Ag Council Plans For Harvest Ball

Preparations for the annual Harvest Ball got under way at the monthly meeting of the Ag School Council last night.

The dance will take place Saturday, December 6, from 9 to 12 p. m. in the Armory. The Campus Owls were chosen to furnish the music and admission was set at $1.10 per couple. Harry W. Kork '42 was appointed general chairman of the ball.

Recommendation to the Ag Board of Education will be made by the council for an increase in the Judging Team fee from $1 to $2 per year effective next semester. The fee's title will be changed from Judging Team fee to Ag Activity fee.

Other important business discussed at last night's meeting was another recommendation to the Ag Board of Education for the Ag-Home Ec picnic and dance to be an annual affair.

Groff To Show Films

"Life of Students in China Today" will be the subject of an illustrated talk by Dr. G. W. "Daddy" Groff, dean of the School of Agriculture, Lingnan University at 7 o'clock tonight, in the Hugh Beaver room, 304 Old Main.

SWINGS BATON — Richard W. Grant, above, will direct the College Glee Club in Penn State's Fall broadcast over Station KDKA during Soph Hop, Friday night.

Yougel Elected Local Burgess

Albert E. Yougel, Republican, was elected local Burgess in the State College municipal elections Tuesday, by polling 71 more votes than his nearest rival, Kenneth D. Hutchinson, assistant professor of economics at the College.

Hutchinson, who was sponsored by the Citizen's Better Government Committee on a "sticker" campaign, received 659 votes to 730 for Yougel and 589 for Eugene H. Lederer, Democrat. Hutchinson was far ahead in the North precinct where he polled 238 votes against the combined 188 votes of his opponents.

The Republican candidates all won spots on town council with Leonard A. Doggett, professor of electrical engineering, Better Government Committee candidate, taking fourth place with 792 votes in the race for council positions. The winning Republicans who will take posts on council January 1, are Paul A. Mitten, 1265 votes, Charles Schlow, 964 votes, and H. O. Smith, 962 votes.

Prof. John H. Ferguson, department of political science, and unsuccessful candidate for borough council, polled a total of 685 votes.

Seeks Owners Of Piano

Colonel Edward D. Ardery, department of military science and tactics has been endeavoring to locate the owner of the piano that has been stored on the Armory floor, for an indefinite period. If no claim is made, the piano will be turned over to Student Union for disposition.

All Frosh Allowed Weekend Dates; Ag Customs' Extension Clarified

A clarification of the customs ruling for Two-year Agricultural students was announced last night by Raymond F. Leffler '42, Tribunal chairman. "The extension of customs until the beginning of the second semester applies to ALL Frosh," he emphasized.

"Customs will be removed for the Ag students, along with other freshmen, on the first Saturday following Christmas if they win a scheduled contest. The nature of the contest has not yet been announced," Leffler added.

Another clarification made by the board permits all frosh to date over houseparty weekend, not merely those entertaining imports, as previously announced in the Collegian.

One of the unique penalties handed out by the Student Tribunal in last night's meeting was the robot outfit required of James

Dean Warnock Names 7 Central Committees

An "all-out" defense program for the purpose of organizing the College Division of the State College Council of Defense was initiated at the first meeting of 20 student, faculty, and administrative leaders yesterday.

A. R. Warnock, dean of men and chairman of the campus defense project, appointed committee chairmen and outlined plans for speeding up campus organization.

"The purpose of the College council is to supplement the armed defense of the nation by enlisting students and faculty in a diversified list of activities which are intended to promote the broad program of national defense and also to protect the safety and welfare of the campus," Dean Warnock revealed.

"If we defend democracy in a democratic way by voluntarily offering our services, as compared to the dictatorial defense methods of the totalitarian powers, the danger of a surprise invasion and its disastrous effects will be minimized," the dean warned.

Designed to set up a complex organization of campus defense to meet any kinds of emergencies, the council approved the appointment of seven central committees. These groups will have various sub-committees consisting of student and faculty members.

The central committees and their chairmen are: Committee on Protection, George W. Ebert, superintendent of grounds and buildings; Committee on First Aid Instruction, Physical Fitness, and Recreation, Dean Carl P. Schott, School of Physical Education and Athletics; Committee on American Unity, Julius E. Kaulfuss, professor of highway engineering; Committee on Contacts with Faculty, Students, and Alumni in the Armed Forces of the United States.

News Flashes

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Treasury Morgenthau announced a new $4,800,000,000 income tax bill late yesterday. The bill will consist of a new tax on pay envelopes, taken in weekly or monthly payments from employers.

An additional tax of one per cent will be added to the present Old Age Pension tax and one per cent more to the Social Security tax. This bill came as a surprise, since Morgenthau had previously stated that the bill would not be ready until January 1, 1942.

WASHINGTON—The President will make an important address at the closing of the National Labor office at 3 p. m. today. The text of his speech has not been disclosed, but he will probably touch on the country's foreign policy and defense program.
