

WSGA FINALISTS—I. Jacqueline Shafer '43 and Margaret K. Sherman '43 are final contestants for WSGA presidency. Voting for WRA and WSGA officers will be held in the first floor lobby of Old Main from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. today.

Women to Vote in Finals For WSGA-WRA Officers

Balloting In Old Main Lobby From 8 To 8

Women will wind up WSGA-WRA elections when they cast final ballots in the first floor lounge, Old Main, from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. today.

WSGA presidential candidates, to be voted on for the first time, include I. Jacqueline Shafer '43 and Margaret K. Sherman '43. Those for WRA are Pauline Crossman '43 and Ann Drivas '43. Runners up will become secretaries of the two organizations.

Other WSGA nominees are Dorothy K. Brunner '44 and Dorothy L. Jones '44, vice-president; Gloria Greene '45 and Kathleen M. Osgood '45, treasurer; Nancy E. Gosser '43 and Margaret M. Lams '43, senior senator; Helen L. Schmelz '44 and Ruth M. Storer '44, junior senator; Patricia Diener '45 and Joan K. Miller '45, sophomore senator; H. Anne Caruthers '44, Ruth Clyde '45, and H. Elizabeth Furst '45, town senator.

WRA candidates include Frances M. Burke '44 and Margaret K. Ramaley '44, vice-president; Frances M. Angle '44 and Grace L. Judge '44, treasurer.

Rubin Will Speak On Walt Whitman

Joseph J. Rubin, instructor of English composition, will be the fifth speaker in the current presentation of the Liberal Arts Lecture Series in 121 Sparks at 7:30 p. m. tonight. His topic will be "Walt Whitman, Poet-Critic of Democracy."

A recognized authority on the "Poet of Democracy," Rubin received his doctorate at Yale in 1940 with a dissertation on Whitman. Holder of many Whitman items, he has had numerous articles about him published in literary magazines.

Author of much "Union-Binding" poetry during the period of the Civil War, Whitman was called by Ralph Waldo Emerson, "One of the most extraordinary writers of wit and wisdom America has yet contributed."

Tickets At SU

Ticket for the Players' 25th anniversary production, "Mr. and Mrs. North," will be on sale at Student Union.

St. Patrick Sounds Final Snake Blast

St. Patrick sees all, hears all, and tells all. . . And old St. Pat plans to do just that at the Sigma Delta Chi's Gridiron Banquet at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening.

But St. Pat is a just man so today he wishes to take this opportunity to offer an alternative to his arch enemies, the campus big shots, the faculty and administration big wigs, and the town big . . .

If you find yourself in one of the above categories, and the recipient of an invitation, you may do one of two things. First you can commit hari-kari, as an easy out. Or, you may put on your best bib and tuck, grab a rabbit's foot, and strike out for the Nittany Lion Inn to attend the greatest snake chasing festival ever staged in the confines of this campus. And that's the least a snake can do.

Open Constitution Meeting Not Held

With seven All-College Cabinet members present and four other students, Cabinet's open discussion meeting concerning the newly revised constitution was not officially held last night.

An informal discussion was held, however, during which the proposed by-laws concerning the method of choosing Cabinet representatives of independent men and women were reviewed. Final action will be taken by Cabinet in the Alumni Association Offices Wednesday night at 9:30 p. m. The constitution will then be presented to the student body for vote at All-College elections, March 24, 25, and 26.

'42 Invitation Orders Must Be In Tomorrow

Deadline for ordering and payment for commencement announcements, invitations, and programs is tomorrow, according to an announcement by Jerome H. Haimsohn '42 and James A. Ritter '42, co-chairmen of the senior invitation committee.

Invitation and announcements are five cents each and programs cost 50 cents apiece.

Political Leaders Campaign Tonight At Mass Meeting

Schwab Auditorium will borrow the atmosphere of a political convention hall tonight as campus politicians gather to sell their parties to the students at an All-College mass meeting. The political show will start promptly at 7:15 p. m.

The highlight of the rally will be the presentation of the two candidates for All-College president, Jerome H. Blakeslee of the Campus party and William C. Mazzocco of the Independent clique.

Both candidates will be allowed five-minute speeches. Other candidates will be introduced and each party platform will be explained. All class president candidates will make three-minute speeches.

After the mass meeting is over, campaigning will be in full swing. There will be no lull in soap-box activities until the elections are staged on March 24, 25, and 26. Any party found guilty of campaigning before the mass meeting ends will be penalized 20 votes for the offense, the Elections Committee has ruled.

Each party also must submit to Jeanne C. Stiles '42, chairman of Elections Committee, its plan of campaign and estimate of all expenses on or before noon today. A final official itemized list of expenditures and receipted bills must be submitted to the chairman by 7 p. m. Monday, March 23.

