

Hetzel Instigates Civilian Defense Unit For Campus

Taking measures for the civilian protection of the faculty and student body, President Ralph D. Hetzel last night advised Dr. J. F. Shigley, chairman of the State College Borough Council of Defense, that the College wishes to establish a campus defense division.

This action is in cooperation with a request from Dr. A. C. Marts, executive director of the State Council of Defense, and is associated with the national program of civilian defense directed by Fiorello La Guardia.

The petition, in addition to requesting the formation of the Penn State College Division under the local defense council, nominates members for the executive committee of such a campus unit.

Representatives of the faculty and staff nominated by President Hetzel are Dean of Men A. R. Warnock, chairman; E. K. Hibshman, secretary of the Alumni Association; Col. E. D. Ardery, head of the department of military science and tactics; Carl P. Schott, dean of the School of Physical Education and Athletics; Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women; J. E. Kaulfuss, professor of highway engineering; Laura W. Drummond, director of home economics; George W. Ebert, superintendent of grounds and buildings; and Harold W. Loman, purchasing agent.

Students recommended to serve on the executive committee are Robert D. Baird '42, All-College president; Gerald P. Doherty '43.

Cast Of 71 Used In Thespian Show

Skits and musical numbers for "What's Coming Off?", Thespians' fall revue to be presented on November 7 and 8, are being polished into production form in nightly rehearsals in Schwab Auditorium and the Little Theatre.

Employing a cast of 71 students, the show promises to be one of the most varied and fast moving productions ever presented by the musical comedy group.

Different dancing lines will be used in the three chorus numbers, announced as a tap version of "Why Don't We Do This More Often," a novel football arrangement, and a new routine using Jimmy Leyden's "Hot Dog Man" music.

The 27-voice glee club will be featured in a college football medley and a Boogie Woogie Bolero, with Lynn Wolf '43, dancing, Jimmy Smith '43 and Anna Rockenstein '43 and Bud Melott '44 will carry the lead dancing parts.

Specialties by Miriam Rhein '43, Marge Stringer, Leon Rabinowitz '43, Mike Kerns '43, Pepper Petrella '42, and a trio of Janet Hartz '42, Ruth Shanes '44, and Helen Schmeltz '44 will fill in the other comedy and variety spots.

Riding Club Announces Classification Tests

Riding Club classification tests will be given to members who have completed five weeks of preliminary training at Riding Club stables at 2 p. m. Saturday and 9 a. m. Sunday.

Members of sections A and B will be given outside riding privileges while those in class C may ride outside under supervision. Class D members will continue regular instruction.

Late Registrations Make La Vie Appointments

All seniors who registered late should contact Joseph T. Reichwein '42, La Vie editor, at 315 Old Main at 4 p. m. any afternoon except Friday to make picture appointments.

When having their pictures taken, all girls should wear plain beige sweaters. A limited number of sweaters will be available at the photo shop for girls who do not own the correct type of sweater, Reichwein said.

30 Freshmen Win Scholarships

Thirty freshmen who lived on Pennsylvania farms last year, have just been awarded $100 scholarships, according to Dean S. W. Fletcher of the School of Agriculture.

Dean Fletcher also announced that Donald C. Carlton '44 has been awarded a $200 scholarship. This award is given annually to the outstanding sophomore among the group who received freshman scholarships during the previous year.

The 30 freshman winners include Donald L. Ace, Edward S. Barben, Eugene J. Barrett, Dewey K. Brumbaugh, Merle S. Bryan, Carl R. Cotton, Thomas F. Crawford, Howard Hunter Cox, Earl S. Fox, John D. Heckert.

William J. Heinbaugh, Frederick A. Hughes, Fred W. Jaeger, Clinton H. Leet, Joseph A. McCurdy, Jensen M. Mingle, Frank L. Morgan, Earl C. Musser, George W. Myers, Joseph A. Parks.

False Teeth Returned To Student Union

If you lost your false teeth in the excitement of last week's football game, or while sipping a coke downtown, you can get them at Student Union. Some person, who had no use for them, returned them to the lost and found department.

Eighty dollars was returned to its owner after Mona Shibli '44 handed it to Student Union. Other articles returned to their owners during October include 61 books, 11 pens, 17 notebooks, 14 coats, 17 pocketbooks, and 13 hats.

During October, 190 articles valued at $684.54 were returned to their owners through the lost and found department.

Liberal Arts Has Important Part In Defense Program, Wagner Says

Liberal artists, don't despair! Yours is not a useless course in regard to the present national emergency, according to Charles C. Wagner, assistant dean of the School of Liberal Arts. Too many students have the idea that technical subjects are the only important ones, financial and otherwise, and are overlooking the part played by the liberal artist in defense, Wagner added.

