

Alston Injured As Gridders Top Navy

Penn State's football team lost the services of Dave Alston for the remainder of the Spring practice schedule because of an injury suffered by the freshman tailback in the Navy encounter last Saturday, but not before the brilliant Nittany star had led the Blue and White gridders to an easy 12-6 victory over the Midshipmen.

Alston suffered an eye bruise in the final three minutes of the game when the Lions tried a reverse to the weak side with Alston giving the ball to St. Clair. It fooled the Navy line so completely that they tackled the original ball-handler and left the speedy St. Clair go for a gain around the weak end of the line.

Although Alston will be ready for the Fall schedule, he will be lost for the Duquesne game on New Beaver Field this Saturday. He is recuperating from the injury at the Naval Academy hospital and will return to the College tomorrow or Thursday, according to Dr. Griess, team physician.

This will place a heavy burden on the shoulders of Bud Davis, freshman who has just returned to the Spring drills after a knee injury, since he will have to take care of the tailback duties against the Smoky City Dukes in place of Alston.

If Davis, chunky 155-pounder, is lost, a real problem will be created for Bob Higgins who has no other tailback replacements.

Despite the low score, the Nittany team outdrove the Navy team throughout the game with two touchdown marches stalling inside the five-yard marker because of fumbles.

The Lion touchdowns were scored by Johnny Potskian on a pass from Alston and by Jeff Durkota on a reverse, while the Midshipmen chalked up their lone tally on an intercepted pass thrown by Chuck MacFarland; substitute Nittany fullback.

IM Soccer, Handball Tournaments Advance

Intramural tournaments started anew and reached a final stage in two sports over the weekend and yesterday.

Gardner Lindzey, Kappa Sigma, defeated two-time handball champion John Gerecter, Beta Sigma Rho, last night to win the fraternity handball title. Lindzey advanced to the finals by defeating Wally Riley Saturday. Scores in last night's games were 15-10 and 15-6.

Soccer competition was begun Friday with Phi Kappa Sigma defeating Delta Tau Delta, 3-0, and Phi Gamma Delta forfeiting to Alpha Chi Sigma No. 2. Yesterday's games saw Alpha Chi Sigma No. 1 defeat Delta Chi, 2-0, after two extra periods of play.

Today's soccer schedule pits Delta Upsilon against Kappa Sigma, Alpha Sigma Phi against Phi Sigma Kappa No. 2, and Alpha Gamma Rho against Phi Delta Theta.

Lacrosse Team Wins Home Opener; Scores 9-4 Victory Over Cornell

Continuing their lacrosse jinx over the Big Red team, Coach Nick Thiel's varsity lacrosse team chalked up a 9-4 win on New Beaver Field Saturday afternoon.

A clicking offensive was the main reason for the Lion success, with Jim Ritter throwing in three goals from his center position to take scoring honors of the day. Within 25 seconds of the start of the battle, Ritter scored a goal. He repeated his scoring 30 seconds later when he sank another.

With this early lead built up in such a hurry, the Thielmen were able to coast to a win in an easy fashion. Several times during the remaining time the team from Ithaca threatened but was subdued.

Coach Nick Thiel called upon 21 of his squad in an effort to condition them for the away game with Syracuse this weekend.

Sophomores did a large share of the Penn State scoring. George Pittinger tossed the ball into the nets two times and Tom Mitchell and Bill Piper each scored one. Remaining two points for the Lions were scored by Bob Koch from his inside-home spot. Other outstanding work was turned in by Captain Bill Ziegenfus from his defense slot, Charlie Temkovits, who was credited with three assists, and by Jim Gotwals at his point position.

Tuleya Hurls 6-3 Colgate Victory

Penn State's baseballers will try for their fourth win on the New Beaver field diamond at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon before going away for two weekend games.

Syracuse will be the foe away Friday, and Colgate will get another shot at Joe Bedenk's diamond nine at Hamilton Saturday.

Last Saturday, in weather more ideal for football, the Blue and White upset the Colgate nine, 6-3, as Tuleya pitched his second win of the season. He hurled a three-hit 10-4 win in the Dickinson opener, and rested when the Lions defeated Gettysburg, 16-12, Friday.

Tuleya, although he was nicked for eight hits, scattered them so that the Red Raiders scored a run apiece in the second, seventh and last innings.

Fran Farris, second baseman, topped both the hit and scoring columns by coming across the plate twice and getting three safeties, making a streak of seven hits in seven times up.

Penn Relay Entries Set For Saturday Meet At Time Trials

Saturday's time and field trials have served to determine for Chick Werner his entries in the Penn Relay Carnival to be held in Philadelphia Friday and Saturday.

Definitely hampered by the weather at drills and at Saturday's trials Werner has had no chance to definitely find what material he has. He has, though, been able to find his entries for the coming meet.

The entries are: four-mile relay, Goffberg, Miller, Stone, Gordon; sprint medley relay, Ewell, Dolbin, Nevill, Gordon; 440 and 880 relays, Dolbin, Schiff, Plessner, Ewell; freshman mile relay, Shuman, Dibeler, Williams, Karver.

Only two of the positions on the two-mile relay team have been determined definitely. They are Gordon and Hazel. The other two places will go to either Bourgerie, Peters, Miller, Max Smith, Stone, Goffberg, or Thiel. Definite placing here will be done today or tomorrow.

In the field events, winners in trials will be the entries. Saturday winners were: High jump, Krug, first; Hutteringer, second; Jones, third; pole vault, Bakura, first; Noll and Stemler, tied for second; javelin, Cohen, first; Bakura, second; Borges, third.

Discus, Frescoln, first; Hanin, second, Long, third; shot, Hanin, first; Frescoln, second, Cohen, third; hammer, Sloviser was the only thrower but Hanin will be entered in addition to him. High hurdle winners were Young, Maier, and Cowley in that order. Low hurdle trials were not run.

Lion Netmen Lose To Mules, 8 To 1

Playing in a high, changing wind which made accuracy impossible, the Lion courtmen dropped their first game this season to a vaunted Muhlenberg team by an 8-1 score in Bethlehem Saturday.

Despite the lopsided final score, the contest proved to be a nip-and-tuck battle all the way, with six of the nine matches being decided in extra sets.

Sophomore Herb Kraybill, playing at number six spot, won the only victory for Penn State by downing Ed Klink of the Mules in straight sets, 6-3, 6-3.

Cy Hull, at number one for State, lost to Moats, 7-5, 2-6, 1-6. Ace Parker dropped a heart-breaker to Muhlenberg's Minogue, 8-6, 6-4, after twice having his opponent at set point.

At the number three spot for State, Bill Lundelius bowed to Schantz, 2-6, 0-6. Sophomore Al Hendler lost to Bob Minogue, 6-2, 2-6, 3-6.

Johnny Knode dropped the final singles match to Weller of Muhlenberg, 6-3, 4-6, 2-6.

In doubles, Hull and Parker were forced to default to Moats and J. Minogue when Hull suffered a severe shinsplint. Their scores were 0-6, 2-4. Hendler and Lundelius bowed to Schantz and Bob Minogue, 2-6, 6-1, 1-6.

Knode and Kraybill were edged in the final by Weller and Ranken, 3-6, 6-1, 3-6.
