

Courtmen Face Bucknell Today

Still hampered by injuries, despite the return of Captain Chuck Bowman, the Lion courtmen make their second home appearance of the season today when they meet Bucknell on the varsity courts at 4 p. m.

Bowman, who missed the week-end trip because of recurring pains in his side, has fully recovered and may start at the number two position.

Coach Ted Roethke's chief worry now is the doubtful condition of sophomore star Cy Hull, who was forced from a doubles match Saturday because of a severe shinsplint.

Hull, States number one man, has been unable to practice this week, and the injury may force him on the sidelines for today's match.

The Lion's hopes for victory were dealt another blow yesterday when Al Hendler, sophomore starter, injured his shoulder.

Herb Kraybill, undefeated this year at the number six spot, suffered a slight ankle sprain in the Lehigh match, but will probably see action today.

Ace Parker, Bill Lundelius, and Johnny Knode complete the lineup for today's match.

Tuleya Slated To Hurl Against Muhlenberg Nine

Mushball Leagues Near Semi-Finals

Jordan Hall trimmed the Ingle-side Club, 12 to 2, and the Canal Street Firehouse squad downed Watts Hall, 4 to 1, in the independent section of the intramural mushball league last night. Herschel J. Baltimore and John Silan, co-managers of the softball league, announced that Triangle meets SAE tonight while Phi Sigma Kappa plays Beta Sigma Rho.

In the independent league tonight, Jordan Hall battles Miller Club in the semi-final round. The winner of this game plays the Canal Street Firehouse ten, champs of the past two years, for the title Friday afternoon.

Both the independent and fraternity leagues are being run off by the elimination system. As soon as a team loses a game, it is eliminated from further competition.

The results of preliminary round games played prior to last night are as follows:

INDEPENDENT

Nittany Avenue Co-op defeated Forestry Society; Canal Street Firehouse defeated Penn State Club; Irvin Hall defeated Lehigh Chemical Society; Frosh Metallurgists defeated Fairmount Hall; Miller Club defeated Atherton Hall Waiters; Jordan Hall defeated Independents; Watts Hall defeated Ag Ed; Watts Hall defeated Nittany Avenue Co-op; Canal Street Firehouse defeated Irvin Hall; Miller Club defeated Frosh Metallurgists.

FRATERNITY

Phi Kappa Sigma defeated Delta Tau Delta; Delta Chi defeated Alpha Kappa Pi; Alpha Chi Sigma defeated Sigma Nu; TKE defeated Gamma Sigma Rho; Phi Kappa Tau defeated Theta Kappa Phi; Alpha Zeta defeated Kappa Delta Rho; Phi Delta Theta defeated Theta Chi; Alpha Sigma Phi defeated Phi Sigma Delta; Phi Kappa Psi defeated Beaver House; Delta Sigma Phi defeated Kappa Sigma; Sigma Pi defeated SPE by forfeit.

Farris Tops Batting With .727 Average

Ed Tuleya, winning hurler of two of Penn State's three baseball victories this season, is slated to be on the mound when the Lions stack up against the Mules from Muhlenberg on the New Beaver field diamond at 4 p. m. today.

Third heaviest hitter on the undefeated club, Tuleya will probably hurl against the Colgate Red Raiders again when the Blue and White travel to New York for two games this weekend. Paul Lazar, only other pitcher with a win to his credit, is expected to get the nod for the Syracuse tilt away Friday.

Coach Joe Bedenk plans to use Tuleya, a junior southpaw pitcher, "every Wednesday and Saturday when he is ready."

Bedenk's baseballers are favored to top the Muhlenberg nine this afternoon, having registered a 6-4 win last year, but the results of the weekend battles are expected to lean in favor of the opposition.

Lineup for this afternoon will be the same as the first three contests, with Oogie Martella as backstop, Captain Bill Debler at first, Fran Farris at second, Spaky Brown on third, and Whitey Thomas at shortstop.

Outfielders who will start will be chosen at the outset of the game, depending on the delivery of Muhlenberg's hurler. On the list are Joe Piontek, Bob Vail, Jack Burford, Tom Sidler, Bob Perugini, and John Ebersole.

Seeking to extend his hitting streak will be Fran Farris, senior second baseman, who has hit safely the last seven times up, and leads the Lions with a .727 batting average.

