miss Abby Burgess is the thirty-first member of her family to attend Brown university. Her father is a faculty member.

WOMEN IN SPORTS

Junior hockey players continued their winning streak by defeating freshmen, 6-2, yesterday. Scoring for the winners were Sis Fitting, 4 goals; Jimmie Irwin, 1; and Polly Rugh, 1. Frosh Betty Robison scored twice.

'Mim' Will Sing For Her Supper

"I'm thrilled about all these opportunities." That's Miriam L. Rhein's attitude.

Today "Mim" will leave for Philadelphia to sing before the General Electric national convention banquet at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel tonight. Her selections will probably include "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes" and "Jim."

According to her contract signed early in the fall, Mim must appear any time that General Electric requests, provided it doesn't interfere with her studies.

For this trip she has received fifteen dollars spending money plus expenses for herself and chaperon, Mrs. Robert G. Bernreuter. They will return tomorrow.

Mim's personal appearances are just beginning. She plans to go to Chicago during Christmas vacation where she will sing with Del Courtney's orchestra, and on another fifteen minute program.

Club To Hear Gardner

"Arrangements for Winter Bouquets" will be the topic of Miss Amy G. Gardner, associate professor of home economics, when she speaks to the State College Women's Club at 8 o'clock tonight.
