

2 Lion Gymnasts Share Individual Scoring Lead

Lion Gym Team Tops Eastern Opponents

Harold Zimmerman and Sol Small are tied with Captain Walt Blattman of Navy in a three-way draw for individual scoring honors in the Eastern Intercollegiate Gym League as the season passes the half-way point.

The trio is deadlocked with 23 points apiece although Zimmerman and Small have competed in one more meet than the Navy star. The diminutive blond tumbler, Hal Zimmerman, is undefeated on the mats in league competition and has divided honors with Small on the parallel bars. Small has picked up 13 markers on the parallel bars, his specialty, and has copped six on the side horse and four on the flying rings.

Navy's Blattman is undefeated on the horizontal bar and side horse in their two meets and garnered a second on the parallel bars for his total score.

Sid Rudman ranked fifth with 15 points and Ed Trybala has a corner on seventh place with 14 markers. Rudman won 13 of his 15 points on the rings while Trybala stars on the parallel bar. Captain Charlie Senft follows Trybala in the eighth position with 12 points, all won in the rope climb.

Penn State is also leading in the team total with 116 while their opponents have earned only 46. Army is next in this department with 78 points won and 30 for their foes. Navy, Temple, and Princeton follow in that order to complete team standings.

The Lions will face the Army Cadets at West Point Saturday and will be handicapped by having to use strange equipment. The Army contingent will offer plenty of resistance for Coach Gene Wettstone's team since they have walloped Temple 37-17 and Princeton 41-13.

Courtmen Win 15th Game Of Campaign

The second half started off much the same as the first. Momentarily, the Mountaineer attack caught fire and the score was knotted at 22-22 within 45 seconds after the tipoff. But the Lions stepped in, and three lightning field goals by Gross, Gent and Baltimore threw the visitors off-stride so completely the NCAA at New Orleans. ly that they never threatened the Lion lead again.

Freezing the ball in the final five minutes, Penn State coasted through to their 15th victory and tied the all-time record for the number of wins in one season. By gaining their tenth straight victory, the Lions also tied the all-time consecutive win record, which has stood since 1928.

MENTOR CASHES IN — John Lawther's quintet last night turned the tables on the mighty Mountaineers from West Virginia to tie two all-time Penn State records. The victory revenged an early season defeat, one of two suffered by the Lions this season.

Coach Krutter Leaves For MIT

Doctor Harry M. Krutter, Lion fencing coach since 1936, left today to accept a research position at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Prof. H. Arthur Meyer, assistant fencing coach for several years as well as the director and judge of many of the team's matches has been appointed Dr. Krutter's successor.

Doctor Krutter came from MIT five and one-half years ago to work on an air-gas recovery investigation for the Mineral Industries School. Although his research kept him quite busy, Dr. Krutter found several hours nightly to coach Penn State fencers.

His record as fencing mentor shows 15 wins and 14 losses against teams that have always rated in the upper half of the Eastern Collegiate Fencing League. The respect and admiration that opponents had for Dr. Krutter's fencers was recently shown when Penn State was given a special invitation to join the ECFL this year, an honor rarely accorded a college.

Robert L. Harder '42, fencing captain, presented Dr. Krutter with a pipe and a humidor before he left as a token of his team's respect.

Professor Meyer takes charge of a squad that has won matches over Syracuse and Temple and dropped matches to Cornell and Navy.

Annual Goodman Trophy To Be Given Saturday

When the smoke of the Michigan State-Penn State boxing meet clears in Rec Hall Saturday night, the outstanding Nittany Lion mitman of the 1942 season will be awarded the Frank J. Goodman trophy. Selection of this year's winner will be made by Coach Leo Houck, Manager Bill Meyers and sports reporters from the Centre Daily Times and Collegian.

Goodman, former national collegiate champion at Penn State, donated the cup for the first time in 1939 when Al Tapman was the recipient. Tapman was followed by Mike Cooper in 1940 and Paul Scally last year.

Wrestlers Warned

Because of the great number of intramural wrestlers disqualified for failure to weigh-in before each bout, a warning was issued last night by Robert R. Coleman and Gilbert G. Weinberger, co-managers of the tournament. Weigh-ins are held every night from 7:30 until 8 p. m.

The war will make women's hats more sensible, says a millinery designer. Instead of wasting fruit and vegetables on hats, we'll put 'em on the table.

IM Wrestling Cards Nine Bouts Tonight

Icemen Whip F&M 4-1; Extend Streak

Special to The Daily Collegian
HERSHEY, Pa., Feb. 25—Penn State's hockey team extended its victory string to three straight games here tonight by trouncing a hapless Franklin & Marshall outfit, 4 to 1.

Dominating the play in every period, State displayed a lightning offense which completely baffled the F&M crew, rated second in the Eastern Intercollegiate League.

Art Gladstone scored the first goal for State at 8:07 of the initial frame on a pass from Fred Bernbaum. Johnny Dufford added the second tally unassisted at 10:50.

Gladstone again hit the nets at 6:15 of the second period on an assist from Ted Cauffman. Byles of Franklin & Marshall scored the loser's lone marker on an assist from Gardner at 8:50.

Gladstone came right back to score the fourth and final goal for Penn State on a pass from Ted Cauffman after 17 seconds of the third period had elapsed.