There are many positions open, both in civilian life and in the army, where the liberal artist will be very much in demand Wagner said. In the army there is the Quartermaster Corps, Public Relations and Finances, and the publicity department. Wagner then pointed out the large number of Civil Service positions now open

Nittany Lion Eleven Slightly Favored Over NYU In Night Gridiron Contest

'45 Elections Date Set For Dec. 10

Freshman elections will be held in the first floor lounge of Old Main from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. on Wednesday, December 10, if All-College Cabinet approves the date, Jerome H. Blakesless '43, chairman of the Freshman Elections Committee announced last night.

Other dates to be submitted for Cabinet's approval include the deadline for candidate's petitions at 5 p. m. Monday, November 1, and the election mass meeting which will open the week's campaign scheduled for Tuesday evening, November 2.

Petitions must be signed by at least 75 men voters and 25 women voters, the elections committee stressed in clarifying article four of the election code. Article Seven of the frosh code was so changed that a member of each party may sit inside the polls and make lists of those freshmen voting.

Another new clause that will be submitted to Cabinet states that penalties for code violations will be at the discretion of the committee with a 50 vote penalty being the maximum. Last year's code set a penalty of 20 votes for all violations. To be eligible as a candidate, a freshman must have received no below grades at the end of the eight week's period.

Campaign expenses and the use of cars to solicit voters is forbidden, Blakesless pointed out. The All-College Cabinet through the elections committee will supply posters containing the party platform and pictures of the major candidates.

The Freshman Elections Committee will meet with the chairmen of both the Campus and Independent parties in 305 Old Main at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, Blakesless announced. At this time the complete code and list of violations will be explained to the clique leaders.

Neyhart To Conduct Traffic Safety Study

A study of traffic and pedestrian conditions at Wyomissing by Amos E. Neyhart, administrative head of the Penn State Institute of Public Safety, will be held during the daylight hours of Monday.

Neyhart plans to present, as a result of the study, proposals to the citizens of Wyomissing on how to better traffic conditions.

FLEET TAILBACK—Bill Debler will probably win a starting assignment at the tailback position. His hard running in practice and in the past two Lion games has stamped him as a dangerous runner.

Freshmen May Attend Jamboree

All lower division freshmen who plan to enter the School of Education are invited to attend the jamboree in the Home Economics Building from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. tonight, according to Richard N. Stevenson '42, president of the Education student council.

All students and faculty members are urged to attend the jamboree in order to foster better relations between the two groups. Dancing, games, and serving of refreshments will highlight the program, which is under the sponsorship of the Education student council.

Dating restrictions will be lifted for freshman men between 8 p. m. and midnight in order to permit them to enter into the jamboree's theme, which is "Bring your date and let the pros dance with her."

Dancing will be held in 110 Home Economics while other events will be conducted throughout the building. The jamboree is one of the first of its kind ever attempted by the School of Education, and is similar to the yearly get-together sponsored by the School of Agriculture.

The program is financed by appropriations made by All-College Cabinet to the student council.

8 Groups 100 Per Cent As PSCA Nears Goal

Theta Kappa Phi, Emmanon, Alpha Gamma Rho, Cody Manor and Phi Gamma Delta reported 100 per cent contributions to the PSCA campaign last night as student totals grazed the $3,600 goal with another day of canvassing remaining. Eight groups have made unanimous contributions.

Latest figures showed the men with $80 over their $2,500 goal, and the women $114 short of their proposed $1,100. Andrew P. Szekeley '42, men's chairman, expects to pass the student goal. Faculty campaigning will begin next week.

Debler May Replace Petrella At Tailback; Cenci To Start Game

By BOB SCHOOLEY

Seeking to trample the Violets from New York University and record their third victory of the season, the Nittany Lion eleven will enter the nocturnal gridiron classic as a slight favorite on the Polo Ground at 8:30 o'clock tonight.

NYU will sound an all-out signal in an effort to tame the Lions after suffering a 25-0 defeat last year at the hands of a strong Nittany squad. Last season's encounter was highlighted by the 101-yard return of the opening kickoff by Chuck Peters, Lion tailback.

Tonight's fray will be the first night contest either team has played. The series of games began in 1927, but the 1941 tilt is only the fourth tussle of the grid machines. Series scores show that the teams are tied for honors. In 1927 the Violets tied the Lions, 13-13. A 7-0 win was garnered by the New Yorkers in 1929, and last year the Lions bounced back to even the Both Penn State and NYU will series, 25-0.

be trying for victory No. 3 on this season's schedule. NYU has overpowered PMC and Lafayette, but Coach Mal Steven's gridders were swamped by Texas A. & M., Syracuse, and Holy Cross. The Lions have decisions against Bucknell and Lehigh.
