HE Seniors Show Sugarless Recipes In Demonstration

Third in a series of food demonstrations by seniors will be shown in 106 Home Economics at 10 a.m. today. Helene L. Snyder and Evon M. Wilson will present sugarless pecipes for "Tea on the Terrace."

Demonstrations will continue for two weeks, with two tomorrow, two Friday, and six next week. Marion M. Eberts will show "How to Keep Cool While Cooking" in 106 Home Economics at 10 a.m. tomorrow while Ruth Masood will prove "Springtime Is Salad Time" at 11 a. m.

"Delightful Recipes for Her Hospitality Cupboard" will be given by Dorothy E. Salzman in an effort to suggest menus for "last minute guests," at 9 a. m. Friday. Betty A. Mickey will prepare several dishes from "A Magic Plant, the Soy Bean" at 10 a.m.
Students and townspeople are invited to the open demonstrations. Door prizes will be given.

Sykes Announces New Regulations For '46 Freshmen

Because of the speeded-up program and changes that have occurred in the College year, Marjorie L. Sykes '43, WSGA Judicial Committee head, reported on the revised code for freshmen regulations at WSGA Senate meeting yesterday.

The first semester report starts off with a two weeks non-dating period, including absolutely no association with men and checking in at dormitories by 9:30 p. m. on weekends. Following this, freshman coeds may have daily association with men on campus until 5:30 p. m. and weekend dating permissions. On weekends, which include from 5:30 p. m. Friday to 5 gave us a lift after the hectic weekn. m. Sunday, freshman women end. pmay sign out for 11 o'clock permissions. They may have two one o'clock permissions a month.

weekend late permissions must be eds tire easily isn't completely irin dormitories by 9 p. m., freshmen relevent, however, because we are

At no time during the week may coeds to "slow down." men accompany freshman women Judging by their actions, we in dormitories, fraternity houses, know that WSGA Senate members or off campus.

men will have the same dating to all women's organizations reprivileges as upperclass women, questing that they eliminate unexcept for dating on week nights. necessary activities and make only 'They may have one o'clock permis- worthwhile demands upon memsions Friday and Saturday nights, bers. and a ten-o'clock Sunday night. Freshmen must be in dormitories

Miss Sykes reported that letters letters. will be sent out to all town dormi-ies clarifying coed regulations. Further Senate action included a recommendation from the point system committee that letters be sent to presidents of all women's organizations requesting that they eliminate unnecessary activities during the accelerated program. The committee suggested that in or not), teas and coffee hours formulating programs, organizations should remember that values have changed during the national emergency and attempt to make pause to think that demands on our only worthwhile demands on mem- physical and emotional strength hers.

the new Senate will consider wom- energy, and money which remain PW — New York. L. Friday noon. en's Summer regulations at the after meeting the necessary denext meeting. Old members rec- mands of attending college should emmended that 11 o'clocks replace be used for defense activities-10 p. m. week night permissions.

Funk To Be Installed

Emily L. Funk '43 will become president of Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, in Old College women rather than high Main at 5 o'clock today. Other officers to be installed are Jun- for long lists of activities beside iors Ruth Gerber, vice-president; their names in the yearbook. Jean A. Kelly, secretary; Ruth E. Morrow, treasurer; and Edith L. Smith, archivist.

What you hear never sounds Mear.

Mortar Board Taps 12 Coeds, Cwens, 23; Junior Service Board Names 16 Members

Cwens To Initiate Freshmen Sunday

Twenty-three freshman coeds tapped by Cwens, sophomore wom-Champlin, Ruth Clyde, D. Jane Cromis, Patricia Diener, Alice E. Drumm, Ruth A. Embury, Carolyn G. Greene, Mary Grace Longnecker, Julia H. McFarland.

Elizabeth L. McGee, Vivian I. Martin, Joan K. Miller, Jean B. president, ally in 1922 and the local chapter

Chosen for scholarship, leadership, and activities, Cwens, wearing gray jackets trimmed with red, aid in freshman orientation each year, give a party for alumnae Cwens, are hostesses at Mother's Day breakfast, and sponsor a formal dance. Dance proceeds this year made possible three $50 scholarships and a $25 gift to deserving

This year they have also particampaign.

Initiation of new Cwens members will be held at Alpha Zeta and Alpha Omicron Pi's songs fraternity Sunday. A formal din- were "AOPi Lullaby" and "Alpha charge of senior sponsors and gives Phi Mu defeated Alpha Chi Omener will follow.

We, The Women

Our Theme Song-"Slow Down!"

Here we go again. WSGA Senate took action yesterday which

Speaking of weekends, we feel like saying that mothers seemed able to "take it" better than their All those not signing out for coed daughters. The fact that cochecking-in time during the week. still writing about the need for also recognize this need. They During second semester, fresh- voted unanimously to send letters

Success of this action will be completely dependent upon the atmy 10 o'clock on week day nights. titude with which groups read the

> If they regard them as just another letter to mumble aloud in a business meeting for the sake of parliamentary proceedure, all is lost. Of if they read them distinctly and with understanding but continue the old routine of weekly meetings (whether they're needed "because we have to have an activity," all is still lost.

