

WSGA Dance To Be Formal

Tails and evening gowns will replace last year's informal attire at the annual WSGA dance in Recreation Hall on April 11, it was announced at WSGA Senate meeting last night.

The Campus Owls will play from 9 p. m. to midnight for coeds and their dates who will be admitted without charge. Eighty invitations have been issued to faculty and administration members.

Headed by E. Louise Hack '42, committees include Claire H. Hildinger '42 and Elizabeth E. Munroe '43, invitations; Janet M. Hartz '42, chairman, M. Elizabeth Shelly '42, and E. Elizabeth Eshleman '43, publicity.

Jeannette C. Stiles '42, former WSGA Judicial Committee chairman, reported that she and Raymond F. Leffler '42, former Tribunal head, plan to secure coordination between men and women's freshmen regulations.

Upon suggestion of Marjorie L. Sykes '43, present Judicial Committee head, WSGA Senate decided to send letters clarifying women's regulations to all hostesses in an attempt to secure more uniformity.

Ruth M. Storer '44, junior senator, in charge of the point system, urges coeds who have added activities since the survey to contact her.

Invited to attend next week's Senate meeting are Dorothy J. Frank '43, Marjorie L. McNoldy '43, Marjorie I. Zint '43, Harriette Block '44, Ruth E. Conrad '44, Carolyn K. Champlin '45, Alice R. Fox '45, Betty Heacock '45, Vivien I. Martin '45, and Jean B. Ogden '45.

Randolph '43 Named HE Club President

Helen L. Randolph '43 was elected president of the Home Economics Club last night to succeed Margaret E. Middleton '42. Other officers are Mildred Friedman '43, vice-president; Clara E. House '43, secretary; and Margaret L. Campsey '44, treasurer.

Elected to serve on the Club executive council were Cheryl Charlson and Mary Lou Goynes, juniors; Edith D. Dengler and M. Jane Head, sophomores; Betty Lou Hornick and Ola Marie Rokos, freshmen.

WSGA To Poll Play Facilities

To plan coed recreation for the Summer semester, a WSGA House of Representatives committee was appointed yesterday by Dorothy K. Brunner '44, WSGA vice-president, to investigate available College facilities.

Committee members are Annette M. Ingaldi '43, Helen H. Wolf '43, Martha J. Haverstick '44, and F. Doris Stevenson '44. The committees will cooperate with the women's physical education department.

Ushers announced for the College Glee Club concert, a Red Cross benefit, in Schwab Auditorium at 8 p. m. tomorrow are Jean Babcock '42, Sylvia P. Schmidle '42, Lois M. Gardner '43, Miss Ingaldi, Miss Brunner, Miss Stevenson, Ruth M. Storer '44, Patricia Diener '45, and Kathleen M. Osgood '45.

Steinfurth Strikes To Win Bowling Title

A strike in the final frame of four games copped the All-College bowling championship for June Steinfurth '43 last night.

Trailing by only seven points, Betty Widger '42 finished second with a score of 581. Barbara Cooper '44 placed third with 541 and Elaine Hunter '43 followed with 536. Eighteen women participated in the tournament which began Monday.

Alpha Chi's Initiate

Alpha Chi Omega celebrated the tenth anniversary of its founding on campus last night with the initiation of 22 pledges. Initiation was held at the Friends' Meeting House at 5:30 p. m. An initiation banquet was held in the banquet room of The Corner Room at 7:30 p. m. All alumni were invited. The speaker was Anna Pauline Locklin.

250 Attend Reception

Approximately 250 faculty and administration members, their wives, and junior and senior women attended the formal reception in Old Main lounge from 8 to 10 p. m. last night. Anita M. Knecht '42 and Jane G. Ludwig '44 played background music and the varsity quartet sang.

Officers Named

Third semester officers elected by Allen Street Dormitory include Doris E. Porter '44, president; Neva M. Peterson '44, vice-president; and Helen R. Cigoi '43, secretary. Marian A. Whitcomb '44 is acting as president in the absence of Louise E. Carter '42.
