Successor to The Free Lance, Established 1887

Collegian The Daily

OF THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE

Weather Spring Is Here!

VOL. 38-No. 115

TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 24, STATE-COLLEGE, PA.

PRICE: THREE CENTS

Speidel, Grieve Leave To Take Navy Commissions

Uncle Sam called, so Penn State contributed Charlie Speidel, veteran mat coach, and Robert Grieve, even if the Easter recess petition freshman track coach, to the na- is presented to the proper authoritional defense effort yesterday.

for a lieutenancy in the Naval Re- endar except for extraordinary serve, while Grieve and Craig reasons, which as yet have not White, graduate student and assist- been provided and probably won't ant freshman football coach who be. also left with the two coaches will same branch of Uncle Sam's armed

The three Penn Staters will start their 30-day indoctrination lis today along with 200 other college coaches from all over the at the Naval Academy in Annapo-

Lt.-Com. T. J. Hamilton, the Penn State coaches will serve as physical education instructors in the Charles R. Sorben '43 were elect-Navy's Pre - Flight Training ed varsity boxing and hockey Schools.

Speidel's sports history is a col-tions held yesterday. orful one with the most interesting chapter written right here on boxing and hockey campaigns the campus. He has produced were also released yesterday by three EIWA team champions and Neil M. Fleming, graduate man-19 individual champions in his 16year stay at Penn State.

Previous to his arrival in the Nittany hills, Speidel had gradu- ager, the graduation of the manated from Panzer School of Education and had wrestled on the 1924 Olympic team. He was also coach at the New York Athletic Club.

best compiled by any college coach ber, was Paul E. Panneton '44. in recent years, with his teams losing only 18 dual meets out of a possible 150. Charlie's teams were restrictions imposed upon the Board, Harold W. Loman, College purchasing agent announced.

(Continued on Page Three)

War Strikes Back; WPB Tightens Civilian Rationing

general spread in other directions; mick '42, Aldo Cenci '44, Robert manufacturers of print cloth have been ordered to cut production, been ordered to cut production, been placed upon the street of and a limit has been placed upon the use of goose and duck feathers, except for Army and Navy sleeping purposes.

Affecting students will be the curtailment of typewriter sales and rentals. All typewriters now on rental must be returned by April 30. Elimination of vests in scenes of a stage production get trousers will save nearly 50 mil- show. lion pounds of raw wool, while consumption.

Stating that it may not be possible to buy adding machine and campus. typewriter ribbons unless the used spools are returned in exchange, 7:30 o'clock Friday evening and swiping a men's room door. And Loman requested that all such at 7 o'clock Saturday evening for it has been reported that Robert spools be saved, as well as all IF Ball crowds, a blackout will J. Lyman '42 has color wheels on other metal containers.

watch their slices and aces. Pres- placed over the windows. ent indications reveal that golf and tennis balls will be unre- hands and managers have other William H. Cissel '43 designed placeable after stock on hand is unusual problems. Henry F. Da- most of the costumes and traveled depleted.

your nail pairings may be useful Bellefonte. He also dug up a Helsel, Jr. '42 is in charge of yet.

No Easter Vacation, Officials Intimate

Will April 3 and 4 be declared a College holiday? The answer to this question, which currently is providing grounds for an unpfficial student petition, appears to be a definite

College officials intimated that ties in time, in all probability the Speidel, veteran of 16 wrestling Council of Administration will not campaign, at State will be eligible make any change in its new cal-

It was pointed out that students be eligible for ensignships in the going home for Easter would be granted excuses, but that they would be responsible for class work missed.

Picked from 6,000 applicants by Managers Elected

Jerome H. Blakeslee '43 and managers respectively, in elec-

Lists of lettermen for the recent ager of athletics.

Despite the fact that Blakeslee was elected varsity boxing manserve for the 1942-43 season. He is Benjamin F. Leaman Jr. '44. dual-meet seasons was one of the ship of the rink squad with Sor-He will fill the same capacity for the hockey team as Leaman will fill for the pugilists.

Freshmen boxing first assistants elected were S. Barry Ander- fraternity men. son, Robert G. Meinkein, and George S. Page. Kenard W. Rumage '44 and Howard L. Schwartz Athletic Association '44 were selected as alternates for the mitt squad.

First assistants still in the competition for the hockey manager-Guns before girdles, airplanes ship are Richard E. Yoder, David were Jack R. Grey '44, Jess V. ced vesterday. Now that Washington has for- Fardella '43, C. Homer Hoffman

All-College Election Polls Open Old Main Lounge at 12:30

Political Pugilists—There are only three rounds for William C. Mazzocco (I), left, and Jerome H. Blakeslee (C) to go for the All-College presidency. Elections, occupying three days, will start today at 12:30 p. m. and continue each day, ending Thursday.

Tomorrow Last Day For IF Ball Booths

that booth reservations for Interager-politico necessitated the elec- fraternity Ball must be made at > Student Union on Thursday and who will be in 305 Old Main, Wed-Friday. Independent men who nesday, Thursday, and Friday. wish to attend Friday night's ball must obtain their tickets through

To Hold Nominations In Rec Hall Friday

Nominations for Athletic Assodation garments, there will be a team captain, Joseph A. McCor- surer. Requirements for the Ath- June.

