

WSGA Senate Gives $90 To Mrs. Hetzel's Loan Fund

Faculty Reception Moved To April 1

WSGA Senate turned over its loan fund of $90 to Mrs. Hetzel's fund last night after consideration of the war's effect upon financial needs of students.

Commenting upon the action, Jean Babcock '42, WSGA president, said that there will likely be increased demands upon the loan fund with the third semester and emphasis upon defense activities.

Because the newly-elected WSGA president and vice-president will be attending a three-day convention of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students at Ohio State University on April 8, 9, and 10, date for the Junior-Senior Women's Faculty Reception was changed from April 8 to Wednesday, April 1. New WSGA and WRA officers will be introduced.

Patricia Diener, freshman senator, was appointed WSGA's representative to plan for PSCA's "Open House" in Old Main on Wednesday, February 25. Coeds will act as hostesses.

In connection with her duties as co-chairman of Mother's Day Weekend, Patricia MacKinney '43 was designated to supervise elections of Senior Queen. Senior WSGA senators met Saturday to name six contestants, who will be announced early next week.

Miss Babcock reminds women students that dining room announcements should be written and handed to WSGA representatives by noon. She also requested that women file petitions for office nominations and committee appointments by next Friday.

'Save Yarn Day'

Bits of yarn left from knitting sweaters, socks, or mittens could be put to good use, advises WSGA House of Representatives in its "Save Yarn" drive today.

Coeds are urged to leave yarn in places specified by dormitory officers. It will be used by British War Relief to make afghans. Collections will be made throughout the semester.

Coeds Will Draft Men For WRA Dance

Since this three to one ratio of men to women is getting slimmer and slimmer, with defense projects and men going to army camps, WRA has organized a Sweetheart Dance, to which coeds may ask men.

The idea is to make a date in a big hurry before the army gets in first. The dance will come off in White Hall this Friday night, and there isn't much time left.

Tickets are still on sale at Student Union for $1.10. On them will be numbers, corresponding to numbers placed in a box for drawing at the dance. The couple holding the lucky number will be named "Sweethearts" of the dance.

Silent Period Closes 'Rush'

Beckoning intensive rushing to a close will be a silent period extending from 9 o'clock until 5 p. m. Saturday, when two formal dinners will climax the season.

Formal dinner invitations to rushees living on campus and in town will be delivered by sorority members after 9 o'clock tonight. Replies should be written and handed in to Student Union between 1 and 5 p. m. tomorrow.

Rushing chairmen may call for answers at Panhellenic post office at 5 p. m. tomorrow. Having designated dinner hours on their replies, rushees may attend two dinners.

Dinner expenses may not exceed $40.

Zeta's Outbowl DG's, 583 To 544

A 583-544 bowling victory went to Zeta Tau Alpha over Delta Gamma yesterday when Marie Nolte '43 chalked up 144 points for the Zeta's. Marjorie Zint '43 was DG's high scorer with 133.

Seniors knocked out a 36-13 win over freshmen in basketball. High scorers were Seniors Betty Widger, 14 points, and Marce Stringer, 12; and Freshman Sara Hostetter, 11.

CA Representative To Discuss War

Roland Elliott, executive secretary of the Christian Association of America, will discuss the world situation in 121 Sparks at 7 p. m. Tuesday. He recently returned from Europe.

Plans for his visit will be discussed by the World Student Service Fund committee in the Hugh Beaver room, Old Main, at 4 o'clock today.

Under the executive leadership of M. Edythe Moore '43, Herbert K. Kraybill '44, and Palmer M. Sharpless '44, 50 students of the PSCA committee will plan a program for helping students throughout the world.

The WSSF is the only organization of its kind that can contact students in armies, prisons, and concentration camps.

We, The Women Bidding Draws Nigh—Final Tips Offered

Informal rushing closes at 9 p. m. tonight. At that time invitations to formal dinners will be issued. Also begins a strict silent period which lasts until 5 p. m. Saturday.

By 3 p. m. Friday, rushees must have invitations to formal dinners answered. This last formal party is, without doubt, the most important.

Rushees should remember that, when they answer. Many will receive more than one invitation. If you, as a rushee, have not decided upon the one house in which you are interested, reply affirmatively to the two houses you would like to join.

However, if you know which house you would like to join, answer only that house affirmatively. That is being fair both to yourself and to the house.

Contrary to popular rumors, it makes no difference whether you accept the early or late party. Accept the one which suits you better and be sure to state the time you are planning to attend.

Sorority women will call for you at the time you have designated. Beware, though, of the house that dons sheep's clothing and soft-soaps you into attending their party. Know what you want to do!

After formal parties come the preferential sheets. On these you are asked to list the first three houses in order of your preference. If you have only one preference, list only one. When you list more than one, be sure that you would be satisfied to join the house you list second or third.

In other words, do not join a sorority just for the sake of joining or because Suzie is. Know what you like about the members, know whether you will be happy as a sister, know if you will fit into the group, and be sure you like the other rushees.

It's your decision, rushees, so make it a wise one.

Remember to save tin foil from candy and cigarette packages.

Profs To Talk On Fine Arts

Music, art, and creative writing will be the topic of a panel discussion to be sponsored by Pi Lambda Theta, women's education honorary, in northwest lounge, Atherton Hall at 8 p. m. Wednesday.

Speakers on various arts will be Hummel Fishburn, associate professor of music education; Harold E. Dickson, associate professor of fine arts; and Joseph J. Rubin, instructor in English composition.

After three five-minute speeches, professors will question each other and answer queries from the audience. Advice concerning creative arts and how to include them in all fields of teaching will be stressed.

The general public will be welcome at this meeting, as well as Pi Lambda Theta undergraduates, alumnae, and field members, according to R. Helen Gordon '42, president.

Preceding the panel discussion will be a business meeting at 7:30 p. m.

King Winter 'Rain's' As Calendars Predict Slushy Weekends

It's "snow" fun having slushy weekends like the last, but a majority of reports are discouraging about forthcoming Fridays and Saturdays.

Ever since February 2 when Gus Groundhog saw his shadow and ran back to shelter with a frost-bitten ear, climatic conditions have been low.

Cupid will have to shoot arrows during a "soliterraneous" storm, for WRA's Valentine dance falls on a day predicted by weather almanacs to be stormy and cloudy. Though rushees and sorority gals will be warm in heart Sunday, there is promise of strong, icy winds, say forecasters.

According to William S. Clarke, instructor in Pomology, first robins were seen last week near Shingleton Gap, although calendars still say Spring will arrive March 21.

What is more disheartening is that even Senior Ball won't bring a break in weather. Almanacs warn that an even colder spell is coming which means that Glenn Miller will no doubt play his "Moonlight Serenade" to shivering, boot-clad coeds and muffler-wrapped men.
