

Voting Begins For Quill Girl

Balloting for the Quill Girl, most popular woman on campus, will begin at Student Union Desk today, P. Marie Lawrence '43, publicity chairman for the Matrix Dinner, announced yesterday.

Seniors Ruth W. Barbey, E. Louise Hack, Ann J. Halberstadt, Anita M. Knecht, Bernice M. Maurer, Margaret R. Roberts, and Elizabeth E. Widger have been nominated.

Coeds may cast votes until Saturday. Additional senior nominations may be made.

Winners of awards of Cap Girl, most versatile woman, and Matrix Girl, one who has contributed the most to the College, will be announced at the Matrix Dinner to be held at the Nittany Lion Inn at 6:30 p. m. December 8.

A skit, "The Daily Boos," will be presented by Theta Sigma Phi pledges, and Miss Laura Lou Brookman, associate editor of the Ladies Home Journal, will be guest speaker. Tickets for the dinner may be bought at Student Union or at the door.

Bowlers Prepare For First Meet

Practice periods for coeds who bowl over 125 and who wish to try out for the first intercollegiate postal meet next week were announced by June M. Steinfurth '43, Bowling Club vice-president.

Women must bowl two games each practice and record scores of at least six games by 10 p. m. Saturday.

Practice periods begin at 4 p. m., 6:30 p. m., and 8 p. m. today through Friday and 7 p. m. Saturday.

Club Celebrates Founder's Birth

Commemorating the birthday of Ellen H. Richards, a national leader in home economics, an Ellen H. Richards Day program will be held in 110 Home Economics building from 3 to 5 o'clock today.

Sponsored by the home economics honorary, the program will show women's part in national defense. Dr. Laura W. Drummond, director of home economics, will speak.

Other speakers include Clara E. House '43 who will talk on women's part in the Revolutionary War; Mildred Friedman '43 on the Civil War; and Sarah E. Paxton '43 on the World War.

Red Cross exhibits, bundles for Britain, home defense gardens, and defense nutrition, will be on display.

The program and exhibits are open to the public.

Women's Building To Hold Dance

Coeds of Women's Building will hold a tea dance in dormitory lounges from 4 to 5:30 p. m. Friday. Refreshments will be served.

Mary Casanave '45 and Joan M. Clark '45 are in charge. D. Jane Cromis '45, Gloria G. Greene '45, and Dorothy A. Stewart '45 will receive guests.

Panhel Bans 'Dutch' Dates

Beginning Monday, "dutch" treat dates among freshman, transfer, and sorority women will end, with the abolishment of limited association until the formal rushing period next semester, Jean A. Krauser '42, Panhellenic Council president, stated last night.

Sorority women may talk with rushees on campus at any time and in McAllister Hall lobby for 15 minutes preceding and following each meal. They may not visit Women's Building lobby or see rushees in the Sandwich Shop or downtown restaurants.

Rushing dates for the basketball game tomorrow night will be permitted, but beginning Monday, these will also be abolished. No more than three sorority women may sit together at the game.

The Council also announced that freshman and transfer women may attend more than one get-together from 4 to 5:30 p. m. Thursday. Invitations for the second get-together, December 18, must be delivered at the Panhellenic post office by noon of the Monday preceding the party. A list of the number of invitations sent to each dormitory must accompany invitations.