Nolph, 2-Year Ag, Killed In Accident

Herman W. Nolph, 24, sophomore Two-year Agriculture student, was killed instantly when he was thrown from a stock car in the Pennsylvania Railroad yards near Pitscairn, Pa. He was taking a carload of sheep to Nashville, Tenn.

The accident occurred when an oil tank car, one of two behind the stock car, jumped the track locking the air brakes and causing the sudden jolt.

Nolph, whose home is in Heathville, Jefferson County, Pa., was a member of 4-H Club and earned a large part of his expenses doing experimental work for the College. He was to have graduated in May.

Funeral services will be held in a country church near his home tomorrow at 2 p. m. He is survived by Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Nolph, who live on a farm near Heathville.

'Screwy' Titles, Weird Arrangements Tag Raymond Scott as Mystery Man

To many, Raymond Scott, who will play at Interfraternity Ball on March 27, is a mystery because of his uniquely-titled, surrealist dance arrangements. Not even his most devout fans feel that they have "figured him out." But Scott says he can't understand this.

His orchestra is of normal-size—13 musicians plus Scott and vocalists Billy Leach and Dorothy Collins. It has the correct number of brass, reed, and rhythm. But there ends the band's similarity to any other orchestra.

Using unusual tonal effects which have been called "futuristic" and "ultra-modern," Scott and his orchestra play both original

Matmen Cop EIWA Team Title; Three Lions Take Honors

Fighting Nittany Lions roared their way through a maze of prospective champions and upset favored Penn to stalk off with the coveted Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association team title at the annual classic held in Rec Hall last weekend.

Three Penn State men emerged as individual champions qualified to represent the EIWA in the grappling Nationals at Michigan State on March 27-28.

Captain Glen Alexander, 145-pounds; Charlie Ridenour, 121-pounds; and Sam Harry, 128-pounds; took first places while contributing to the team score of 30 points which gave the Spidelmen the first team title since 1937 and the ninth since 1918.

Although Penn managed to enter five men in the finals, two of whom met Nittany grapplers, the Penn State squad placed enough second and third place winners to outpoint the Quakers' 23 counters.

Ralph Sayre, rugged 165-pound Lion matman, and 175-pound Bob Morgan forged through for second place posts. Mike "double-bubble" Kerns, heavyweight, walked off with the only Blue and White third place.

Navy, rated as a pre-tourney runner-up with Penn State, matched the Nittany squad by snagging three individual championships but acquired only 17 points to take third place.

In the 121-pound championship final Charlie Ridenour, fiery defender of the Lion's only 1941 title, defeated Carl Sparke, previously unbeaten in dual competition, 9-2.

Ridenour went right to work

MURDER SUSPECTS—All of the above—John S. Keck '42, Jean E. Hershberger '43, William E. Reimer '45, Joanne M. Palmer '43, and Sol G. Jaffe '44—are involved in bloody manslaughter at the Players' presentation of "Mr. and Mrs. North" next Friday and Saturday nights at Schwab Auditorium.

Coed Journalists Seize Control Of Collegian

If typewriters could register smiles, you would be facing an ear-to-ear grin as it is coyly announced that tomorrow the women's staff will publish The Daily Collegian.

After being delegated to page four for 149 out of 150 issues, we are ready, willing, and able, too, (you wait and see) to "take over"

Phi Sigma Kappa Elects

Robert H. Roy '43 was elected president of Phi Sigma Kappa at elections Monday evening. Other officers chosen were John T. Gary '44, vice-president; George S. Roy '43, treasurer; C. Philip Moore Jr., secretary; Peter Scott '45, sentinel; Elwood R. Hendrikson '43, inductor; and C. Eugene Cassel '44, social chairman.

Collegian Elects 11 Men To Junior Edit Board

Eleven members of the Sophomore Editorial Board of The Daily Collegian were promoted to the Junior Board at elections held Sunday.

Those promoted were: Benjamin M. Bailey, Larry T. Chervenak, Fred E. Clever, Milton Dolinger, Robert M. Faloon, Robert T. Kimmel, Robert E. Kinter, Richard B. McNaull, Richard D. Smyser, Donald L. Webb, and Paul I. Woodland.

Late News Flashes...

WASHINGTON — Men drafted in the U. S. armed forces will be inducted previous to medical examinations, according to a new plan adopted by the Selective Service Board. This plan was released on the eve of the National Draft Lottery.

WASHINGTON — The historic "goldfish" bowl, used in draft lotteries for the past two wars, was brought to Washington from Philadelphia last night for tonight's draft lottery. Random pulling of thousands of numbered capsules will determine the order in which men between 20 and 40 will be called.

WASHINGTON — "Let's make the Axis dance to our tunes," is the new slogan of the War Productions Board. WPB has ordered out of existence by May 1 all manufacturers of "Juke" boxes, pin-ball machines and weighing machines.
