

IM Soccer Continues

Three more games were run off yesterday afternoon in the preliminary round of the fraternity division in the intramural soccer tournament.

The Phi Sigs defeated Beta Sigma Rho, 2-0; Alpha Kappa Pi fell before SAE, 1-0; and Sigma Nu toppled Sigma Phi Alpha, 2-0.

Delta Tau Delta faces Phi Kappa Sigma and Phi Gamma Delta meets Alpha Chi Sigma No. 2 in today's only scheduled games.

Gettysburg Nine Invades Lion Den As Bedenk Seeks Startling Hurler

Looking toward their second win of the season, Penn State's baseball team will meet the Gettysburg Bullets on the New Beaver field diamond at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Two factors will have an important bearing on the turnout of today's battle.

First is the pitcher. With only one good hurler on the squad, and his arm tired from hurling a three-hit win over the Dickinson nine yesterday, Coach Joe Bedenk will have to worry about the mound position. As a result the Lion coach will reserve his decision until game time.

Tuleya could possibly be available, but it is more likely he will be saved for the stiff contest against Colgate here tomorrow.

Second is the Gettysburg team. Coach Bob Plank sports a greatly improved squad over last year's nine which the 1941 Lions drubbed 21-1 in six innings. Several sophomores will also dot the Bullets' lineup.

Coach Bedenk is using the same strategy he employed for the Red Devils by withholding the starting outfielders until the Gettysburg pitcher is known. If the visitors place a southpaw on the mound, Joe Piontek, John Ebersole and probably Tom Sidler would go in the outfield, while the same combination used against Dickinson will take the field to face a right hander.

In the infield, Oggie Martella is the favorite to don the mask after his performance yesterday. Captain Bill Debler is a certainty for first base duties; Fran Farris will

Netmen Face Lehigh Without Bowmen

Penn State's netmen, minus the services of Captain Cluck Bowman, will play on foreign territory for the initial time this year this afternoon when they tangle with Lehigh at Bethlehem in the first of a two-game road trip.

Bowman, who was slated to start in the number three slot today, has been suffering from recurring pains in the side. College physicians have ordered him to bed to prevent a possible appendicitis operation.

hold down the keystone spot; Whitey Thomas will be posted at short stop; and Spunky Brown will lineup at third, although Sidler may break into the lineup in that position.

The Wiley-Lo Dorm waiters defeated Penn Haven in a close 5-game horseshoe pitching contest last night.

Circus To Have Musical Variety

As Penn State's fourth annual All-College Circus, "Penn State Revue in 1942," enters the final week of preparation, group of musicians under the direction of Frank Gullo and Mrs. Jeanette C. Disden, are busy putting the final touches to the musical scores that are to provide the background for the production.

Unlike the "oompah" blaring brass numbers that characterize professional circus troupes, the revue's selections will be in harmony with the "Symphony in Motion" exhibition.

Ever since the first circus in 1939, Gullo has directed the band for the circus. Mrs. Wisden also will be directing her fourth string ensemble for the Wettstone-managed affair.

The ensemble, composed of musicians from various campus organizations, has become so popular that they are now swarmed with requests for dinner-hour concerts.

The groups have been practising nightly for over two weeks and by April 25 they hope to have a program of numbers that will be entirely in keeping with each of the individual acts.

Stickmen Meet Cornell In Home Season Opener

Lacrosse fans will see the Penn State varsity in action for the first time tomorrow on New Beaver Field when the Lion stick-wielders meet Cornell in their home-opener at 2 p. m.

Following the defeat at the hands of Navy last weekend, the lacrossemen have been running through stiff drills and field scrimmages.