But if coeds read the letters and will become increasingly greater Miss Babcock pointed out that as the war cotinues; that anytime, then, then we will toss typewritten orchids as freely as checkers hand out blackmarks. 'Understand that we don't consider our commendations to be of primary importance. It's just that we like to see coeds acting like school kids who thoughtlessly aim

Zeta Tau Alpha will entertain seniors at a farewell party tomorrow night. Dora E. Colver '44 is in charge. A mushball IF PERSON who hooked my rainas important as what you over- game will be held for sorority

Alpha Chi Omega Honorary Taps Wins Panhel Sing College Trustee

Mortar Board, senior women's en's honorary include Carolyn K. and one honorary member; Cwens, senior women's honorary, were antapped 23; and WSGA Junior Service Board anounced 16 new Emerick, Margaret L. Good, Gloria members at the annual Mother's Day breakfast in McAllister Hall Saturday.

Dorothy L. Jones '44, Cwens directed tapping of Ogden, Florinne E. Olsen, Kathleen freshmen; Alice M. Murray '42, M. Osgood, Barbara C. Painter, Mortar Board president, named Marjorie H. Schultz, Winifred F. juniors who had been tapped at Singer, Ruth M. Steiner, R. Chris- 5:30 a. m.; and Margaret K. Shertine Yohe, and Miriam L. Zartman. man '43, WSGA -president, an-Cwens was established nation- nounced new Service Board mem-

> Competing against nine other sororities, Alpha Chi Omega won the third annual Panhellenic Sing fast will follow. trophy in Schwab Auditorium Saturday. Chi Omega placed second, and Alpha Omicron Pi received honorable mention.

With 600 attending the contest, Lyre" by Alpha Chi Omega were "Chi Omega Sweetheart college woman. sang Song" and "She Is a Chi Omega," Omicron Pi." V. Dorothy Rad- an annual dance. Proceeds of the ga by a close margin, 23-20. Oilie cliff '42 was mistress of cere-dance provided six $50 scholarmonies.

At the annual Mother's Day chapel service held in Recreation sponsored two speeches, and were Hall Sunday, John S. Kookogey '42 was awarded the John W. White medal and prize for outstanding scholarship in the senior class. Carl E. Marquardt, presented College examiner, awards and scholarships in the absence of President Ralph D. Hetzel.

New Service Board members. include Sophomores Cora C. Bier-Rooms Tonight brauer, Kathryn R. Brong, Barbara J. Cooper, Helen E. Dodd, Murphy, Elaine L. Park, Mary Jo yesterday. Powell, Margaret K. Ramaley, F. Doris Stevenson, and Lucille D. northeast lounge, Atherton Hall, Weinstein.

held in Grange playroom after a 7:15 p. m. party given by present members at 4:30 p. m. Thursday. WSGA bers yesterday are urged by Miss Junior Service Board was set up Nina M. Bentley, assistant dean of by WSGA in 1939 to act as a ser- women, to report to the dean of vice organization working with women's office this morning. yesterday that all coeds who wish WSGA. Aiming to develop lead- Otherwise, left-over rooms will be to participate in the All-College ers, WSGA ruled members of essigned to those women who do diving meet Thursday night Cwens ineligible.

Doing detail work for WSGA, tonight. Service Board members have cluded a party for commuting co- drawing. eds, party for school children, mester freshmen.

Rides Wanted

R. Sunday. C. Leslie 4171. 2tpd 21, 22

CLASSIFIED SECTION WRAPS EVENING mixed IF

Weekend in Phi Delt booth. Black velvet with white fur hoods. Other party call Peggy 4425.

WANTED - Several students for LOST-K and E Slide Rule, Satpart time work. Sophomores if qualified. Call 733 for interview this afternoon 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.

members and their dates Friday. doesn't return it, I'm going to get ward.

Tapped at 5:30 a. m. Saturday, honorary, announced 12 pledges new members of Mortar Board, breakfast.

> Chosen for scholarship, leaderclude Juniors Marjorie R. Chambers, Pauline Crossman, Louise M. Fuoss, Nancy E. Gosser, Jean E. Hershberger, Patricia MacKinny, cian. Joanne M. Palmer, Kathryn M. William D. Philips, College trus. Maple Room at 7 o'clock. tee, honorary member.

