

Ag School Plans Many Yuletide Events Christmas Party Planned By Sororities

The Christmas party of the School of Agriculture will be held in the Sandwich Shop, at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow, Henry S. Brunner, professor of agricultural education, and chairman of the social committee, announced yesterday.

Following the dinner, the program will consist of the presentation of gifts and recognition of the services of Milton S. McDowell, vice-dean and director of the Extension School of Agriculture; Margaret Brown, professor of home economics; and Thomas I. Mairs, professor of agricultural correspondence, who are retiring this year. Music will be provided throughout the program and dinner by the agriculture faculty choir.

Members of the social committee are: Howard G. Niesley, professor of agriculture extension; Martha E. Leighton, assistant professor of agriculture extension; William F. Hall, associate professor of agriculture education; R. C. Blaney, county extension representative; Robert P. Meahl, assistant professor of nursery industry; Merwin W. Humphrey, assistant professor of forestry; and Carl W. Wilde, assistant professor of landscape architecture.

'Road To Bethlehem' Is Theme For Services

"The Road to Bethlehem" is the theme which the PSCA will use in its Christmas morning watch services held 7 a. m. each Tuesday in December in the Hugh Beaver Room under the leadership of Miss Ione V. Sikes, associate director of the Westminster Foundation.

The programs for the three services planned will include carols, Christmas poems, and suggestions for making Christmas better at home. This will include breakfast in the Sandwich Shop, according to Joan E. Paulhamus '43, chairman of the committee in charge.

The Hugh Beaver Room has been decorated in true Christmas fashion with candles, Christmas lights, holly garlands, and pine boughs to suit the occasion. Christmas bells played by Mary Kathryn Nol '44 will provide the music for the programs.

The series of services is under the direction of Commission III of the PSCA headed by J. Howard Mendenhall '42, and Dorothy K. Brunner '44.

Baskets, Gifts Will Go To Charity

Christmas parties, socials, and charity gifts are being planned by the twelve national sororities on campus as the Yuletide season draws near.

Chi Omega will hold an all-night Christmas party for members December 19 when exchange gifts will be turned over to the local Welfare Association. Margaret K. Roberts '42 is in charge of entertainment. Another all-night party will be held December 19 by the Delta Gammas who also plan to contribute Christmas baskets to poor families.

Kappa Alpha Theta will hold its customary Christmas party for children of a local needy family on December 13. A party for members will be held later at which time gifts will be exchanged.

Alpha Chi Omega is planning a Christmas program December 14 to which Prof. John H. Frizzell has been invited to entertain with Christmas readings. Natalie A. Siebert '43 is in charge. Also scheduled is a party following the Carol Sing on December 18 when Alpha Chi O's will exchange gifts.

Rather than exchange personal gifts this year Gamma Phi Beta will give gifts to be used in the suite. In addition they expect to give baskets and gifts to the poor. The Kappas are inviting alumnae sisters to a party December 17. Gifts suitable for use in the house will be exchanged. Doris F. Ward '44 is in charge.

At the home of a town alumnae Zeta Tau Alpha will exchange gifts which will later be turned over to the Red Cross for distribution. An informal party for all members of Theta Phi Alpha will be held prior to the Christmas vacation at which time gifts will be exchanged.

Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Epsilon Phi, Kappa, Delta, and Phi Mu are all planning socials during the week of December 14.
