

Pre-Final Bouts End As Eight Win

Six bouts and two forfeits wound up the pre-final fighting in the intramural boxing tournament in Rec. Hall yesterday afternoon. A crowd of 450 witnessed the liveliest afternoon of boxing since the tourney started.

Harold Thrasher, AZ, flew from his corner and sent a flurry of blows to AKPi Paul Barnes' head and chest in one of the fastest bouts of the afternoon. Barnes was faltering badly from the onslaught and Danny DeMarino stopped the 135-pound fight soon after it had started.

In another close battle, Chuck Phillips, Phi Delta Theta, gained the finals by barely outpointing Nick Charles, KDR, in the 145-pound class. The bout was marked by the infighting of both contestants. Phillips landed more blows the first two rounds but Charles had him faltering when he retaliated in the final round.

Although knocked to the canvass in the closing seconds of the first round, Irv Jontow gave Moriarta a boxing lesson in the second and third rounds to win a close decision in the 105-pound class. Both men boxed cleverly and had steam behind their blows but Moriarta could not shake off a strong left hook thrown by Jontow.

Jack Banbury, Phi Delta Theta contender, was outweighed and "outreached" by Jack Laughlin, AGR, in the unlimited class semi-final bout and put up a good fight only to be decisioned after three rounds.

Harold Bryant, Tau Phi Delta, won a close decision from Neil Reagan, Phi Sigma Kappa, in the other fraternity match, while Paul Cook, KDR, received a forfeit from Bernard Schwartz, Gamma Sigma Phi, in the 145-pound division.

In the independent division, Frank Krug outpointed Jack Krauss to get the nod from the judges in the 145 pound-weight, and George Croce, 135 pounds, forfeited to Sam Harry, Penn State Club.

The final bouts will be held in Rec Hall at 7 p. m. Thursday night. Parker W. Finney '43, intramural boxing manager, announced last night. The hour was moved forward so that fans would be able to attend the annual Christmas caroling.

Summaries of the bouts follow:

FRATERNITY DIVISION

135-pound: Thrasher, AZ, TKO-ed Barnes, AKPi, in the first round.

145-pound: Phillips, Phi Delta Theta, decisioned Charles, KDR. Cook, KDR, won by forfeit from Schwartz, Gamma Sigma Phi.

155-pound: Bryant, Tau Phi Delta, decisioned Reagan, Phi Sigma Kappa.

165-pound: Jontow, Phi Sigma Delta, decisioned Moriarta, Phi Delta Theta.

Unlimited Class: Laughlin, AGR, decisioned Banbury, Phi Delta Theta.

INDEPENDENT DIVISION

135-pound: Sam Harry won by forfeit from George Croce.

145-pound: Frank Krug decisioned Jack Krauss.

At The Movies

CATHAUM:

"Design for Scandal"

STATE:

"Target For Tonight"

NITTANY:

"Hell's Angels" and "Scarface"

Their Last Tribute—Captain Len Krouse, Pepper Petrella, and Bill Smaltz, left to right, will be honored at the annual football banquet at the Nittany Lion Inn this evening. The three seniors have been a steadying influence to the grid team this season and Coach Bob Higgins has revealed that the triumvirate is one of the most grid-wise groups he has ever coached. Higgins said he was particularly pleased with the leadership ability that they displayed. He added that to their experience is attributed the greatest credit for Nittany successes on the gridiron this season.

Unbeaten Syracuse Five To Meet Lions Tonight

Frosh Face Altoona In Preliminary

Penn State's Nittany courtmen will attempt to rebound into the win column once again when they tangle with the unbeaten Orange basketeers from Syracuse in Rec Hall at 8 o'clock tonight.

The battle will mark the Lions' last home appearance until February 11 when they return to face the Temple Owls after playing seven games on foreign courts. The preliminary to the Syracuse fray tonight finds the Penn State frosh playing host to the cagers of the Altoona Undergraduate Center at 6:30 o'clock.

After losing their first game in four starts when they fell before unbeaten Cornell Saturday night, the Lions are expected to rebound, and hold an even chance of stopping the undefeated Syracuse quintet. The visiting Orangemen have registered victories over Buffalo State Teachers and Manhattan in their opening two games this year.

Coach John Lawther intends to start his so-called "veteran" five against Syracuse. This lineup is the same that took the floor at the opening whistle in the last two games against Bucknell and Cornell.

John Egli and Elmer Gross will probably hold down the forward slots, Herk Baltimore will be at his usual center position, and Bob Ramin and Dick Grimes are expected to be at the guard posts.