V-7, V-1 Recruiter Reminding Raymond Scott fans To Visit Campus

tion of a manager to actually Student Union by noon tomorrow, ested in the Navy's new V-1 pro- ber (C) will campaign against Wilthe dance committee stated that gram and juniors and seniors liam T. Richards (I) for class hiseach fraternity must supply its wishing to make preliminary ap-torian. -Speidel's record during his 16 - Elected to the head manager own furniture and transportation plication for V-7 Naval Reserve The committee will sell tickets Training program should report to approved or disapproved by stuto fraternity social chairmen at Ensign Marshall L. Thompson, dent vote at the All-College elec-

> Ensign Smith will interview all on All-College Cabinet. students interested in either of made at the Old Post Office, Pitts- for this office. burgh, Pa.

by the Navy with a view to further '43 or Muriel S. Taylor '43 to repbefore typewriters, ships before L. Reese, and Robert W. Bruce ciation offices for the coming year expansion of the Naval Reserve resent them. Only Independent refrigerators, are but a few of the Jr., all freshmen. First alternates will be held in the balcony of program. The College recently coeds may vote for them. The for the rink sport are Ronald B. Recreation Hall at 3:30 p. m. Fri- sent to the Navy a proposed V-1 winner will also serve on WSGA public by the War Production Adams '44 and Robert L. Allen '44. day, James W. Ritter, president of set-up in which the facilities of the Senate in an ex-officio capacity. Varsity lettermen in boxing the Athletic Association, announ- College for such a program were set forth. If the Navy approves races in this election will result Nominations will be made for this proposal, it will go into effect bidden the use of rubber in foun- '43, Robert D. Baird '43, this year's the offices of president and trea- when the new freshmen enter in > information concerning V-1. As described by the Navy department, not more than 80,000 men between the ages of 17 and 19 inclusive atthroughout the country may be enlisted each year.

with proper qualifications will be men's suits and cuff's on men's gray hair in the course of just one wheels on their brains have join- selected yearly to transfer to V-5

Enter IF Bridge Finals

Beta Sigma Rho, Phi Kappa Tau, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Kappa Sigma and Lambda Chi Alpha entered the final round of the Interfraternity Bridge Tournament last night, and will play the field to determine the trophy winner at the Nittany Lion Inn, 7 p. m. Wednesday, Sidney R. Geist '42, chairman announced.

ley, Jr., '43, properties manager, to New York to order fabrics. last night's semi-final round were for the War Camp Community Alpha Chi Sigma, Alpha Kappa Pi, Service and served on a national anything away. Who knows, even (not the feminine type, sorry) in of the coeds' costumes. Walter D. Delta Tau-Delta, Delta Chi, Tau committee to raise $175,000,000 Kappa Epsilon, Phi Epsilon Pi, and for the United War Work Cam-Phi Sigma Kappa.

Blakeslee, Mazzocco Vie For Highest Post

All thoughts of boxing gloves will be shelved in favor of votegetting when Jerome H. Blakeslee '43 (C), junior class president and new boxing manager, and William C. Mazzocco '43 (I), expugilist, climb into the political ring for the All-College presidency at the polls today, tomorrow, and Thursday.

The polls in the first floor lounge of Old Main will be open from 12:30 p. m. until 8 p. m. today and tomorrow. On Thursday the polls will be open from 9:30 a. m. until 8 p. m.

Blakeslee's running mate is Jess V. Fardella, 127-pound boxer, and Glenn W. Ely will run for election on the Independent ticket. The All-College president and vice-president will be elected on the same vote.

David J. McAleer (I) and Charles Ridenour (C) oppose each other for the senior class presidency. Their running mates will be David J. Woods (I) and Richard S. Peifly (C): Robert H. P. J. Jordan (C) and J. Hilary Kelley (I) seek the office of treasurer.

Betty E. Eshleman (I) will oppose Marjorie E. McFarland (C) Freshmen and sophomores inter- for secretary, and Charles J. Sor-

. With the new constitution to be tions, representation will be given both independent men and women

For the right to represent the these programs, give preliminary men, Richard S. Kurtz '43, presiphysical examinations and give in-dent of the IMA, and John C. formation as to all necessary ma- York '43, president of the Penn terial and forms needed for enlist- State Club, will vie for election. ment. Formal enlistment must be Only independent men may vote

Independent women will select The V-1 plan has been initiated by vote either M. Pauline Rugh

> Probably one of the closest (Continued on Page Four)

Those active in defense work on the campus, in the borough, tending accredited colleges and throughout Centre County. will meet in 121 Sparks at 8 p. m. tomorrow to hear an address by Approximately 20,000 V-1 men Dr. A. C. Marts, director of the State Council of Defense.

According to Dean Arthur R. Warnock, chairman, all participants in Red Cross work are also invited to the meeting. The State director is expected to talk on the importance of the civilian defense workers in a war for victory. A talk will also be given by Charles E. Freeman, of Philipsburg, County defense chairman.

Dr. Marts, who is president of Bucknell University, is a noted educator, business man, and organizer. Prior to the last war he served as vice-president of the Standard Life Insurance Co., Pittsburgh. During the war he Other teams that competed in directed an $18,000,000 campaign paign.

Thespians To Play 'Hide 'N Peek' With Blackout, Spies, Schemes

Sometimes the men behind the property.

strated for the first time on the schemes.

be necessary for the proper stage the brain. He was placed Summer sport fans had better effects. Black curtains will be charge of lighting.

In other words, do not throw found it a pleasure to hunt a siren Ruth E. Silberkraus '44 made most human skeleton somewhere for a men's costumes.

Even spies and men with color ed Thespians' stage group. Don- Naval Air Corps Reserves. Thespians' new show, "Hide 'n' ald R. Russel '43 has designed the four-fifths of all top-grain leather Peek," on Friday and Saturday, scenes. He was aided by a corps has been set aside for military will present an entirely new prob- of spies who were sent to lurk in Five Fraiernity Teams lem. A blackout will be demon- coeds' rooms to get ideas for color Cadmus G. Goss '44, stage man-Because the show will start at ager, drew the doubtful honor of

A lot of designing technique in-Besides the blackout, stage fluences the success of a show.