Behind Farris is Whitey Thomas with .625; Tuleya, .500; Martella, .455; Lazar, .400; Sidler, .333; Piontek, .333; Perugini, .300; Vail, .200; Debler, .182.

DU, Phi Deltas, Phi Sigs Win In IM Soccer

Delta Upsilon defeated Kappa Sigma, 2-0, Phi Sigma Kappa No. 2 defeated Alpha Sigma Phi, 1-0, and Phi Delta Theta defeated Alpha Gamma Rho, 2-1, in yesterday's fraternity intramural soccer competition on the golf course fields.

The schedule for today, according to C. Eugene Cassel '44, student manager, pits Sigma Nu against Alpha Zeta at 5 p. m. and Theta Xi against Phi Sigma Kappa No. 1 at 5:30 p. m.

Tomorrow Phi Kappa Sigma will meet Alpha Chi Sigma No. 1 at 4:30 p. m., Phi Delta Theta faces Phi Sigma Kappa No. 2 at 5 p. m., and Sigma Alpha Epsilon plays Alpha Chi Sigma No. 2 at 5:30 p. m.

Extra Deadline Set For IM Track, Golf, Putting

The deadline for entries for intramural track, golf and golf putting has been set for Saturday noon in 213 Rec Hall, Eugene C. Bischoff, director of intramural athletics, announced yesterday.

There will be no fee charged for three intramural tournaments.

The IM track meet will be held at 4 p. m. next Wednesday and Thursday under the co-management of Robert M. Faloon '44 and Curtis C. Stone '44. Entrants may only enter three out of the 13 events listed and should signify which ones when they register.

Without An Elephant

True enough, "Penn State's Re- vive of 1942" will be without the traditional monkeys and elephants, but from the little we've seen by snooping about Rec Hall in the last few weeks, that's about all that will be lacking when Gene Wettstone and Co. put on their extravaganza come Saturday night. And might we add that better entertainment for the high school seniors attending "High School Day" on Saturday would be hard to find.

Outstanding Athlete

This year for the first time, the sports writers of this, our daily paper, will take over the selection of an outstanding athlete for the year. At first we wondered just why the Phys Ed school and coaches were so anxious for us to assume this task. Maybe they would like to see some one else dangling from a limb for a change. Be that as it may, an award for the outstanding athlete of the year will be presented at the Circus Saturday night.

Some Random Notes

Random notes on and off New Beaver Field... Gil Radcliff, star end on Nittany grid squad of '39 has recently been promoted to rank of captain. He is stationed in the Philippines and took advanced ROTC while here at State... Chet Snyder, last year's cross country star is now in Liberia... Over half of Joe Bedenk's diamond aspirants are sophomores, in fact, 16 out of 29... First sacker Bill Debler has been named to head Penn State's second V-5 flying unit... According to Bedenk, star moundsman Ed Tuleya does not get enough to eat at training table. Joe has caught him several times taking from lunch a paper bag full of sandwiches to eat after classes.

And the baseball mentor has other problems. It seems that the boys not only enjoy throwing the ball around, but Joe actually has to drive them in at night. Walking by the diamond at 2 o'clock in the afternoon the other day Joe was surprised to see five boys already in uniform and warming up.

Like Father Like Son

Almost without exception, sons of famous Penn State athletes star in the same sports that their dads did. Frosh Jack Weber is making a name for himself on the baseball diamond and Jack's dad was a great third sacker in '14. Sprint star Don Dolbin's dad was also a sprinter and captained the Lion trackmen in '16. The Sayre who wrestled here in '14 was the dad of the present wrestler Ralph Sayre.

Wrestlers Honor Smith At Banquet

Glenn B. Smith was elected honorary captain of the freshmen wrestling team at the annual banquet of the wrestlers held last night at the Nittany Lion Inn.

Lieut. Charles M. Speidel, former Lion wrestling mentor and now a member of the U. S. Naval Reserve, returned to the campus for the banquet after completing his course of training at the Annapolis Naval Academy. In his farewell speech, Speidel said that he will leave today for Philadelphia, then proceeding to North Carolina to go into active duty.

Newly elected frosh captain, Glenn Smith, affirmed his joy over the honor he received, but expressed his sorrow for "doc's" departure.