Lew Andreas, who has been head coach of basketball at Syracuse for 17 years, will build his starting lineup around Danny DiPace, who scored 119 points as a sophomore on the Orange five last season, and Captain Don Sayle, a strong defensive player who was injured and saw service in only five games last year.

DiPace and Ray Willmott will be at forwards for Syracuse, Gene Berger at center, and Sayle and Chuck Stanton at guards. All five were lettermen on last year's squad which divided a home and home series with Penn State. The Lions won the first, 44-25, then lost, 37-29.

Class Wrestlers Begin Elimination

Freshmen and sophomore elimination matches for the interclass wrestling tourney began with five first-year bouts and three sophomore contests on the Rec Hall mats yesterday afternoon.

More inter-class competition is scheduled for this afternoon although the pairings have not yet been announced.

In yesterday's session, two bouts were won by pins while the six others were decided by point scoring.

Bob Wilson pinned Frank Reighard with a bodypress in 1 minute and 49 seconds of the first round in the sophomore 170 pound division. Ulrich scored two pins on Lou Vargo in the '45 160-pound class, the first coming after 30 seconds of the second round and the second in 55 seconds of the third round.

Other sophomore results saw Tom Brenner defeat Bill McCracken in the 131-pound section, 10-4, and Jim Foust conquered Frank Yeaple in the 150-pound division.

In the freshman matches, Pat Harrington won from Bob Henry, 8-6, in the 131-pound class. Charlie Dipner defeated Jerry Fannuci, 7-0, and Pete Rodemeyer beat out John Hocking, 5-3, both matches in the 160-pound section. John McCauley defeated Bob Weiss in 140-pound competition, 7-3.

READ THE COLLEGIAN CLASSIFIEDS

Bruce Smith Chosen Football 'Man Of Year'

Bruce Smith, star and captain of the undefeated Minnesota Golden Gophers, has recently received yet another honor in addition to his already impressive list.

He was chosen Football Man of the Year by a board which includes Tuss McLaughry, the Dartmouth coach, Jim Crowley, the Fordham mentor, Mal Elward of Purdue, Frank Thomas of Alabama, Dutch Meyers of Texas Christian, and Clark Shaughnessy of Stanford.

He was presented the award over a nationwide radio hookup in connection with the "Take It Or Leave It" program. The presentation was made by Grantland Rice in the Stevens Hotel in Chicago.

Smith received another award, the Heisman trophy, in New York City.

Harriers Keep Winning

Two Penn State hill and dalers helped the Shanahan C. C. of Philadelphia retain their Junior A. A. U. National championship over a five and a half mile course last Sunday. Alex Bourgerie, this year's captain, and Curt Stone, sophomore star, held hands as they crossed the finish line in first place in the good time of 29:56.

Ex-Lion Gridder To Speak Tonight

An ex-Lion gridiron star and coach, Dich Harlow, and next year's football captain, identity unknown, will be prominent figures attending the annual football banquet at the Nittany Lion Inn at 5:45 p. m. today.

In addition to the election of the 1942 captain and the speech by Harlow, who is now head mentor at Harvard, an honorary freshman captain will be selected at the dinner.

Previous to addressing the 1941 Gridiron Lions, Harlow will speak at a special meeting of the Monday Morning Quarterbacks Club at 11:45 a. m. He is a 1912 graduate of Penn State and played tackle for three years of varsity football.

Named head coach in 1915 after serving as assistant to Bill Hollenbach in 1912 and 1913, Harlow saw his men win 20 games and yield only 8.

Bob Higgins, who was one of Harlow's stars prior to World War I, was soon followed into the service by the present Harvard coach. At the end of the war Harlow returned to Penn State to assume the duties of line coach under Hugo Bezdek in the "golden era" of Nittany football.

Coaching the Colgate Red Raiders was his next big job which he began in 1922 prior to guiding the Western Maryland grid and boxing teams for nine years.

From 1935 he has advised the Harvard Crimson through some of the toughest schedules confronting any college.

College Ski Group Plans Winter Carnival

Plans for the second annual Penn State Winter Carnival were formulated and a committee for the affair was chosen at last week's meeting of the Penn State Ski Club.

The College ski championship meet will be held at the ski run on January 17 and 18. In case of no snow on that weekend, the meet will be postponed until February 21 and 22. The date of the Junior Ski championship was set for January 31.

The committee in charge of the arrangements of the carnival is Max Peters, Gene Stull, Bill Ulerich, part time instructor of journalism, and Don King, assistant professor of English. Martha Strand and Don King were elected to the posts of corresponding secretary and treasurer respectively.

This is just an example of the size of things that are found by the Daily Collegian Classifieds.

With or Without a Date it's the

Tower House Inn

Dine Dance

Complete Fountain Service

5 Miles West of State College