Initiation will be held in the Hugh Beaver Room, Old Main, at West 9 Wins

as Archousai, local senior women'shonorary, in 1927, the group join- Ath West defeated Ath East,

"Alpha Chi" and "Song of the provide for cooperation between softball championship yesterday. Lyre" by Alpha Chi Omega were societies, to promote college loy- The teams tied in their first judged best by Mrs. Duane V. alty, to advance high standards of match on Thursday, 11-11. Ramsey, Mrs. Willa W. Taylor scholarship, to recognize and encipated in defense work, Red Cross and Frank M. Gullo, assistant pro- courage leadership, and to stimu- Ath West with three runs. Helen projects, and the victory book fessors of music. Chi Omega late and develope a finer type of Hooper brought in two runs for Wearing white jackets trimmed in dark blue, Mortar Board has ships for deserving seniors women. Members sold defense stamps, active in defense courses.

Present Mortar Board members had the highest average ever at- Longenecker. tained by the honorary, 2.43. Three members, Jean Babcock, R. Helen Gordon, and Alice M. Murray had 3. average.

Coeds To Select

Upperclass women, returning to Sally L. Hirshberg, Dorothy J. college for either Summer or Fall Jennings, Mary E. Kuder, Prissemesters, will select rooms tocilla C. MacLellan, Mary J. Ma- night according to year and pri- are Phi Mu versus Kappa Delta, try, A. Jane Minnich, Jane H. ority numbers which were drawn

Junior women are to meet in at 6:30 p. m., while sophomores Election of new officers will be will gather in southwest lounge at

Coeds who did not draw numnot participate in the choosing should sign at the White Hall

According to last night's recharge of the activities point sys- cords, 94 juniors, 99 sophomores tem and transfer orientation. and 258 freshmen, totaling 451 co-

Freshman women will choose transfer coffee hour, tea for sec- rooms in McAllister Hall lobby at ond semester freshmen, and act- 6:30 p. m. Thursday instead of ing as big sisters to second se- Wednesday, Miss Ruth H. Zang, assistant dean of women, announced vesterday.

Brill To Speak

Miss Julia G. Brill, assistant professor of English composition, will speak on "Women's Jobs In Winning the War" in 121 Sparks at 4:10 p. m. today. All coeds, especially juniors and seniors, are urged by the dean of women's office to attend.

wet. My name is in it: Dean Clyde, 3tpd 21,22,23JO Dial 2419.

urday, April 11, Chem-Phys and freshmen preferred. Good pay Bldg. Brown leather case. Finder please call Bob Reichelderfer, 2tpd 18,21M . 1 teh 21 M

LOST - Wallet in vicinity of Stock Judging Pavilion, Saturcoat from Education Building day. Please call Jacob, 2544. Re-

Honorary To Hold Vocational Day

Omicron Nu, senior majors honorary, will sponsor its second an-_ nual Vocational Guidance Conference in Home Economics today, according to Bertha K. Barclay '42, general chairman.

Home Economics students and other interested coeds may sign up sophomore women's honorary, nounced at the Mother's Day on the Home Economics bulletin board for conferences with Miss Elizabeth Beveridge, Woman's ship, contributions to the College, Home Companion home managecoeds tapped by the honorary in- ment editor; Miss Agnes Brumbaugh, College home economics extension director; and Miss Florence S. Macloon, Atherton Hall dieti-

> Miss Clara M. Brown, professor Popp, I. Jacqueline Shafer, Mar- of Home Economics Education, garet K. Sherman, Marjorie L. University of Minnesota, will speak Sykes, Lila A. Whoolery, and Mrs. at the Career Day dinner in the

First established on this campus In Ath Game

ed national in 1935 Mortain Board. 12-7, to take another step toward Purpose of Mortar Board is to winning the WRA intramural > Mary Weldy was high scorer for Ath East.

In the consolation tournament, Van Houten brought in four runs for the winners while Bea White, Gloria Hansel, and Georgeanna Holt each made three. Heavy sluggers for the Alpha Chi's were Estelle Brown and Mary Grace Delta Gamma trounced Chi Omega, 24-3. Heavy hitters were Sue Hay and Marty James with four runs and Patty Coe and Betty Cresswell with three runs for the victors.

Winner of the AOPi-Ath East game scheduled for Holmes Field at 6:30 p. m. today will challenge Ath West for intramural championship. Games scheduled for the consolation tournament today and Gamma Phi Beta versus Chi Omega at 4 p. m. Kappa Alpha Theta will clash with Alpha Chi Omega at 6:30.

Jimmie Irwin and Fran Angle will vie for table tennis championship tonight. The two were tied last night as Jimmie beat Fran-21-11 and 21-12.

Joan K. Miller '45, WRA Swimming Club president, announced pool office by tomorrow noon.

Advance prediction: Too many flies are going to get through Work done by them this year in- eds, have participated in number the summer without being swat-

IORNINGSTAR

Morningstar Bread is fine or every purpose. It makes sandwiches that are pleasing in taste and at the same time nourishing, And if you want crisp toast that farily melts in your mouth this is the loaf for you.

MORNING STAR, TRU-WHEAT PURITY BREAD and TROPHY WINNER CAKE