

Home Ec To Sponsor Two Conferences

Alumnae To Gather For Annual Meeting

The home economist's contribution to present day family life will be the theme of the fourth annual Home Economics Alumnae Conference in Home Economics from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. today. All alumnae, townspeople, mothers, and students are invited.

Guests will register in Home Economics lobby from 9 to 10 a. m. where, during a coffee hour, Prof. R. W. Kerns, of the State Extension Service, will show how home-made games are constructed and played.

Miss Margery Vaughn, nutritionist of the United States Office of Defense Health and Welfare, Washington, D. C., will speak on "Nutrition for Health," in 110 Home Economics from 10 to 11 a. m., and will begin group discussions with a lecture on "Nutrition for Defense" from 2 to 3:30 p. m.

Students interested in consumer problems may meet with Dr. Benjamin A. Andrews, Columbia University, in 19 Home Economics from 10 to 11 a. m. Dr. Mildred T. Tate, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, will discuss family life problems with interested persons in the Nursery School at 11 a. m.

The film, "And So They Live," from the Sloan Foundation Services, will be shown from 11 a. m. to 12 noon. Luncheon at the State College Hotel, with greetings by Dr. Laura Drummond, home economics director, will follow from 12 noon to 1:30 p. m.

Dr. Andrews, Miss Clara M. Brown, University of Minnesota, Dr. Tate and Miss Vaughn will lead group discussions concerning above topics from 2 to 3:30 p. m.

Tea will be served from 3:30 to 4 p. m. in 221 Home Economics, and exhibits will be on display in Rooms 106, 108, 110, and 221.

Frosh To Herald Move-up Day

At noon today, freshman women will be granted sophomore privileges as Move-up Day, set by WSGA Senate, marks their official recognition as sophomores. The Cwen breakfast this morning will be the last function they will attend as freshmen.

New privileges include 10 o'clocks on week days, one 11 o'clock each month, two 1 o'clocks on weekends, and dating privileges during the week.

Mother's Day

(Continued from Page One)

will play Cornell in its first home game of the season on New Beaver Field at the same time. Colgate will be the first major opponent of the year for the baseball team at 2:30 p. m.

Penn State Players will present their second showing of "The Beautiful People," by William Saroyan in Schwab Auditorium at 8:30 p. m. today.

Home Economics Building will hold an open house from 10 a. m. to noon today; Louise Homer Club, women's music honorary, and the Men's Glee Club will entertain in 117 Carnegie Hall from 3 to 4 p. m.; and White Hall will be open at the same time for visitors.

With sororities and town dormitories acting as co-hostesses, Atherton Hall, Grange Dormitory, McAllister Hall, and Women's Building will give open houses from 4 to 5 p. m. today. Men and women students are urged to bring friends.

The annual Panhellenic Sing will be held in Schwab Auditorium from 1:30 to 3 p. m. today with 11 sororities vying for the contest trophy.

Final item on the weekend calendar will be the annual complimentary Glee Club concert in Schwab auditorium at 2:30 p. m.

Sunday through Tuesday. Contact PSCA Office at once.

FOR SALE — $30 single-breasted tuxedo, size 36 for only $8.00. Very good condition—Call Jim 3412; Alpha Phi Delta. 1tpd 18M

LOST—K and E Slide Rule, Saturday, April 11, Chem-Phys Bldg. Brown leather case. Finder please call Bob Reichelderfer, 4056. 2tpd 18,21M

Omicron Nu Plans Vocational Program

To further inform home economics students, and others interested, of careers in phases of home economics, Omicron Nu, senior majors' honorary, will sponsor its second annual Vocational Guidance Conference Day, in Home Economics Tuesday.

Miss Elizabeth Beveridge, Women's Home Companion, home management editor, and Miss Agnes Brumbaugh, College home economics extension director, will hold conferences with interested coeds after 9 a. m.

Women may sign for talks today, and Tuesday on lists posted on a bulletin boards in Home Economics lobby.

Conference climax will be a student-faculty Career Day dinner in the Maple Room at 7 p. m. Guest speaker will be Miss Clara M. Brown, professor of home economics education, University of Minnesota, who started curricular problem work at the College on a visit in 1939-40.

Career Day committee members are Seniors Bertha K. Barclay, chairman, Marjorie A. Geer, Helen D. Gottschalk, Betty M. Martin, and Jane M. Roush. Miss Mildred H. Larson, assistant professor of home economics, is faculty advisor.

