Rugs have been rolled up for a week in preparation for the opening and a new ping-pong table, donated by WSGA, has been installed. Mrs. Grace L. Hall, northwest hostess, declared last night. Twenty new recordings have been purchased for the occasion.

The playroom will occupy the center of northwest lounge and furniture has been shoved into background positions to make way for dancing, and table games. Provisions for checkers, pinocle, and jig-saw puzzles have been made with further plans to supply new games in accordance with coed demand.

Coed Donations To Hetzel Fund Exceed Men's; WSGA Gives Most

IWA, Philotes Okay Independent Plan

IWA and Philotes, independent women's organizations, approved the plan of electing an independent woman to All-College Cabinet at a meeting with retiring WSGA senior nominating committee yesterday, according to Jean Babcock '42, acting WSGA president.

Groups proposed that the nominating committee choose two candidates not affiliated with either organization at a meeting at Miss Babcock's home tomorrow night, after a recommendation from the dean of women's office.

Only independent women will vote for these candidates at All-College elections next week. The winner will serve on All-College Cabinet.

Women's organizations have contributed more than half of the total amount of money given by college organizations to Mrs. Hetzel's Fund for Emergencies, according to a recent report.

Of the 17 organizations providing gifts, 5 were women's associations, giving $685.82, as compared with a total of $999.51 from all organizations. These included WSGA, $316.82; WRA, $200; Panhellenic Council, $114; Mortar Board, $35; and Locust Lane Lodge, $20.

WSGA's contributions sprang from three Christmas drives, an unused balance from an old fund, and a benefit movie given in 1940 by Junior Service Board.

WRA divided proceeds from two Valentine dances to give to the fund, while Panhellenic Council sponsored a benefit bridge contest in 1940. Mortar Board's gift came from half the checking profits of the 1940 Spinsters Skip, and 1944 coeds of Locust Lane Lodge, town dormitory, took up their own collection to contribute.

Seventeen personal gifts to the fund amount to $414.03, 12 of which were given by women. There were two anonymous gifts of $5 each, one sent Christmas morning, 1939, and one January 2, 1941. The total receipts amount to $1,413.54.

Of the 281 loans made from the fund, 231 have been to men and 60 to women. Eighty-one of these loans were for food, 51 for fare home, and 47 for room rent. Only 3 coeds borrowed money for room rent, 10 for fare home, and 11 for food.

Other loans include personal, books or shoes, commencement expense, job interviews, eye glasses, clothes, extra medicinal expense, and class publications.

The first loan from the fund was made March 20, 1940. One loan of $13.40 was considered a gift. Up to and including February 19, 1942, loans have been made for a total of $2,588.87.

Loans now outstanding, to 22 students, equal $237.46. Of these, 6 are overdue by $62.46, while one loan of the remaining 16 is in process of payment as agreed. Three were made in January and 12 in February.

Janet Herzog '42, only coed enrolled in hotel administration, was awarded the $100 Pennsylvania Hotel Association Scholarship given annually to the outstanding student.

We, The Women 'Smart Kids' Rate Our Best Thanks

SMART KIDS RATE

In the excitement of congratulating new WSGA and WRA officers, we are likely to overlook retiring leaders.

Because they have instilled new ideas and enthusiasm in two major women's organizations, more than ever before, we owe them our thanks.

Installing the point system, beginning the petition plan for coeds to secure nominations and committee appointments, inviting coeds to WSGA Senate meetings, ceaseless defense activities—all these can be credited to retiring WSGA officers.

WRA's program has been expanded to make home eccers, liberal artists, as well as phys edders feel at home in White Hall. At every entrance, the Welcome mat inveigles tired coeds to stop for a little relaxation.

Possession foresight, retiring leaders realized that success of WSGA and WRA is dependent upon interest and participation of all women. Through their efforts more coeds know what goes on.

We like this new spirit which is being instilled in women's organizations. With everybody talking about defending democracy, it is heartening to observe attempts to further it. For their attitude and accomplishments, we doff our typewriter to retiring officers.
