

Greeks Send 359 Dinner Bids; Intensive Rushing Closes

Panhel Observes Strict Silence

When Old Main struck 9 o'clock last night, the 1941-42 intensive rushing season closed with 359 freshman and transfer women receiving invitations for tomorrow night's formal dinners. Strict silent period will be enforced until 5 p. m. tomorrow.

Rushees who are still undecided may attend two dinners, but should indicate the time of each party on their acceptances. Guests may not remain longer than one and a half hours at each dinner.

Written replies will be due at Student Union between 1 and 5 p. m. today. Rushing chairmen may obtain replies at 5 p. m.

Lists of bids must be handed into the dean of women's office before 10 o'clock tomorrow night. Preferential ballots will be delivered to rushees before 10 a. m. Sunday. By marking 1, 2, or 3 beside the sorority's name, rushees will indicate their preference.

Signed ballots will be returned to the dean of women's office not later than 3 p. m. Sunday. After lists are completed rushing chairmen will be notified who in turn will notify their pledges to report to their houses.

Since handling of bids and acceptances requires much clerical work, the dean of women's office requested that both fraternity officers and freshmen be prompt. The sooner freshmen reply, the sooner houses will receive pledge lists.

Rushees who attended a formal dinner and expect to be out of town Sunday should notify the dean's office in order to avoid delay of acceptance lists. Freshmen returning to their dormitory before 9 o'clock Sunday may bring their ballots to 208 Women's Building. Those returning later should bring their ballots to the office Monday.

In case of mistake or misunderstanding about a list, the dean of women's office should be contacted.

Reported violations of the Panhellenic rushing code were penalized by Panhellenic Judiciary Board. Guilty houses will be obliged to give up the privilege of taking rushees to one sports event during next intensive rushing period.

Your WSGA— Behind The Lines

(Editor's note: This is the last in a series of articles discussing the purpose and organization of women's student government.)

Having outlined the organization of WSGA and considered its various branches, in the final article we shall discuss nomination, election, and installation of officers.

Nominations are made by WSGA Senate senior members. For the first time, this year the committee will consider petitions from coeds desiring offices. Additional nominations may be made from the floor at the mass meeting preceding preliminary elections when candidates are introduced.

To be nominated for president, a woman must have a 1.5 All-College average and one year's Senate experience. A 1.5 average but no experience is required for other offices.

Offices for which there are more than two contestants are voted upon at preliminaries, held within one week of the mass meeting. Final elections are held in the week following preliminaries.

Runner-up for president becomes secretary, and runner-up for vice-president becomes junior senator.

All undergraduate women are eligible to vote for association officers. Present juniors vote for senior senator, present sophomores for junior senator, and present freshmen for sophomore senator. Only women whose homes are in town vote for town senator.

Students attending the Sweetheart Dance tonight are requested not to smoke in White Hall.

Advance tip—the first thing to take out of the house when starting spring cleaning is all the men.

Home Eccers Say Little Things Count

By practicing what they preach, Ellen H. Richards, junior home economics honorary, is saving the little things for defense.

Giving the faucet that extra push, saving a toothpaste tube, and writing on both sides of the paper are examples that help insure future necessities.

With "don't throw anything away without counting 10" as a motto, club members are using pencil stubs, cottons instead of silks, and drinking "the last drop" to avoid waste.

Coeds are urged when they see a pin to pick it up by Ellen H. Richards defense committee. Committee members are M. Jane Berkebile, Mildred Friedman, Audrey H. Hackman, and Selma Solomon, juniors.

Webster, WRA Define Valentine

According to Webster, a Valentine is "a printed missive of an amatory or satirical kind, generally sent through the mails anonymously."

But as far as WRA is concerned, a Valentine is a ticket to their annual Sweetheart Dance, and there's nothing anonymous about it. All a coed has to do is walk up to Student Union, slap $1.10 on the desk, and take her man to White Hall tonight from 9 p. m. to 12 midnight.

There will be a ten-cent charge for checking coats, and the dance will be formal for both men and women. Since smoking is not permitted in White Hall, "sweethearts" have been asked to comply with regulations.

The Campus Owls will play. Decorations will be highlighted by a lacey heart at the center of the wall, with Betty Coed and Joe College in the center.

Frosh To Register Activity Points

WSGA Junior Service Board members will hold activity point registration for freshman women living in McAllister Hall and Women's Building at 9 p. m. Thursday, February 19, Natalie A. Siebert '43 chairman announced yesterday.

Members will attend Red Cross sewing projects in Home economics every Tuesday and Thursday, Miss Siebert said.

Coeds Turn On The Glamour But Janitor Stays Immune

By EDITH L. SMITH

Coeds come and coeds go, but they are all alike to Cyrus Confer, Grange dormitory janitor.

For 23 years Mr. Confer has tidied up lounges, emptied waste baskets, and mopped floors for women coming and going in Mac Hall and then in Grange.

"They're all about the same," he said, attacking an overstuffed chair with a vacuum sweeper. "About the only change I notice is that back in '19 I could count the smoking girls on one hand, now they all smoke."

In 1919 when Mr. Confer started to work in Mac Hall, the building housed both freshmen and upper-class women. Many seniors resided in Women's Building.

"Freshmen really took a hazing then," he rubbed his chin thoughtfully a moment. "I can remember when they had to carry umbrellas whether it was raining or not."

Mr. Confer's days in Grange began before final touches had been put on wall plastering. He groaned as he recalled days when white shoe prints marked his freshly polished floors.

As a witness to the effects of first World War aftermaths upon coeds, Mr. Confer remarked that many familiar faces disappeared from Mac Hall during that time.

"Some came back in a month or two, others I never saw again," he murmured softly. "Lots moved out of the building or downtown to save money."

"It's hard to tell a freshman from the rest, now," Mr. Confer said. "It doesn't take them long to start resembling older girls. I guess hair styles are most different."

Coeds had long manes, piled high on their heads when Mr. Confer began his cleaning.

"Most of them now have shorter and curlier hair, but I don't think they are any better looking than they were then."

Mr. Confer rose and whisked away some dust accumulated on a table.

"They've changed in a lot of ways, he laughed. "But they're all about same to me."

PSCA Plans Party For 50 Children

Fifty children from Woodycrest will be entertained at a Valentine party by the PSCA Community Service Committee at the Lutheran Church from 2 to 4 p. m. Saturday.

Games will be played and refreshments served. Townspeople will bring children from the bus shelter to the church.

Maxine V. Sheeder '45 and Dorothy J. Shigley '45, co-chairmen of the party. Girl Scouts from Woodycrest cooperated in making favors.

Coeds Win Postal Bowling, 1365-1160

In the second intercollegiate postal bowling tournament this year, Penn State trounced Miami University last night by winning three games with a total score of 1365 to 1160.

Ath East outdoowled town coeds last night, 601 to 308. Jane Cook '43, bowling 141, and June Steinfurth '43 with 135 points were Ath Hall high scorers. Town top scorers were Velma Elder '45 with 113 points and Lois Harper with 103.

Howe To Head SCM

M. Elizabeth Howe '42 was recently named chairman of the mid-Atlantic regional conference of the Student Christian Movement. Conventions are held every summer at Eaglesmere. Miss Howe will meet with the regional planning committee in Philadelphia this weekend.