Cromer Heads AAUW

Mrs. C. Otis Cromer was re-elected president of AAUW recently. Other officers include Miss Evelyn Hensel, vice-president; Mrs. John J. Gibbons, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frederick T. Mavis, recording secretary; and Mrs. Joseph F. O'Brien, member-at-large. The next meeting will be at a dinner in the State College Hotel banquet room May 28.

Archers Practice For Wire Meet

In preparation for its entry in the National Intercollegiate Telegraphic Archery Meet next week, the Archery Club, headed by President Kathryn H. Thomas '43, has been working out on Holmes Field from 4 to 6:30 p. m. every afternoon.

Coached by their advisor, Miss Harriet Gray, graduate assistant in physical education; club members will shoot from April 21 to 28, eight highest scores to be recorded and telegraphed to Boston, headquarters for the meet.

The contest will include the Columbia Round, consisting of 24 arrows shot at 50, 40, and 30 yards each. It takes most coeds about an hour and a half to complete such a round.

This will be the 13th year that the nation-wide contest has taken place. Approximately 300 colleges have participated in it during the past two years. Mary L. Lenker '43 was Columbia Round high scorer for Penn State in last year's meet.

Brill To Discuss Women In War

"Women's Jobs in Winning the War" will be discussed by Miss Julia G. Brill in 121 Sparks at 4:10 p. m., Tuesday, April 21. All coeds, especially juniors and seniors, are urged by the dean of women's office to attend.

Miss Brill recently attended a conference on "War Demands for Trained Personnel," sponsored by the Women's Institute of Professional Relations in Washington, D. C. Information from nationally famous speakers, on opportunities for women at the present time, will form the basis of Miss Brill's speech.

Seminar Asks Public To Housing Panel

Seminar, graduate home economics group, will hold a panel discussion on housing, open to the public, in 220 Home Economics, Wednesday, at 4 p. m.

Leading the discussion will be Miss Ruth L. Bonde, assistant professor of home economics; Howard R. Cottam, assistant professor of rural sociology; Carl W. Wild, professor of landscape architecture; and Duane V. Ramsey, assistant professor of sociology.

RENT A BICYCLE
112 Miles St.

Shows at 1:30, 3:00, 6:45, 8:45
Cathaum
TODAY - MON. - TUES.
Two Wackys are at it again... only this time it's love!

ABBOTT-COSTELLO
RIO-RITA
with KATHRYN GRAYSON and JOHN CARROLL

CLASSIFIED SECTION

LOST — Tuesday K and E slide rule. Call Stanley Ulick, 3256, leave message. Reward.

3tch 17, 18, 19 JM

FOR RENT — Furnished apartment, May 12 to September 1. Men students only. Call 4163.

ANYONE WITH A CAR—Opportunity of participating in the Political Science, PSCA Washington trip. All expenses paid. This

A Beguiling and Tender Comedy
Atkinson — Times

The Beautiful People
by William Saroyan presented as the Mother's Day production of The Penn State Players
Schwab Auditorium
Tonight 8:30 P. M.

Welcome Mothers

Rea and Derick hope that the mothers of our several thousand student customers will enjoy their visit to the campus and town. We trust that your visits to points of interest will include a stop at the students' favorite drug store.

REMEMBER— MOTHER LIKES NICE THINGS TOO

You have chosen gifts for others and know that Rea and Derick's have the toiletries of all the leading makers and experts on toilet goods available to aid you in your selection. Now is the time to take advantage of this service to choose a remembrance for Mother.

Toiletries...

- by Lenthéric — Lucien LeLong
- Yardley — Coty — Caron — Dorothy Gray — Elmo — Corday — DeRaymond — Hudnut — Faberge.

Large assortment of Whitman's standard packages in special Mother's Day dress.
$1.10 to $3.00

GIFT PACKAGES FOR ANY OCCASION WRAPPED FOR SAFE MAILING WITHOUT CHARGE.

REA & DERICK INC
CUT RATE STORES
WHERE SPENDING IS SAVING
Allen St. Next to Bank Clock

REG HALL 9 to 12
● INFORMAL

TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT
AG FROLIC
● FREE AMUSEMENTS

Admission $1.10 per couple
● CAMPUS OWLS